RELIGION

TRUE INTEREST

OR PRACTICAL

NOTES

UPON

The Third Chapter of

MALACHY,

THE

Sixteen, Seventeen and Eighteen V E R S E S.

Seafonable for the Times.

By THOMAS WATSON, fometimes Minister of Stephens Walbrook, Lond.

PROV. 14. 27.

The Fear of the Lord is a Fountain of Life.

LONDON,

Printed by J. Aftwood, for Tho. Parkhurft, at the Bible and Three Crowns, at the lower end of Cheat-fids, near Mircors-Chappel, 1682.

TEE

TO THE

READER.

Christian Reader,

Books are the Children of the Brain. In this Writing Age* (ferè 12.12. ad nauseam) I intended my Pen should have been silent, but the variety and Weightiness of this Subject, as also the desire A 3 of

To the Reader.

of some Friends did prevail with me to Publish it. The main defign of this excellent Scripture, is to encourage Solid Piety, and confute the Atheists of the World, who imagine there is no gain in Godliness. It was the Speech of King Saul to his Servants, 1 Sam. 22.7. Will the Son of Fesse give every one of you Fields and Vineyards? Will the World or mens Lusts give them such noble Recompences of Remard, as God bestows upon his Followers? Surely, it is Holiness carries away the Garland. As for this Treatise, it comes abroad in a plain plain dress: Truth like a Diamond Shines brightest in its native Lustre; Saint Paul came not to the Corinthians was imegriv xines with excellency of Speech *, * 2 Cor. or the Pride of Oratory †; His + Mundi Study was not to Court, but facundi-Convert. It is an unbap-venditapiness that in these Luxuriant sins. times, Religion should for the most part run either into Notion or Ceremony; The Spirits of Religion are evaporated. When Knowledge is turned into Taste, and digested into Practice, then it is Saving. That God would accompany these sew impolite Lines, with the Operation

To the Reader.

UMI

15

e-

es

nis

To the Reader.

tion and Benediction of his holy Spirit, and make them edifying, is the Prayer of him who is

Thine in all Christian Service,

Nov. 22.

Thomas Watson.

THE

TABLE ALPHABETICAL

A

A Busers of Gods Jewels Punished.
pag. 181
Assolitations have their Consolations. p. 227 Apostacy dangerous p. 8 Appearance of sin to be shunned. p. 47 Arguments to hold fast Integrity in evil times. p. 7 Assurance and the Fear of God consistent.
p. 21

Beft

B

Best need Sparing.

Bodies of the Saints shall be perfect.

p. 202
p. 192

C

Arnal Fear evil.

Christians instead of speaking one to another, speak one of another.

p. 89
Comfort when God saith, Ye are mine.

p. 171
Covenant Union with God to be endeavoured.

p. 172

D

Ay of Judgment, how far to be feared by a Child of God. p. 71 Day of making up Gods Jewels. p. 190 Death how far to be feared by a Child of God. p. 67 Different carriage of God towards his Children and the Wicked. p. 134

Evil

E

TVI Thoughts are Punishable	in Gods
Court.	p. 111
Excellency of the Fear of God.	p. 29
Eyes of Sinners at present shut.	p. 209

F

Ear of God Described.	p. 15 Fear of God Described.  Fear of God is by a Trop	pe put for all Religion.	ibid.
Fear of God makes us Fear Sin.	p. 45 Fearing God and keeping his (	commandments Conjoyned.	P. 54
Fear of God, how to be attained.	p. 80
Fear of missing Heaven.	p. 78
Folly of Idolaters.	p. 136
Friends may be forgetful, but	God will not.	p. 150

G

God deals with his Saints, as a Father with his Son.

God deals well with his People when he Afflicts them.

P. 217

God

202 per-192

89 ine. 171 dea-

71

90 lof 67 his

34 vil

God takes notice of the Good in hi	is Children.	p. 130
Gods hearkning to us should make u ken to him.	p. 138
God hath a Book of Remembrance People.	p. 140
Gods owning of his People. Gods Sparing them.	p. 161
Good Conference to be used.	p. 201 p. 82 Graces of the Saints shall be perfect.

H

I Asty Words Shew the I	Devil to be in the Tongue.	p. 87
Hearts Deceit.	p.62
Heart not to be hardened ag	ainst God.
62.0	p. 156
Helps to good Discourse.	p. 100
Helps to boly Thoughts.	p. 127
Hell, how far to be Feared by	a Believer.	P. 73
Honour attends Holiness.	P. 174

Ť

T Dle Talk Cenfured,	p. 85
Incitements to holy Thoughts.	P. 114
Ingredients into the Fear of God.	p. 16
(6)	Integri-

Integrity to be preserved Inviolable. p. 3 Jovial Sinners reproved. p. 25

M

Aking up of Gods Jewels, what it implys.

Maintain honourable Thoughts of God in Affliction.

Matter of our Holy Musings.

Means to be good in evil times.

Mercies of God to be Recorded.

Murmuring a God-provoking Sin.

p. 113

p. 9

p. 87

N

Ame of God, what it signifies. p. 103

O

Aths weigh heavy in Gods Balance. p. 89 Omnisciency of God to be admired. p. 132

P

Priviledges of being in Covenant with God.

p. 165
Reafons

2

73

85

14

16 gri-

R

R Easons enforcing the Fear of God. p. 19

5

C'Aints should be sparing in	their Cen-Jures of others.	p. 205
Saints have Gods Ear.	p. 134 Saints Purgatory is in this Life.
Saints Gods Jewels.	p. 175
Saints should shine as Jewels.	p. 183
Satans Snares	p. 59
Scoffers the vilest of Sinners.	p. 28
Secure Sinners Characterized.	p. 27
Serve God as a Son doth his Fathe	er. p. 203
Signs of the Fear of God.	P. 45
Signs of such as shall goe to Hell Silence in Religion a loud sin.	p. 85
Sinful compliance fordid.	p. 5
Sin worse than Affliction.	p. 46
Sin begins in the Thoughts.	p. 109 Sinners have not right thoughts
	p. 107
Sinners Shall not be Spared.	p. 203
Sins of the Wicked written down	n in Gods Book of Remembrance.	p. 146 Sivafives

Vai

Wick Wife

Wor

Swafives to holy Conference.

P. 94

T

Hinking of God in a right manner. p. 125 Thoughts of God may be Peccant. p. 124 Thoughts and good Speeches of the Godly are Written down. p. 140 ime of Discerning between the Righteous and the Wicked. p. 210

V

Vain Thoughts the froth of the Brain.
p. 108
Vain thoughts Pernitious.
Union of the Saints at last.
p. 189

W

Ant of the Fear of God the cause of all sin.

Wicked men Vile in Gods account. p. 178 Wisdom to engage the Lord of Hosts on our side.

Works of Mercy.

P. 57

ERRA-

2-

4

59

27

45 74 85

46

09

od.

07

03 ods 46

ves

ERRATA.

Page 85. line 26. for no, read not. Pag. 155. marg. 3 Ufo, dele 3. Pag. 188. l.15, for discords r. discord.

泰森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森森

1100

She

***

PRACTICAL

NOTES

UPON

MALACH. III. Ver. 16, 17, 6.

Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another, and the Lord hearkned and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his Name. And they shall be mine (faith the Lord of Hosts) in that day when I make up my Jewels, and I will spare them as a man spareth his own Son that serveth him, &c.

CHAP. I.

Shewing, that Christians should hold fast their Integrity in times of defection.

Ground of Faith. This Por- 21.
tion of Scripture which now presents it self to our view, hath its Sacred Elegancies, and is all glorious within.

within. It was composed by Malachy, whose name imports Messenger*; he came upon an Ambassage from the God of Heaven. This Prophet was so famous, that Origen and others (though injudiciously) supposed him to be an Angel. He lived after the building of the second Temple, and was סיין ארציין contemporary with Haggai, and Zechariah †

This bleffed Prophet did lift up his voice like a Trumpet, and tell the Jewish Nation of their sins; and he was the last Trumpet that sounded in the Old Testament. In the words of the Text are these parts.

I. A Character of the Godly.

 In General, they were Fearers of God; they that feared the Lord.

2. In Special:

(1) They spake often one to another.

(2) They thought upon Gods Name. II. The Good Effects of their Piety.

1. The Lord regarded it; he hearkned and heard.

2. He recorded it; a book of remembrance was written.

He rewarded it; and this reward confifted in three things.

(1) Gods owning them; they shall be mine. (2) Gods

T

th

th ru na

in

tb.

an fhe

Th

fho

wh

ipe

the one

Pla

3

that day when I make up my Jevels.

(3) Gods Sparing them. I will spare them as a man spareth his own Some that serveth him.

Before I come to the feveral parts distinctly, here is a connexive particle stands in the front of the Text which may not be omitted, namely, the word Then.

Then they that feared the Lord, &c. Nivil erat Then, that is, after Israels return from negatin sathe Babylonish Captivity; then, when cerdotibus, the major part of the people grew corneque in vulgo, laxis rupt, and came worse out of the Furquas babenace than they went in, vers. 13, 14 *. Resure scale in this bad juncture of time, then they rum grassathat feared the Lord spake often one to ti survant. another. Hence observe,

That the Profaneness of the times should not flacken but highthen our zeal. The looser others are, the stricter we should be. In those degenerate times when men were arrived at the diam's and highth of Impudence, and durst speak Treason against Heaven; then they that seared the Lord spake often one to another. When others were Plaintists these were Defendants; when B 2 others

Dost

LIMI

re-

le

e

S

rs

to

d-

as

nd

his

fh

he

old

ext

ers

per.

me.

ırk-

784

others fpake against God, these spake for God.

In Noah's dayes all Flesh had corrupted it self, (the old World was drowned in sin before it was drowned in water:) now at this time, Noah was perfect in his Generation, and Noah walked with God, Gen. 6.9. He was the Phænix of his age. Athanasus stood up in the defence of the Truth, when the World was turned Arrian*. The more outragious others are in Sin, the more couragious we should be for Truth. When the Atheists said, 'tis Vain to serve God, Then they that seared the Lord spake often one to another.

* Iste vir totius orbis impetum sustinuit.

> Quest. Answ.

Why should we be holiest in evil Times.

1. Because of the divine Injunction. God chargeth us to be singular, Mat. 5. 47. to be circumspect, Eph. 5. 15. to be separate from Idolaters, 2 Cor. 6. 17. to shine as Lights in the World, Philip. 2. 15. He forbids us to symbolize with Sinners, or doe as they doe: the way to Hell is a beaten road, the Lord calls to us to turn out of the road, Exod. 23. 2.

* οι πλεί· su raxοὶ ἐισί. Bias.

Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil*. This is reason enough to keep our selves pure in a time of common

Infecti-

it

O

de

CU

ci

do

ag

m ali

ze

the lip

fro

are

use

me

Mo

con

Cafe

to

Infection. As Gods Word is our Rule, fo his Will is our Warrant.

2. To be holieft in evil times is an Indication of the truth of Grace. To profess Religion when the times favour it, is no Great matter. Who almost will not court the Queen of the Gospel when she is hung with Jewels? but to own the wayes of God when they are decried and maligned, to love a perfecuted truth, this evidenceth a vital Principle of Goodness. Dead Fish swim down the stream, living Fish swim against it. To swim against the common stream of evil shews Grace to be alive. The Prophet Elias continuing zerlous for the Lord of Hosts, when they had digged down Gods Altars, 1 King. 19. 10. shewed his heart and lips had been touched with a Coal from the Altar.

I Use. See hence how unworthy they are of the Name of Christians who use finful complyance, and cut the Garment of their Religion according to the Mode and fashion of the times. They confult not what is best, but what is (afest *. Complying spirits can truckle * Non qua to the humours of others; they can eundum fed B 3

C

d

)

73

X

ne

d

1-

1-

en

do

ke.

n.

5.

to

p.

th

to

to 2.

do

ep

OIT

ti-

bow either to the East or to the Host; they prefer a whole Skin before a pure Conscience. They can with the Planet Mercury vary their motion; they can as the Mariner shift their Sail with every wind: and as the Mungril Israelites speak the Language of Canaan and Albdod. These are like the Samaritans of whom Josephus faith, when the Jews flourished they pretended to be a-kin to them, and come of the tribe of Ephraim and Manasseh, but when the Jews were perfecuted, they disclaimed Kindred with them. The old Serpent hath taught men crooked windings, and to be for that Religion not which hath truth on its side, but power.

2 Use. Let us keep up the vigour of our zeal in times of degeneracy. We should by an holy Antiperistasis burn hotter in a frozen age. We live in the dregs of time; Sin is grown common and impudent: 'Tis excellent to walk Antipodes to the World. Rom. 12.2. Let us be as Lillies and Roses among the Briars. Sin is never the better because it is in fashion, nor will this plea hold at the last day, that we did as the most. God will say, Seeing you finned with the Multitude, you shall go to Hell with the Multitude. Olet us keep pure among dregs; let us be like Fish that retain their freshness in falt waters; and as that Lamp which shined in the smoothing Furnace, Gen. 15. 17.

you

Consider, 1. To be holy in times of General defection is that which God is Greatly pleased with. The Lord was much taken with the holy conferences and dialogues of these Saints in the Text. When others were inveighing against the Deity, that there should be a parcel of holy Souls speaking of Glory and the Life to come, their words were Musick in Gods ears.

2. To keep up a spirit of Holiness in an adulterous Generation, is a Christians honour. This was the glory of the Church of Pergamus, that she held fast Christs Name, even where Satans feat was, Rev. 2. 13. The Impiety of the times is a Foyl to set off Grace the more, and make it cast a greater lustre. Then a Christian is most lovely, when he is (as Ambrose faith) like the Cypresse, which keeps its Viridity and freshness in the Winter season. Psalm 37. 37. Mark the perfect man, and behold B 4

re

et

n

th

te-

nd

ns

NS

in

1-

WS

n-

th

to

th

of

ırn

in

m-

to

m.

fes

the

vill

we

ing

ou

the Upright: An upright man is always worth beholding, but then he is most to be admired when like a bright Star he Shines in the dark, and having loft all, holds fast his integrity.

3. To be Good in a profligate Age, doth much animate weak beginners; it Strengthens feeble knees, Isa. 35. 3. And shores up those Temples of the Holy Ghost which are ready to fall. One mans Zeal is a Torch for others to light at. How did the Constancy of the Martyrs inflame the love of many to the Truth! Though only Christs blood doth Save, yet the blood of Martyrs may strengthen. St. Paul's Prison Chain, made Converts in Nero's Court, two of which were afterwards Martyrs as History relates. Mr. Bradford's holy advice and example fo confirmed Bishop Farrar that he would not touch * Fox Ads with the Roman Pollution. *

& Mon.

4. How fad will it be for Christians to fall off from their former Profession, and espouse a novel Religion. Julian Bathed himself in the blood of Beasts Offered in Sacrifice to the Heathen Gods, and fo as much as in him lay wash'd off his former Baptism. time ti

P

II

n fo

of

no te

H

us

th de

th

to H

an

fta

to

W

fire

m

the time of Julius Cefar this Prodigy happened, after a plentiful Vintage there were wild Grapes appeared upon their Vines, which was looked upon as Ominous. When men feemed to bring forth the Fruits of Righteousness, and af. terwards bring forth the Wild Grapes of Impiety, it is a fad Omen and Prognostick of their Ruine, 2 Pet. 2. 21. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of Righteousness, than after they have known it to turn from the Holy Commandment. Let all this make us maintain the power of Holiness in the worst Times: Though others wonder we do not fin after the rate that they do, yet, remember, it is better to go to Heaven with a few, than to Hell in the Crowd.

How may we keep up the briskness Quest.; and fervour of Grace in times of Apo-stacy.

1. Let us beware of having our hearts Answ. too much linked to the World. The World damps zeal, as Earth chokes the fire. We are bid to love our Enemies; but the World is such an Enemy as we must not love, I John 2. 15. Love not the World. The World bewitcheth with her Blandishments, and kills with her filver Darts. He who is a Demas, will be a Judas; a lover of the World, will for a piece of Money betray a good Cause, and make Shipwrack of a good Conscience.

2. Let us be Voluntiers in Religion; that is, Choose God's service, Pfal. 119. . 30. Ihave chosen the way of truth. It is one thing to be good out of Design, and another thing to be good out of Choice. Hypocrites are good only out of worldly design, they embrace the Gospel for fecular advantage, and these will in time fall away. The Chelidonian Stone keeps its Vertue no longer than it is inclosed in Gold, take it out of the Gold, and it loseth its vertue. False Hearts are good no longer than they are inclosed in golden Prosperity, take them out of the Gold, and they lofe all their feeming Goodness: But if we would retain our Sanctity in Backfliding times we must serve God purely out of Choice. He who is good out of Choice loves holiness for its beauty, and adheres to the Gospel, when all the Jewels of preferment are pulled off.

3. Let us be inlaid with fincerity. If a piece of Timber begin to bend, it is because it is not found. Why do any bend and comply against their Conscience, but because their hearts are not found, Pfal. 78. 37. Their hearts were not right with him, neither were they stedfast. Sincerity causeth stability. When the Apostle exhorts to stand fast in the evil day, among the rest of the Christian armour, he bids them put on the Girdle of truth, Ephel. 6. 19. Stand fast therefore, having your loins Girt about with truth. The Girdle of Truth is nothing else but fincerity.

4. Let us get love to Christ. Love is an holy transport, it fires the affections, freels the Courage, carries a Chriftian above the love of life, and the fear of death, Cant. 8. 7. Many waters cannot quench Love : Love made Christ fuffer for us. If any one ask what Christ died off; it may be anfwered, he died of Love. If we love Christ, we will own him in the worst times, and be like that Virgin Bafil speaks of, who not accepting deliverance upon finful terms, cried out, Let Life and

Money go, welcome Christ.

her

vill

vill

od

od

n;

is

nd

ce.

d-

or

in

ne

n-

d, ts

n-

m

11

'e

(-

d

1,

t

9. .

* Quid ifte

faceret in igne, qui

Christum

rubuit in nube? Hi-

crom.

* Chryfoft.

5. If we would keep up the sprightly Vigour of Grace in evil times, let us harden our Hearts against the taunts and reproaches of the wicked. David was the Song of the Drunkards, Pfal. 69. 12. A Christian is never the worse for reproach. The Stars are not the less Glorious though they have ugly names given them, the Bear, the Dragon, &c. Reproaches are but Assula Crucis, the Chips of the Cross. How will he endure the Stake, who cannot bear a Scoff? * Reproaches for Christ, are Enfigns of Honour, Badges of Adoption, I Pet. 4. 14. Exxxinuala Exxunia. * Let Christians bind these as a Crown about their Head. Better have men reproach you for being good, than have God Damn you for being wicked. laughed out of your Religion: If a Lame man laugh at you for going upright, will you therefore halt?

6. If we would keep up the Vigour of devotion in a General Epilepfy, let us beg of God confirming Grace. Habitual Grace may flag; Peter had habitual Grace, yet was foyled; he loft a fingle Battel, though not the Victory. We need exciting, affifting, corroborating

ry fr

in k

ti

th

of

pa

aj

ting Grace; not onely Grace in us, but Grace with us, I Cor. 15. 10. Auxiliary Grace ( which is δπιχορηγία πνέυμαθος, a fresh gale of the Spirit) will carry us undauntedly through the Worlds bluftering storms. Thus shall we be able to keep up our Heroick zeal in corrupt times, and be as Mount Zion which cannot be moved.

CHAP. II.

Shewing the Character in general of the Godly, and what the Fear of God is.

Aving done with the frontispiece of the Text, I begin (1) with the Character in General of the Godly, they are Fearers of God, they that feared the Lord.

What Fear is meant here?

1. Negatively; It is not meant (1) of a natural Fear, which is a tremor or is a vital The palpitation of Heart, occasioned by the i megan, approach of some imminent danger, * in oarflaci-Eccles. 12. 5. Fears shall be in the way.

Queft. Anfw. * $630 as mexhou-Jos yaxx. It Arift.Rhet.

2. It is not meant of a sinful Fear, which is twofold.

1. A Superstitious Fear: An Hare croffing the way, is by fome more dreaded than an Harlot lying in the Bed.

* Peffinus mor augur.

2. A Carnal fear *; this is the Ague of in dubijsti- the Soul which fets it a shaking. He who is timorous will be treacherous; he will decoy his friend, and deny his God. Three times in one Chapter Christ cautions us against the fear of Men, Mat. 10. Verf. 26, 28, 31. Aristotle faith the reason why the Camelion turns into so many colours, is through excessive fear: Fear makes men change their Religion as the Camelion doth her Colours.

1. Carnal Fear is discruciating, 1 Joh. 4. 18. Fear hath torment in it; the Greek *K'Azas. word for Torment, * is sommetimes put for Hell, Mat. 25. 46. Fear hath Hell in it.

> 2. It is Pernitious. 1. It Indisposeth for Duty. The Disciples under the power of Fear, were fitter to Fly than to Pray, Mat. 26. 56.

2. It puts men upon indirect means to Save themselves, Prov. 26. 25. The Fear of man bringeth a Snare; what made Peter deny Christ, and Origen sprinkle incense incense before the Idol, but fear?

2. Politively; the Fear meant in the Text is a Divine Fear, which is the reverencing and adoring Gods Holiness, and setting our selves always under his Sacred inspection. The infinite distance between God and us caufeth this Fear. When Gods Glory began to shine out upon the Mount, Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake, Heb. 12. 21. Such as approach Gods presence with light feathery Hearts, and Worship him auntage in a rude careless manner, have none of this fear. In the words are two parts.

1. The Act, Fear.

2. The Object, the Lord.

They that feared the Lord: The fear of God is the Summe of all Religion, Eccles. 12. 13. Fear is the leading Grace, the first feed God fows in the Heart. When a Christian can fay little of Faith, and perhaps nothing of Assurance, yet he dares hot deny but he fears God. * God is fo Great that he is afraid of dif- 1.11. pleafing him, and fo Good that he is afraid of lofing him.

It is an indifpenfible Duty incum- Doct. bent on Christians to be Fearers of God.

Eccles.

Eccles. 5.7. Fear thou God. Deut. 28.58. That thou maist fear this Glorious and fearful name the Lord thy God. This goes to the very conflituting of a Saint. One can no more act as a Christian without Fear, than he can act as a man without reason. This Holy Fear is the fixed temper and Complexion of the Soul; This Fear is not Servile but Filial; there is difference between Fearing God, and being afraid of God; the Godly fear God as a Child doth his Father, the wicked are afraid of God as the Prisoner is of the Judge. This divine Fear will appear admirable, if you confider how it is mixed and interwoven with feveral of the Graces.

1. The Fear of God is mixed with Love, Pfal. 145. 19, 20. The Chaft Spouse fears to displease her Husband because she loves him: There's a necessity that fear and love should be in conjunction. Love is as the Sails to swiften the Souls motion, and Fear as the Ballast to keep it steady in Religion: Love will be apt to grow wanton unless it be poised with fear.

2. The Fear of God is mixed with Faith, Hebr. 11. 7. By Faith Noah moved moved with fear, &c. When the Soul looks either to Gods Holiness, or it's own finfulness, it fears, but it is a fear mixed with faith in Christs merits; the Soul doth tremble yet trust. Like a Ship which lies at Anchor, though it shakes with the wind, yet it is fixed at Anchor. God in Great wisdom coupleth these two graces of Faith and Fear. Fear preserves seriousness, faith preserves chearfulness. Fear is as Lead to the Net to keep a Christian from floating in presumption, and Faith is as Cork to the Net to keep him from sinking in despair.

3. The Fear of God is mixed with Prudence: he who fears God hath the Serpents eye in the Doves head. He foresees and avoids those Rocks which others run upon. Prov. 22.3. Though divine Fear doth not make a Person Cowardly, it makes him Cautions.

4. The Fear of God is mixed with Hope. Pfalm 33. 18. The eye of the Lord is on them that fear him, that hope in his mercy. One would think Fear should destroy Hope, but it cherisheth it. Fear is to Hope as the Oil to the Lamp, it keeps it burning: the more we fear Gods Justice, the more we may hope in his Mercy. Indeed such as have no Fear of God do sometimes hope, but it is not included. 2. 16. Sinners pretend to have the helmet of Hope, 1 Thes. 5. 8. but want the breast-plate of Righteousness, Ephel. 6. 14.

5. The Fear of God is mixed with Industry, Heb. 11. 7. Noah moved with fear prepared an ark. There is 1. A fear of diffidence, which represents God as a fevere Judge, this takes the Soul * Mat. 25. off from duty *. 2. A fear of diligence; a Christian fears and prayes, fears and repents. Fear quickens Industry. The Spoule fearing lest the Bridegroom should come before she is dressed, hastens and puts on her Jewels, that The may be ready to meet him. Fear causeth a watchful eye, and a working hand. Fear banisheth sloth out of it's Diocese. The Greatest labour in Religion (faith Holy Fear ) is far less than the least pain the damned feel in Hell: no Greater Spur in the Heavenly race than fear.

CHAP.

CHAP. III.

Cogent Reasons enforcing the Fear of God.

He Reasons enforcing this Holy Fear are, 1. Because Gods eye is alwayes upon us. He who is under the eye of his earthly Prince, will be carefull of doing any thing that should offend him. Job 31. 4. Doth not he fee my wayes, and count all my Steps? God sees in the dark. Psalm 139.12. The darkneß hideth not from thee. The night is no Curtain, the clouds are no Canopy to hinder or intercept Gods fight. He fees the Heart. A Judge can judge of the fact, but God judgeth of the Heart. Jer. 17. 10. He is like Ezekiels wheels, full of eyes, Ezek. 10. 12. and as Cyril faith, Thos do Danwis, all Eye. Should not this make us walk with fear and circumspection? we cannot fin but our Judge looks on.

2. God interprets our not fearing him a flighting of him. As not to praise

God, is to wrong him; fo not to fear God, is to fleight him. Of all things a person can least endure to be fleighted. Psalm 10. 13. Wherefore doth the wic-

* 8 ratu- ked contemn God *? For a worm to fleight egyapa. it's Maker causeth the fury to rise up Arift. rhet. in Gods face. Ezek. 38. 18.

3. God hath power to destroy us. Mat. 10. 28. Fear him who hath power to destroy both Soul and Body in Hell. God can look us into our Grave, and with a breath blow us into Hell, and shall we not fear him? Is it easie to wrestle with flames? Psalm 90. 11. Who knoweth the Power of his anger? What engines or buckets can quench the infernal fire? We are apt to fear men who have power in their hand to hurt us; what is their power to Gods? They threaten a Prison, God threatens Hell. They threaten our Life, God threatens our Soul, and shall we not tremble * In geben- before him *? O dreadful, when the great Fountains of Gods wrath shall be broken up, and all his Bitter Vials pour-na nee qui formains of Gods wrath shall be brotigatar. Ken up, and all his Bitter Vials pournee qui tor- ed out! Ezek. 22. 14. Can thy heart quetar mornitur. Bern. endure, or can thy hands be strong in the flor.

day that I shall deal with thee?

Object.

But are not we bid to ferve God without Fear? Luke 1. 74. We

LIMI

We must not Fear God with such Answ. a fear as the wicked do; they fear him as a Turkish Slave doth his Pateroon; they fear him so as they hate him and wish there were no God*.

We must not serve God with this hellish traine odefear, but we must serve him with an in-runt.

genuous fear sweetned with love.

CHAP. IV.

Containing a practical Improvement of the Proposition.

That a Christian cannot have Assurance, because he is to serve God with sea. Assurance and Fear are diversa but not Opposita, different but not contrary. A Child may have assurance of his Fathers love, yet hath a fear of offending him. Who more fearful of Sin than St. Paul? I Cor. 9.27. Yet who had more assurance? Galat. 2. 20. Who Loved me, and Gave himself for me. Faith procures assurance *, fear pre-*Ephes. Servesit.

2 Use. Information.

E.

Is it a duty to Fear God, what strangers then are they to Religion, who are void of this Holy Fear? The Godly fear and fin not, the wicked fin and fear not. They are like the Leviathan. who is made without Fear, Job 41. 33. Want of the fear of God is the innate Caufe of all Wickedness, Rom. 3. 14. Whose mouth is full of Cursing and bitterness, their feet are swift to shed blood. Whence was this? verf. 18. There is no fear of God before their eyes: Abraham furmized the men of Gerar would stick at no Sin; why so? Gen. 20. 11. I thought surely the fear of God is not in this place. The Judge in the Gospel is called an unjust Judge, Luke 18. 6. And no wonder, for verf. 2. he feared not God. There must needs be an excess of Sin where there wants the Fear of God to restrain it. The water must 'needs Overflow where there are no banks to keep it out. We live in a Godless age; durst men Sin at that rate as they do, if the fear of God were regent in their hearts? durst they swear, be unclean, use False weights, bear false witness, hate purity, deride Gods figns in the Heaven, ven, Forge Plots, Persecute Christs body, if they had the fear of God before their eyes? these men proclaim to the World that they are Atheists; they believe not the Immortality of the Soul. They are worse than brutish, a Beast fears the fire, these fear not Hell Fire. They are worse than Devils, for they believe and tremble, Jam. 2. 19.

Let us bewail the want of the Fear Use 3. Laof God. — Terras Astraa reliquit. mentation.

Whence is it so few fear God? Quest.

1. Because they have not the know- Answ. ledge of God. * Prov. 1. 24. They ha-* Omne picted knowledge, and did not choose the catum function of the Lord: did men know God norantia. in his immense glory, they would be swallowed up with divine amazement. When the Prophet Isaiah had a glimpse of Gods Glory, he was stricken with holy consternation. Isaiah 6. 5. Wo is me, I am undone, for mine eyes have seen the King the Lord of Hosts. But the Ignorance of God banisheth fear.

2. Men fear not God because they presume of his Mercy. God is merciful, and they doubt not of the Vertue of this soveraign Balm. But who is Gods mercy for? Luke 1. 50. His mercy is on them that fear him. Such as fear not Gods Justice, shall not taft his Mercy:

C 4 is

Let this be for a Lamentation, that the fear of God is fo vanished. Where almost is it to be found? Some fear shame, others fear danger, but where is he who fears a Deity? Diogenes came into a full Market with a Candle and Lanthorn; they asked him what he fought? faith he, Hominem quaro, I feek a man; that is, a wife man. So in the Crowd of people we may go and feek a man fearing God.

And not only among the Commonalty, but even among Professors how few fear God in truth! Professor is often made a Mantle to cover sin. Absalom palliated his Treason with a Religious Vow. 2 Sam. 15. 7. The Pharisees made long Prayer a preface to Oppression, Mat. 23. 14. This is forded, to carry on wicked designs fublarva Pietatis, under a pretext of Piety. The Snow covers many a dunghill. A snovy vyhite Profession covers many a foul heart. The sins of Profesfors are more odious. Thistles are bad in a Field, but vvorse in a Garden. The fins of the vvicked anger God, but the fins of Professors Grieve him.

It reproves Jovial Sinners, vvho Use 4. are Io far from fearing God, that they Reproof. Branch, fpend their time in mirth and vvantonnels, Luke 17. 27. They did eat, they drank, they married, till the flood came and destroyed them all. There is a place in Affrica called Tombutium, where the Inhabitants spend all the day in piping and dancing. What fenfual effeminate lives do the Gallants of our age live! They spend their Life in a Frolick. As if God had made them to be like the Leviathan who plays in the Sea. Job 21. 13. They take the Timbrel and Harp, and rejoyce at the found of the Organ. They ride to Hell upon the

Though the Times are fad, they have no fear in regard of the publique: Doth not God call us to trembling? our fins are the fiery Comets that prefage evil. May not we fear the Glory is departing? may not we fear the death back of Pleasure, and go merrily to damnation.

death of Religion before the birth of Reformation? May not we fear fome portentous calamity should bring up the rear of former Judgments? and (as the Prophet Ezekiel faith, ) Should * cantabat we then make mirth? Ezek. 21. 10 *. mætis tibiz funoribus. Ovid.

But Jovial spirits have banished the fear of God. Amos 6. 4, 5. That lye upon beds of Ivory, and stretch themfelves upon their couches, that drink wine in Borls, and anoint themselves with the chief Oyntments. Sinners whose hearts are hardned with fost pleasures, let them have their lusts, and farewell Christ and his Gospel. Jude 12. Feeding themselves without fear. But they Forget death will bring in the reckoning, and they must pay the reckoning in Hell. The Great Turk when he intends the death of any of his Balbans, invites them to a Sumptuous Feast, and then causeth them to be taken away from the Table and strangled: so Satan Gluts men with finful pastimes and delights, and then strangles them. Foolish Gallants are like the Fish that fwim pleafantly through the Silver streams of Jordan, till * 1 Tim.6. at last they fall into the dead Sea *.

It

It reproves fecure Sinners who have 2-Br. no Fear of God. Like Laifb of old, Judg. 18. 27. A people quiet and fecure. Those who are least fafe, are most confident. Security casts men into a deep Sleep. Birds that build and roost in Steeples, being used to the continual ringing of Bells, the noise doth not at all disquiet them. So Sinners who have been long used to the sound of Aarons Bells, though ever and anon they have a peal rung out against their sins, yet being used to it, they are not startled. A secure sinner is Known thus:

1. He lives as bad as the worst, yet hopes to be saved as well as the best. He doth bless himself, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of my heart, Deut. 29. 19. As if a man should drink Poison, yet not doubt but he shall have his health. A secure sinner lies in Delilahs lap, yet hopes to be in Abrahams bosom.

2. A fecure finner thinks all is well, because all is in peace. He hears others speak of a Spirit of bondage, and the terrors they have felt for sin, he thanks God he never Knew what Trouble of spirit meant; he thinks his

Consci-

ie

p ld

4.

ie

ve

e

-

Conscience is Good, because it is quiet. When the Devil keeps the Palace all is in peace, Luke 11. 21. The Philosopher saith, one Great sign of an Earthquake is excessive Calmness of the Air: ungrounded peace doth presage an Earthquake in the conscience.

¥ Ψύχης ἀνλαξιον ἐδὲν• Ματ.26.26

3. A fecure finner is careless about the main Chance. The Soul is the princely part, which is crowned with reason; it is a glass of the Trinity, as Plato calls it. A fecure finner provides for his Body, but neglects his Soul; like one that waters his Flowers, but never minds his Jewels. Behold here a fecure person, who is in a spiritual Lethargy; he hath no sence of the life to come, he is destitute of the fear of God.

2. Branch.

It reproves Scoffers, who are the vilest of sinners. 2 Pet. 3. 3. There shall come in the last daies Scoffers. Such were Lucian and Porphiry. These Ishmaels jeer at holy walking, and make all Religion a Ridicule. They throw Squibs of reproach at the Saints. Quintinus scoffed at Christs Apostles. In the Massacre at Paris, the Papists eried out to the Protestants when they

20

V

(

11

they murdered them, Where is now your God? what is become of all your Pfalms now, and your Prayers? Some Martyrs in Prague, as they were at Supper (being the next day to suffer) comforted themselves saying, That this was their last Supper upon Earth, and that to morrow they should sup with Christ in Heaven; a Great Papist slouted them, saying, Hath Christ Cooks for you in Heaven? These are Devils in the likeness of men. They are far from the sear of God: The Scorners chair stands at the mouth of Hell.

It exhorts us to get the fear of Use 5. ExGod planted in our hearts. Prov. 28. hortation.

19. Happy is he that feareth alway *. * Homo TiThe fear of God would influence all the minanour actions. It would make us Good tem munin both Tables. It would make us dam ridebis.

Holy towards God, and Righteous towards men. We would be true in our Promises, just in our dealings. Mat.
7. 12. That I may press you to this Holy Fear, let me thew you the dignity and excellency of it.

1. The fear of God is the very Badge and Livery of a Saint. The Saints of old were men fearing God. Gen. 22. 12.

Act.

et.

all

ni-

an

eut

he

th

as

0-

is

V-

e-

in ce

of

ie

re h

1-

e

V

of .

Act. 10. 22. 1 Kin. 18. 3. Obadiah feared the Lord Greatly. Not all the Moral Vertues in their Highest elevation make a Saint, but here is his true Character, He is one that Fears God. Saint Austin said of himself, that he did knock at Heaven-gate tremibunda manu, with a trembling hand; Christ calls his Elect his sheep, John 10. 27. Sheep are of a trembling nature. The Saints are tremulous, they dare not take that liberty as others do.

2. The Fear of God is a main branch of wisdom. 'Tis called איר, the Head

* in The of mission, Prov. 1. 7. * Wissom is received not more precious than Rubies, Prov. 3. 15. Sophocles. No Jewel we wear, doth so adorn us as wissom; now the fear of God is *Corona sa our wisdom; now the fear of God is pinnia Timor Domini. he said, the fear of the Lord that is Aug. Tom. 9 misdom *.

Quest. Wherein is the fear of God the true wisdom?

it makes us careful about our fpiritual accounts. Wisdom lies in nothing more than in keeping accounts exactly. The fear of God teacheth one to examine the state of his Soul criti-

UMI

cri

Fa lai

it

do

fea

ou

P

be

m P

25

ne

th

A

th

of 147

m

of

m I

0

tl

critally. O my Soul how is it with thee? dost thou gain or lose? is thy Faith in it's Infancy, being but newly laid to the breast of a Promise? or is it Grown to some stature? how is it? doth Grace prevail or Sin? Thus the fear of God makes us wisely ballance our accounts, and fee how matters stand between God and our Souls. Pfalm 77. 6. I commune with my own heart, and my spirit made diligent fearch.

2. The fear of God is Wisdom as it makes us understand divine secrets. Pfalm 25. 14. The fecret of the Lord is with them that fear him*. He must *Arcana needs be wife who is acquainted with per interthe Arcana cæli, the secrets of Heaven. nam spiritus A fearer of God is acquainted with onem enunthe fecret of Election, I Thest. 1. 4. ciat Deus. of Gods love, Rev. 1. 5. of the holy Piscator. unction, 1 John 2. 20. He knows Gods mind, I Cor. 2.16. We have the mind of Christ.

3. The fear of God is Wisdomas it makes us confiderative. Plalm 119.59. I considered my mayes. A great part of wisdom lies in consideration. who fears God confiders how Vain the world is, therefore dares not love it :

0-

n

le

d.

ne

da

ft

7.

ne

ot

h ıd

is

5.

15

is

in

is

ne

as i-

0-ts

ıΙ

it; how short Time is, therefore dares not lose it; how precious Salvation is, therefore dares not neglect it.

4. The Fear of God is Wisdom as it makes us walk wisely. Col. 4. 5. Walk wisely, Table 12st, towards them that are without. 1. The Fear of God makes us walk affably. Gen. 23. 7. Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the Children of Heth. Piety doth not exclude Curtesie. 2. The Fear of God makes us walk inosfensively: it prevents not only Scandals but Indecencies. 2 Cor. 11. 12. That I might cut off occasion from them that desire occasion. The Veneration of a Deity causeth circumcition of Heart, and circumspection of Life.

5. The Fear of God is Wisdom, as it preserves us from Hell: 'tis wisdom to keep out of danger; fear makes us fly from the wrath to come.

3. The Fear of God is the best Certificate to shew for Heaven. Have you knowledge? so hath Satan; have you Profession? so hath Satan, he transforms himself into an Angel of light. But have you filial fear? herein you excel him. The fear of God is, though not

İ

lu

2. ha

ev

m

the

is

La

pec left

God

the iefty

I w

of t

ture

fee

Sun,

not our Plea, yet our Evidence for Heaven.

4. There is that in God which may command fear. Job 37. 22. With God is terrible Majesty.

1. With God is Majesty.

1. There is Majesty in Gods Name, Fehovah. It comes from an Hebrew Radix*, which imports Gods abso- *777 lute, Eternal, and Independent being. 2. There is Majesty in Gods Looks. Job had but a glimple of God, and he was even swallowed up with divine amazement, Job 42. 5. Now mine Eye feeth thee, wherefore I abhorr my felf. 3. There is Majesty in Gods Words, he speaks with Majesty; as when he gave the Law in thundring, infomuch that the people said, Let not God speak with us lest we die. 4. There is Majesty in Gods Attributes; his Holiness, Power, Justice, which are the Irradiations of the divine Essence. 5. There is Majesty in Gods Works, Pfalm 145. 5. I will speak of the Honour and Majesty of thy wondrous works. Every Creature fets forth Gods Majesty; we may lee the Majesty of God Blazing in the Sun, Twinkling in the Stars: Gods Majesty

ires

ion

as

5. hat

God

7. to

not boo

re-

en-

cut

ali-

au-

ım-

as

om

us er-

ive

ve

n[-

bt.

ou

gh

not

jesty is discernable in those two Wonders of nature Behemoth and Leviathan, Job 40. 18. chap. 41. 19. In short, the Majesty of God is seen in humbling the Children of Pride. He turned King Nebuchadnezzar to grass, and made him Fellow-commoner with the Beasts: Doth not all this call for Fear?

2. With God is Terrible Majesty. Pfalm 76. 12. He is terrible to the Kings of the Earth. There is a time coming when God will be dreadful to his enemies; when Conscience is awake, when Death strikes, when the last Trump sounds. And shall not we Fear this God? Jer. 5. 22. Fear ye not me, faith the Lord, will ye not tremble at my presence? The Fearing Gods Justice is the way not to feel it.

And let it not seem strange to you, if I tell you, that in respect of Gods infinite Majesty, there will be some of this blessed Fear in Heaven. Not a Fear that hath Torment in it, for Perfect love will cast out Fear. But an Holy, Sweet, Reverential sear. Though God hath so much beauty in him as shall cause love, and joy, in Heaven,

yet

y

por

gii life

91 ivy

Go

ma

his

tho

nat

tha

Fea

com

that

The

nan

and

Life

Eve

ry J

yet this beauty is mixed with fo much Majesty, as shall cause a Veneration in Glorified Saints.

5. The Fear of God tends to life; Pro. 19. 23. It is true, 1. In a temporal sence, Prov. 10. 27. The fear of the Lord prolongeth daies; in the Original it is, It addeth dayes *. Long * D'DIT! life is Promised as a bleffing, Psalm 91. 16. With long Life will I satisfie him. The best way to come to an sugnela, a Good Old age, is the Fear of God. Sin curtails the life: many a mans excess wasts his Vitals, enervates his strength, and cuts him short of those years which by the course of * cur scalenature might be arrived at *. You re mortem that defire to live long, live in the acceleras? Fear of God. Deut. 6. 24. The Lord 17. commanded us to fear the Lord our God, Mercer. that he might preserve us alive.

2. It is true in a Spiritual sence. The Fear of the Lord tendeth to life: namely, to life Eternal. Life is sweet, and Eternal makes it Sweeter f. The fatternal Life of bliss hath no Tearm of Years Vita verd wherein it expires, I Thes. 4. 17. Lita, Aug. Ever with the Lord: The Lamp of Glory shines, but doth not spend; so that

D 2 divine

1-

n, ne

ng ed

nd

he

for

ly.

the

me

to

the

we

mble Iu-

you, infi-

e of

ot a

Per-

an

ough

n as

aven,

yet

divine Fear tends to Life; a life with God and Angels for ever.

6. The Fear of God gives full fatisfaction, Prov. 19. 23. He that hath it, shall abide satisfied. Such as care destitute of Gods Fear never meet with satisfaction. Job 20. 22. In the midst of his sufficiency he shall be in straits. This is a riddle, to be full yet not have enough. The meaning is, there is ftill fomething wanting: he who Fears not God, though his Barns are full, yet his Mind is not quiet. The fweet Waters of Pleasure do rather inflame the thirst than satisfie it. Omnia fui et nihil expedit; I have run through all the delights and Grandures of the world, and could never find full contentment, faid the Emperour Severus. But he who hath the Fear of the Lord, Shall abide Satisfied.

1. He shall be satisfied.

His Soul shall be filled with Grace, his Conscience with peace: an Holy man said, when God had replenished him with inward joy, It is enough Lord, thy Servant is a clay vessel and can hold no more.

2. He shall abide fatisfied.

This fatisfaction shall not cease; it

is

th li

m

A

th

ear

W

TH

is

Di

faf

car

Mo

he

Ca

free

He

Go

nev

shall be a Cordial in death, and a Crown after death.

7. The fear of God makes a little to be fweet, Prov. 15. 16. Better is a little with the fear of the Lord. Why is a little better? because that little a Believer hath he holds in Capite, in his Head Christ; that little is sweetned with the love of God. He hath with that little a contented mind; and contentment turns Daniels Pulse into Venison *. *Dan.1.12 Again, that little is a Pledge of more; that little Oyl in the Cruse is but an earnest of that Golden joy and bliss which the Soul shall have in Heaven. Thus a little with the Fear of God is better than all unfanctified riches. Lazarus's Crumbs were better than Dives his Banquet.

8. The Fear of God is a Christians fafety. He is invulnerable, nothing can hurt him: Plunder him of his * 76 366 may. Money, he carries a treasure about him four replication he cannot be robbed of *. If a. 33. 6. Tay introcent free; Kill his Body, it shall rise again. Chrys. He who hath on this Breast-Plate of + Si vis effords Fear, may be shot at, but can se securing, never be shot thorow †.

D 3 9. The ft

s. ot

re

10

re

he nfui

all

he

n-

us.

ce,

ith

ore.

; it

hall

112.

9. The Fear of God makes all things go well with us, Pfalm 128. 2. Bieffed is every one that feareth the Lora, happy shalt thou be, and it shall +Eccles. 8. be well with thee +.

Is it not well with that man who hath all things go on his fide, and hath nothing wanting that may do him Good? Pfalm 84. 11. If God fees Health or Riches Good for him, he shall have them. Every Providence shall center in his happiness. O what an inducement is here to solid Piety. Come what times will, it shall be well with them that Fear God. When they dye they shall go to God, and while they live every thing in the world shall do them good.

cleanser, Psalm 19. 9. The fear of the Lord is clean. It is so, 1. In its own nature, it is a pure, Christal, Orient grace. 2. It is clean Effective, in the effect of it; it cleanseth the Heart and Life; as a Spring works out the mud, so it purgeth out the love of sin. The Heart is the Temple of God, and Fear sweeps and cleanseth this Temple that it be not defiled.

11. The ea

an

D

Fa

ne

ac

10

201 me

W

ha

for

Fe

th

is

the

W

in

Fe

110 ma

if t

his

He

12. The Fear of God layes a train for spiritual joy: some may think the Fear of God breeds sadness; no, it is the in-let to joy*. The Fear of God is the morning Star, which ushers in coldinary the Sun light of comfort, Alts 9. 31. The Chrys. ad Walking in the Fear of the Lord, and indians was in the comforts of the Holy ghost. The Thy Taylive not wanton. Oecolampadius an holy 18. man being on his sick-bed, was asked if the Light offended him? he putting his hand to his heart said, Hie sat lucis; Here I have light enough. God mix-

D 4 eth

all

2.

the

all

ho

nd

do

ees

he nce

hat

ty.

well

ney

nile

orld

eat

the

wn

ient

the

and

ud,

fin.

and em-

The

eth joy with Holy Fear, that fear may not feem flavish.

* Quid timet homo, in senu Dei postitus? Aug.

13. The Fear of God drives out all other base Fear *. Carnal fear is an enemy to Religion. The Fear of God frights it away; it caufeth Courage, Exod. 18. 21. Able men, such as Fear God: fome Translations render it, Men of Courage. When a Dictator Governed in Rome, all other Offices ceased. Where the Fear of God rules in the Heart, it expells fleshly Fear. When the Emperels Endoxia threatned to banish Chrysostom, Tell her, faith he, I fear nothing but sin. The Fear of God fwallows up all other Fear, as Moses Rod swallowed up the Magitians Rods.

14. To be void of Gods Fear, is Folly, Pfalm 75. 4. I faid to the Fools, deal not: Foolishly, and to the wicked, lift not up the Horn. 1. Are not they Fools who gratifie their Enemy? They who want the Fear of God do fo. Satan baits his hook with pleasure and profit, and they swallow bait and twitia ho. hook and all; this pleaseth Satan, mens minum sant sins feast the Devil 1. Who but a epula da Fool would humour his enemy?

2. Is

V

b fi

it

2. Is it not folly to preferre Slavery before Liberty? if a Slave in the gally should have his freedom offered him, but he should fay, he had rather Tug at the Oar and be a flave, than have his liberty, would not he be Judged indifcreet? Such is the case of him who Fears not God. The Gofpel offers to free him from the miferable captivity of Sin, but he choofeth rather to be a flave to his lufts* * Stulti ell He is like the Servant under the Law. compedes Exod. 21. 5. I love my Master, I will livet aureas not go out free. He was displeased neca. with a year of Jubilee: The Foolish finner had rather have his Ear bored to the Devils service, than be translated into the Glorious liberty of the Sons of God, Rom. 8. 21.

3. Is not he a Fool, who having but one Jewel will venture the loss of it? The Soul is this Jewel, and the finner is fearless of it, he will throw it away upon the world; as if one should throw Pearls and Diamonds at Pear-trees. Ephrem Syrus used to say, He who Pampers his body and neglects his Soul, is like him who feasts his Slave and starves his Wife.

4. Is

ay

out

is

of u-u

as

it,

tor

ces

les

ar.

at-ith ear

as

ans

is ols,

lift

ney

ney

fo.

ınd

ind

ens

Is

4. Is not he a Fool, who refuseth a rich offer? if one should offer to adopt another, and make him Heir of his Estate, and he should refuse it, would not his discretion be called in question? God offers Christ to a sinner, and promifeth to entail all the riches of Heaven upon him, but wanting the Fear of God he refuseth this Great offer. Pfalm 81. 11. Ifrael would none of me: Is not this a Prodigy of madness? may not the Devil beg every finner † Numquid for a Fool at the last day †?

Deus fultis daturus eft

15. The Fear of God is a Soveregnum ca- raign Antidote against Apostasie: the lorum.Aug. Devil was the first Apostate. How rife is this fin! more thipwracks are at Land than at Sea; men make shipwrack of a Good Conscience. Apostates are said to put Christ to open shame, Heb. 6. 6. The Fear of God is a eunaulinde, a preservative against Apostacy. Jer. 32. 40. I will put my Fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. I will fo love them, that I will not depart from them; and they shall so Fear me, that they shall not depart from me.

15. There are excellent Promises 'made r made to them that Fear God, Malach. 4. 2. Unto you that Fear my Name, shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his Wings. Here is a promife of Christ; he is a Sun for Light and Vivifical Influence; and a Sun of Righteousness, as he diffuseth the Golden beams of Justification*. And he hath healing in his Wings; the Sun Kaaus heals the Air, dries up the Cold perfundens moistures, exhales the Vapours which animum. would be Pestilential; so Christ hath healing in his Wings, he heals the hardness and impurity of the Soul. And the Horison in which this Sun ariseth, is in hearts Fearing God. To you that Fear my Name, shall the Sun of righteousness arise. And, there is another Great Promise, Psalm 115. 13. He will bless them that Fear the Lord, both Small and Great. God bleffeth fuch in their Name, Estate, Souls. And this bleffing can never be reverfed: As Isaac said, I have blessed him, and he shall be bleffed, Gen. 27. 33. Such as Fear God are priviledged Persons, none can take away from them either their birth-right, or their bleffing.

4

16. Fear is an admirable Instrupt

nis

ld

ti-

er,

es

he

at ne

5 ?

er

e-

ne

W

re

p-

0-

n

is

)-

ir

rt

lt

d

ment in Promoting Salvation, Philip. 2. 12. Work out your Salvation with Fear. Fear is that flaming Sword, which turns every way to keep fin from *Custos ani- entring *. Prov. 6. 16. Fear stands Sentinel in the Soul, and is ever upon it's Watch-Tower. Fear caufeth cir-me timor. Aug.

* รับปิงหรัง

wier G.

cumfpection, he who walks in Fear treads warily: Fear begets Prayer, and Prayer engageth the help of Heaven. 17. The Lord is much pleafed with fuch as Fear him. Pfalm 147.11. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that Fear him. In the Septuagint it is *, The Lord bears Good will towards them that Fear him: Pagnin and Buxtorf render it, The Lord delights in them that Fear him. Never did Suitor take fuch pleasure in a Person he loved, as God doth in them that Fear him; they are his Hephsibah, or chief solace, Isa. 62. 4. He faith of them as of Sihon, Pfalm 132. 14. Here is my rest for ever, here will I dwell. A finner is a vessel in which is no pleasure, Hosea 8.8.

But Fearers of God are Favourites. 18. Such as Fear God are the only persons that shall be saved. Psalm 85. 9. Salvation is nigh them that Fear him.

hi th

th

G

h

S

el

th

al

n di him. Salvation is faid to be far from the Wicked, Psalm 119. 155. They and Salvation are fo far afunder, that they are like never to meet. But Gods Salvation is nigh them that Fear him: What do we aspire after but Salvation? 'Tis the end of all our Prayers, Tears, Sufferings. Salvation is the Crown of our desires, the flower of our joy, And who shall be enriched with Salvation, but the Fearers of God? His Salvation is night them that Fear him. Let these cogent arguments perswade to the Fear of God.

Let us put our felves upon a frict Scrutiny and Tryal, whether we have the Fear of God planted in our hearts.

How may we know it?

1. The Fear of God will make a man fear fin, Gen. 39. 9. How can I do this Great wickedness and sin against God; indeed fin is the only Formidable thing; this is the Gorgons Head, that affrights; it is the Evil of Evils. Tis the Poison the Old Serpent hath spit into our Virgin nature: In Sin is both Pollution and Enmity: Sin is compared to a Thick Cloud, Ifa. 44. 22. which Use 6. Trial.

Quest.

Anfin.

l,

m

n

r-

ar

h

be

ir

ne

m rf

m

ce

as

1;

of st

a 8.

ly

5.

ir

n.

which not only hides the light of Gods Face, but brings down showers of Wrath. Sin is worse than all penal evils: there is more evil in a drop of Sin, than in a Sea of Affliction. 1. Sin is the cause of Affliction, it conjures up all the Winds and Storms in the World*. Out of this Viperous womb come Mutines, Divisions, Massacres, and the cause is worse than the effect.

* οπε εμαθία εκεί κειμων.
Chrys.

2. In Affliction Conscience may be quiet; the Hail may beat upon the Tiles, when there is Musick in the room: but Sinterrifies the Conscience. Nero in the midst of Feasts and Roman sports was full of horrour of mind; the numbers of men he had Killed, troubled him. Cataline was frighted at every noise. Cain in Killing Abel stal?d half the World at one blow, yet could not he Kill the Worm of his own Conscience.

Sin is the Spirits of Mischief distilled, it puts a Sting into death, 1 Cor. 15.56. It is worse than Hell. 1. Hell is a burden only to the sinner, but sin is a Burden to God, Amos 2. 13.

2. There is Justice in Hell, but sin

is

is

r tł

fa

fe

to

P

de

fi

lo

af

h

V

ec

fir

lo

is

of ra

a

er

pl

th is the most unjust thing. It would rob God of his Glory, Christ of his Purchase, the Soul of it's Happiness. Tis more bitter to sin against Christ, than to suffer the torments of Hell, saith Chrysoftom: Is not sin then to be feared? he who Fears God is afraid of touching this forbidden fruit: More Particularly:

'1. He who Fears God, is afraid to do any thing that he doubts may be finful, Rom. 14.23. He will not fivallow Oaths like Pills, left they should afterwards work in his Conscience: he dares not mix any thing in Gods Worship which he hath not appointed, he doubts it is like Offering strange fire. Where Conscience is Scrupulous, it is safer to forbear; for, what is not of Faith is Sin.

2. He who Fears God, fears the appearance of Sin, I Thef. 5. 22. Abstain, and natiff ender, from all appearance of Evil. Some things are Male colorata (as Bernard speaks) they have a bad look, and carry a show of evil in them: To go to the Idol Temple, though one doth not joyn with them in Worship, is an appearance of evil.

n

e le

ie

e.

)-

of

d

as l-ne m

1-

r.

ut

in

is

evil. He whose Heart is ballasted with Gods Fear, slies from that which looks like sin. It was a good speech of Bernard to Eugenius, By avoiding the Act of sin we preserve our Peace, by avoiding the appearance of it we preserve our Fame. The Fear of God makes us shun the Occasion of sin: the Nazarite under the Law was not only to sorbear Wine, but he must not eat Grapes, which might occasion intemperancy. Joseph sled from his Mistresses temptation, he would not be seen in her company.

The appearance of evil though it defile not ones own Conscience, it may offend anothers Conscience: and hear what the Apostle saith, I Cor. 8. 12. When ye wound the weak Conscience, ye sin against Christ. Such as avoid not the appearances and in-lets to fin, make the truth of their Grace to be fulpected: How far are they from the Fear of God, who forgetting their prayer, Lead us not into temptation, run themselves into the Devils mouth? they go to Plays and Masquerades, which are the Lures and Incentives of Filthiness; others affociate familiarly

UMI

li o gsP to fie

is So Twi

crewi

of am Ch on con

time coul divi agai Sun

Vap

liarly with the Wicked, and are too often in their Company: which is like going among them that have the Plague. I Cor. 5. 9. I wrote to you not to Company with Fornicators. Traffique is one thing, keeping Company is another. Polycarp would have no Society with Marcion the Heretick. Twifting into a cord of Friendship with sinners is a show of evil, it hardens them in sin, and wounds the credit of Religion.

But did not Christ often converse Object.

with Sinners?

ed

ch

ch

ng

ve,

od

n:

ot

on iis

be

it

it

nd

8.

ce.

id

n,

be ne

y-ını?

S.

es i-

ly

1. Christ did sometimes go among Answithe Wicked, not that he approved of their sins: but as a Physitian goes among the diseased to heal them; so Christ intended to Work a Cure upon them, Mark 2. 17. It was their conversion he aimed at.

2. Though Jesus Christ did sometimes converse with Sinners, yet he could receive no Insection by them: his divine nature was a sufficient Antidote against the contagion of sin. As the Sun cannot be defiled with the thick Vapours which are exhaled from the Earth, and sly into the middle Region: fo the black Vapours of fin could not defile the Sun of Righteoufness. Christ was of that spotless purity that he had no receptibility of Evil; but the case is altered with us, we have a stock of corruption within: therefore it is dangerous to incorporate with the Wicked lest we be defiled.

Such as revere the divine Majesty dare not go near the borders of Sin. Those who went near the Fiery Furnace, though they did not go into it, were burned, Dan. 3. 22. A wise Christian should in all his transactions an deceat, put those three questions of * Bernard an expediate to himself; Whether is this I do lawful, or decent, or expedient.

3. He who Fears God, dares not fin fecretly. An Hypocrite may forbear gross sin, because of the shame; but not clandestine secret sin. He is like one that shuts up his Shop-windows, but follows his Trade within doors: But a man Fearing God dares not sin, though he had Gyges's Ring and could walk invisibly, and no eye see him. Levit. 19. 14. Thoushalt not curse the deas, or put a stumbling block before the blind; but shalt Fear thy God. If one should curse

ci

bl

Y

OI

be

in

ar

CC

hi

de

fo

tio

m

7:

th

pu

Bu

to

th

W

G

is

ed

ch

P

th

curse a deaf man, he cannot hear him; or lay a stumbling block in a blind mans way, he cannot see him: Yeabut the Fear of God will make one avoid those sins which can neither be heard or seen by men. Gods Seeing in secret is a sufficient Supersedeas and Counterposson against Sin.

4. He who Fears God dares not commit fin, though it might bring him in Emolument. Gain is the Golden bait with which Satan fisheth for Souls: this was the last temptation the Devil used to Christ, All this will I give thee, Mat. 4. 9. How many bow down to the Golden Image! Joshua who could stop the course of the Sun, could not stop Achan in his pursuit after the wedge of Gold †. † Cui nibil But he who Fears God dares not sin satisfy the get preferment: David durst not touch tuppe. Tawas to reign next, 2 Sam. 26. 23. A Godly man is affured that a full Purse is but a poor recompence for a wounded Conscience. If any shall go to choak him with Steeples, he faith as Peter, Acts S. 20. Thy mony perish with thee.

the Lords anointed though he knew he citus.

E 2

5. He

DÈ

ft

ne

he

of

n-

ed

ty

in.

ur-

it,

ri-

ons

ard

do

not

ear

but ike

WS,

rs:

fin,

ould

Le-

eaf,

nd;

ould

urfe

5. He who Fears God, dares not gratifie his own revengeful humour. Homer faith, Revenge is Iweet as dropping Hony; but Grace makes a man rather bury an injury than revenge it. He knows who hath faid, Vengeance is mine, I will repay, Rom. 12. 19. He who hath the Fear of God before his eyes, is fo far from revenge, that he requites good for evil. Miriam murmured against Moses, and Moses prayed for her, that God would heal her of her Leprosie, Numb. 12. 13. The Prophet Elisha instead of smiteing his Enemies, fet Bread and Water before them, 2 King 6. 22.

6. He who Fears God dares not do that which is of evil report, though possibly the thing in it self may be no sin. I Cor. 6. I. Dare any of you having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust? Yes, might some say, what sin is it to have a just cause brought before unbelievers, that it may be decided? O but, might the Apostle reply, though the thing in it self be lawful, yet because it sounds ill, and exposeth your Religion to the Scorn and insult of unbelievers,

you

t

1

in

th

ke

de

CV

th

the

Wa

the

al,

fro

If

the

He

rat

the gre hac

(ep)

The

you that Fear God should not dare to do it. It were better to decide it by a prudent arbitration. I Cor. 6. 12. All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient.

7. He who Fears God is not only afraid of evil actions, but to offend God in his Thoughts. Deut. 19. 6. Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, &c. To think of fin with delight is to act it over in the fancy, this is Culpable. A man may think himself into Hell. What were the Apostate Angels damned for, was it for any more than Proud thoughts? This is the first note of Trial, He who reverenceth a Deity flies from Sin. It is a faying of Anselm, If Sin were on one fide and Hell on the other, I would rather leap into Hell than willingly fin against God. * Princeps

2. He who Fears God, walks by Rule imperior rather than Example: Example is for magaus, exthe most part corrupt. Examples of jor Patergreat men are influential *. Pharaoh culus. had learned Joseph to swear, but Jo- † Multituseph had not learned Pharaoh to pray. um non pathe examples of others cannot justing patrocinitie a thing intrinsecally evil †. A fearer um, Hic.

E 3 of rom.

Fe

n

e

e

it

m

es

3.

e-

a-

t

gh

be

014

to ne

ıst

at he

in

ids

to

rs,

of God steers the Rudder of his Life according to the Compass of the Word. He looks to the facred Canon as the Mariner to the Load-Star, or Israel to the Pillar of Fire, to direct him. Is a. 8. 20. To the Law, to the Testimony.

3. He who Fears God keeps his commandments, Ecclef. 12. 13. Fear God, and keep his commandments. Luther faid, He had rather obey God than work miracles. A Gracious Soul croffeth his own will to fulfil Gods: if the Lord bid him Crucifie his bosom-fin, forgive his enemies, he infantly obeys. An Heathen exercifing much cruelty to a Christian, asked him in scorn, What Great Miracle his Master Christ ever did? The Christian replyed, This Miracle, that though you use me thus Cruelly, I can forgive you. An Holy Heart Knows there is nothing loft by obedience. David sware unto the Lord, that he would not rest till he found a place for God, Pfalm 132. 4, 5. And God Sware again to David, that of the fruit of his body he would fet upon his throne, Pfalm 132. 11.

4. He who Fears God is alike Good

t

e tl

C

W

id

ev

W

pi

in je

th

Ta

18

Re

his ch

Wa

ma

tis.

fai

neg

10

Pra

Good in all Companies: He diffuseth the fweet favour of Godliness where ever he comes. Hypocrites can change themselves into all shapes, and be as their company is; Serious in one comcompany, and Vain in another: He who reverenceth a Deity, is semper idem, alike Good in all places. An even Pulse shows Health: an even walking shows Grace. If a Good man be providentially cast among the wicked, he will not coalesce with them, but in his deportment shows forth a Majesty of Holiness.

5. He who Fears God is good in the Station where God hath fet him. Take an instance in Joseph, Gen. 42. 18. I fear God. And see a pattern of Relative fanctitie: He showed towards his Master fidelity, towards his Mistress chastity, towards his Father duty, towards his Brethren bounty. A good man makes his family Palastra Pietatis, a Nursery of Piety *, as it was * Palm faid of Cranmer.

6. He who Fears God, dares not neglect Family or Closet-prayer, Pfalm 109. 4. I Give my felf to Prayer. Prayer whilpers in Gods ears. Clemens Alexan-E 4 1.

ie

el

n.

i-

1-

d, er

ın

of-

he

n,

rs.

ty

n,

ift

nis

us

vlo

oft

the

ind rid

the

his

ke

od

Alexandrinus calls it private conference with God. Why was Nymphas's house call'd a Church, Col. 4. 15. But because it was confecrated by Prayer? A Gracious Soul puts forth fervent sighs in Prayer, Rom. 8.26. And sure that prayer doth soonest pierce Heaven which pierceth ones own Heart.

If Prayer be made the Touch-stone, then the number of those who Fear God is but small. Are there not many prayerless Families in this City and Nation? Job 15. 4. Thou casteth off fear, thou restrainess prayer. When men restrain prayer, they cast off the Fear of God. It is the brand set upon a Reprobate, Pfalm 14. 4. He calls not upon God.

7. He who Fears God will not oppress his Neighbour. Levit. 25. 17. Te shall not oppress one another, but thou shalt fear thy God. How can he be Holy who is not just? A Saint, yet an Extortioner is a Solæcism. A cruel oppressor is like Judas, his bowels are fallen out. The Fear of God would cure this. Neh. 5. 8. Will ye fell your brethren? v. 9. Ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God? As if Nehemiah had said, If ye had had the Fear of God ye would not be fo wicked, ye would not rife upon the ruines of others, and to wrong them, damn your felves.

8. He who Fears God is given to works of Mercy. The Fear of God is alwaies joyned with love to our Brethren. Grace may have a Trembling hand, but it hath not a Withered hand, it stretcheth out its self to relieve the indigent. Jam. 1. 27. Pure Religion before God and the Father is this, to Visit the Fatherless and the Widdows in their Affliction. To Visit them is not only to go to fee them in Affliction: our Saviour expounds what Vifiting is, Mat. 25. 36. Te visited me; how was that? verf. 35. I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat. Good works are not the Cause of our Justification, but they are the Evidence. How far are they from the Fear of God. who are hard-hearted to Christs Poor! You may as well extract Oil out of a Flint, as the Golden Oil of Charity out of their hearts. Dives denied Lazarus a Crumb of Bread, and Dives was denied a drop of Water.

9. He who Fears God had rather dif-

at

ıt

n

r

d

n ır

-

180

n

displease man than God. Exod. 1. 17. The Midwives Feared God, and did not as the King commanded, but saved the Men-children alive. What, not obey the Kings Command! How could this stand with their Allegiance? Very well, because it was an unlawful command. The King bad them put to death the Males of the Hebrews, which they durft not doe, for Fear of incurring Gods displeasure. King Nebuchadnezzar erected a Golden Image to be worshipped. but the three Children (or rather Champions ) faid, Be it known unto thee O King, we will not ferve thy Gods, or worship thy Golden Image, Dan. 3. 18. They would rather burn than bow: He who Fears God, knows it is beft to keep in with God; he is the furest Friend, but the forest Enemy.

10. The Fear of God will make a man Fear thefe fix things.

1. Satans Snares.

- 2. His own Heart.
- 3. Death.
- 4. Judgement.
- . 5. Hell.
- 6. Heaven.

1. The

nan afraid of Satans snares. He hath the eye of Faith to see these snares, and the wing of Fear to sly from them—Pedibus Timor addidit alas—2 Cor. 2. 11. We are not ignorant of his devices. The word is volucela, subtile Stratagems. Satan is called the Old Serpent, Rev. 12. 9. Though he hath lost his Holiness, he hath not lost his Policy: his snares are so Cunningly laid, that without the Guidance of Gods Fear we cannot escape them.

r. One subtil Artistice of Satan is, he baits his Hook with Religion: he can change his Flag, and hang out Christs Colours; here he Transforms himself into an Angel of light. The Devil tempts men to Evil, that Good may come of it, Rom. 3.8. He whistles them into the snare of preferment, that hereby they may be in a capacity of doing God more service. The white Devil is worst. Who would suspect Satan when he comes as a Divine, and if need be, can quote Scripture?

2. Another snare of Satan is, to tempt to sin under a plea of Necessity. Lot offered to expose his Daugh-

ot

he

ey

IIS

11,

d.

1e

ft

ls

t-

r

ters to the lufts of the Sodomites, that he might preserve his Angel-guests who were come into his house, Gen. 19. 8. Did not Satan instigate him to this? Necessity will not excuse impiety.

3d. Snare is to Colour over fin with the Pretence of Vertue. Alcibiades hung a Curtain curiously embroidered over a foul Picture full of Owls and Satvrs. Satan puts Good names on fin, as Phyfitians call that Film in the eye which hinders the fight, a Pearl in the eye. Satan Colour'd over Jehu's Ambition with the Name of Zeal, 2 Km. 10. 16. He makes men believe Revenge is Valour, Covetousness Frugality: as if one should write balm-water upon a glass of Poyfon.

4th. Snare of Satan is, to carry on his mischievous designs under a pretence of Friendship. He puts off his Lions Skin, and comes in Sheeps Cloth-† Antonini ing *. Thus Satan came to Christ; Command that thele Stones be made bread, Mat. 4. 3. As if he had faid, I fee thou art Hungry, I therefore our of Pity Counsel thee to get something to eat, turn stones to bread that thy hunger may be fatisfied : but Christ spied ta magis timebantur quam iracundia.

fpied the Serpent in the Temptation and repulfed him. Thus Satan came to Eve under the Notion of a Friend. Eat, faith he, of the Tree in the midst of the Garden, Te shall not dye, ye shall be as Gods, Gen. 3. 4, 5. As if he had faid, I perfwade you only to that which will put you into a better condition than now ye are; eat of the Tree of knowledge and it will make you Omniscient. What a kind Devil was here! but Eve found a Worm in the Apple. Timeo Danaos et ferentes-*.

An. 2. 5th. Snare, if Satan cannot take a Christian off from duty, he will put him on too far in duty. Humiliation is a duty, but Satan suggests that the Soul is not humbled enough: and indeed he never thinks it humbled enough till it despairs. Satan comes thus to a man: Thy fins have bin great, and thy Sorrow should be proportionable; But is it so? canst thou say thou hast bin as great a Mourner as thou haft bin a Sinner? what is a drop of Sorrow to a Sea of Sin? This is laid only as a Snare: the fubtil enemy would have a Christian weep himfelf blind, and in a desperate humour throw away the Anchor of Hope. And if Satan hath such fallacies, and as a Decoy draws so many Millions into his snares, is there not cause of jealous fear lest we should be trappan'd? The fear of God will make us Fear Hells stratagems. Satans snares are worse than his darts.

2. The Fear of God will make a man afraid of his own Heart. Luther used to say, he feared his Heart more than the Pope or Cardinals, Jer. 17. 9. The Heart is descripted above all things.

1. It is deceitful.

The word fignifies, it is a Jacob*, or Supplanter. As Jacob fupplanted his brother, and got away the bleffing; fo our Hearts would fupplant and beguile us.

There is deceit in Weights, deceit

2. Above all things.

in Friends; but the Heart hath an art of deceiving beyond all †. In the best hearts there is some fallaciousness. David was upright in all things, fave only in the matter of Uriah, I King 15. 5. A Godly man Knowing there is a spice of this deceit in his Heart, Fears † Multæ funt in animo latebræ, Cicero.

* עקב

i

T

fe

n

ne

Fears himself. The flesh is a Bosom-Traitor. No man can believe what evil is in his Heart. 2 Kin. 8. 12. Is thy Servant a Dog? Hazael could not believe his Heart had bin big of fuch Monsters. If one had come to Noah and faid, thou wilt be drunk shortly; he would have faid, Is thy Servant a Dog? No man knows what is in his breaft, or what scandal he may fall into if God leaveth him. Christ warns his own Apostles to take heed of surfeiting and drunkenness, Luk. 21. 34. A Godly man therefore fears his Heart with a Fear of Caution and jealousie. The Heart is not only stubborn, but subtil. Let us a little Trace this Impostor, and see if there be not cause to fear it. The heart shows it's deceitfulness about

- 1. Things Sinful.
- 2. Things Sacred.

1. The Heart shows it's deceitfulness about things finful; this deceit is 1. In hiding of sin, as Rahab hid the spies in the flax, Josh. 2. 6. So the Heart Hides sin: and how doth it hide it? Just Just as Adam hid himself under figleaves, so the Heart hides sin under the figleaves of excuses. It was done against the will, or in a Passion; or it was long of others: Aaron laid his sin in making the Golden calf upon the people, Exo. 32. 22. The people are set on mischief: And Adam tacitly laid his sin upon God himself, Gen. 3. 12. The Woman thou gavest me, she gave me of the tree. As to say, If thou hadst not given me this tempting woman, I had not eat.

2. The Hearts deceit is feen in Flattering of us, it will make us believe we are not fo bad as we are. The Physitian deceives the patient, when he tells him his disease is not so dangerous, yet he is falling into the hands of death. The Heart will tell a man he is free from Theft, when yet he robs others of their Good Name; he is free from Drunkenness, when, though he will not be drunk with Wine, he will be drunk with Passion. Thus the Heart is a flattering Glass, to make one look fairer than he is: and is there not cause to suspect this Impostor?

2. The

h

B ta

th

nn Ni

ta lif

ge of

Sa

the

no

a

He

Pro

27.

2. The Heart shews it's deceitfulness about things Sucred; it will be ready to put us off with Counterseit Grace. Many have bin deceived in taking false Mony, and it is to be feared in taking falle Grace.

1. The Heart is ready to deceive with a false repentance. A Sinner is troubled a little for Sin, or rather, the consequent of it, and perhaps sheds a few tears, and now his Heart fooths him up that he is a true Penitent. But every legal terrour is not Repentance, Acts 2. 37. They were pricked in their Heart: yet after this, Peter said unto them Repent, ver. 38. If every flight Trouble for fin were true Repentance, then Judas and Cain may be listed in the number of penitents. Evangelical Repentance works a change of Heart, 1 Cor. 6. 11. It produceth Sanctity. But the false penitentiary, though he hath trouble of Spirit, yet no Metamorphise or change. He hath a weeping Eye, but an adulterous Heart. Ahab Fasts and puts on sackcloth, but after this, he puts the Prophet Micaiah in Prison, 1 Kin. 22. 27.

2. The Heart is apt to deceive with a falle Faith, it would put the dead child in the room of the living. in the second of John are faid to believe: But Christ did not believe their faith, John 2. 24. True Faith, as it casts it self into Christs arms to embrace him, fo it casts it self at Christs feet to ferve him: But spurious Faith though it be forward to Receive Christs benefits, yet it plucks the Government from his (boulders, Ifa. 9. 6. It would have him a Priest, but not upon his throne, Zach. 6. 13. Thus the Heart is full of fallacies; he who Fears God fears his Heart left it should rob him of the bleffing. That faying of Epicharmus is Good, uhumo ameir, Remember not to trust.

3. The Fear of God will make a man Fear death. Death may challenge a part in our Fear. 1. Because it is such a serious thing, it is the in-let to eternity: and puts us into an unalterable estate. 2. Because of it's Preximity: it is nearer to us than we are mity: it is nearer to us than we are degrees aware *: it may be within a few for hours march of us. God may this feely. Aringht feal a Leafe of Ejectment, and fay,

n

ir

de

V

a

W

it

is

Fe

for

† Gen. 49

fay, Give an account of your stewardship; and what if death should come before we are ready? 3. Because after death there is nothing to be done for our Souls, there is no repenting in the Grave, Ecclef. 9. 10. There is no work nor device in the Grave whither thou goeft. So that death is to be feared with an holy and Religious Fear.

How far may a child of God Fear Quest.

death?

1. So far as the Fear of Death is a Answ. Curben-bit to keep him from Sin. A believer may lawfully make use of all means to deter him from fin. No ftronger antidote against sin, saith Austin, than the Fear of Death. Am I finning, and to morrow may be dying !

2. A Child of God may fo far Fear death, as it makes him dye to the World. The Fear of death would found a retreat and call us off from Vanity. What is the world? we must leave it shortly, and all we can purchase is a burying-place +.

3. A Child of God may fo far 30. Fear death, as this Fear fits him more for death. Jacob feared his brother

Efan's

F 2

je is

et nii-

re

W his

nd

íy,

Hugo.

Efan's coming against him, and he prepared to meet him, he addressed himself to Prayer, Gen. 32. 7, 24. So when we Fear deaths coming and we prepare to meet it, we fet our Soul in order. This is a Good Fear of death.

But this Fear of death in the Godly must be mixed with hope. The nature of death to a Believer is quite changed: death is in it felf a curfe, but God hath turned this Curse into a Bleffing. To a Child of God death is not a destruction but a deliverance. When the Mantle of his flesh drops off, he ascends in a fiery chariot to Heaven.

4. The Fear of God will make a man fear Judgment. Anselm spent most of his thoughts upon the day of Judgement; and Hierom thought he alwaies heard that Voice founding in his ears, Surgite mortui, Arise ye dead and come to Judgment *. That there shall be * Si amor Dei te non fuch a day is evident, 1. From Gods teneat, timor Judicis Veracity: He who is the Oracle of truth hath afferted it, Pfalm 96. 13. te terreat. For he cometh, for he cometh to Judge the earth; There is a duplication, I. To

1. To shew the Certainty he cometh, he cometh, it is an indubitable Maxim.
2. To shew the Celerity, he cometh, he cometh, the time draws near, it is almost day-break, and the Judge is ready to take the bench, Jam. 5. 9.

Gods decree cannot be reverfed.

2. There shall be such a day for the Vindication of Gods Justice. Things seem to be carried in the World Partially: the Godly suffer, the Wicked Prosper. Atheists are ready to think God hath cast off the Government of the World, and minds not how things are transacted here below: therefore there must be a judicial Process that God may undeceive the World and set things right.

3. That there shall be such a day is evident by the Principles ingrafted in a natural conscience. When Paul reasoned of Judgment to come, Felix trembled, Acts 24. 25. The Prisoner at bar made the Judge tremble. That a Wicked man dying is so surprized with terrors, whence is this but from a secret apprehension of Judgment enfuing?

It will be a great Affizes, never * Veniet.

was the like feen. 2 Cor. 5. 10. We must all appear before the Judgment Seat. There is no flying, no abscondveniet dies ing, no bribing, no appearing by a Judicii, ubi Proxy, but all must make their Perplus vale fonal appearance *. They who were above Trial here, and the Law could quam aftu-not reach them, must appear before Bernard. the Tribunal of Heaven.

Quest. Anfw.

Corda,

Who shall be Judge? Jesus Christ, John 5. 22. Acts 17. .31. He hath appointed a day in which he will judge the world by that man whom he hath ordained. In that Christ is called a Man, hence the Socinians blafphemoully deny the effential Deity of Christ. That he is God, is most clearly evinced from Isaiah 9.6. Joh. 1.1. 1 Cor. 8.6. 1 Joh. 5. 20. We are in him that is True, even in his Son Jefus Christ, this is the true God. Christ is buckers, Consubstantiate with God the Father, Heb. 1. 3. But Christ the Judge is called Man, because he shall Judge the world in a Visible Shape. He must be both God and Man: he must be God that he may see mens Hearts: and he must be man that he himself may be seen.

What a folemn day will this be, when Christ shall sit upon the Bench of Judicature! he will judge righteously, Pfalm 9. 8. Though he himself was wronged, he will do no wrong: And he will judge Critically, Mat. 3. 12. Whose same is in his hand and he will throughly purge his stoor. He will see what is Wheat, what is Chass, who have his Image upon him, and who the mark of the beast. Sure the Fear of God will cause an holy trembling at the thoughts of this day.

In what sence should those that Quest. Fear God, Fear the day of Judgment?

Not with a Fear of amazement or de-Anfw. fpondency, for the day of Judgment will be a Jubile, a bleffed comfortable day to them. The Thrush sings at the approach of Rain: so may Believers at the approach of Judgment: Christ who is their Judge is their Advocate. But,

1. The Godly should so fear Judgement, as every day to renew their Sorrow for Sin. They have fins quotidiani incursus, that creep upon them daily, and they must with Peter, weep bitterly; they must steep their Souls in the brinish Tears of Repentance: It would be fad to be found at the last day in any fin unrepented of.

2. The Godly should so Fear the day of Judgment as it makes them afraid of Sins of Omission. The not dreffing a wound brings death: the not discharging duty may bring demnation. You may read the folemn Process at the last day, Mat. 25. 42. I was an hungred and ye gave me no meat, naked and ye cloathed me not, sick and in Prifon and ye Visited me not. The charge here brought in, is for fins of Omiffion. Christ doth not fay, Ye took away my meat from me, but, Ye gave me no meat; He faith not, Ye put me in prison, but, Ye visited me not. The fins of Omission condemned them. Not praying in the family, not fanctfying the Sabbath, not giving Almes, will be the fatal Inditement.

3. The Godly should so far Fear the day of Judgment, as it makes them afraid of dissembling in Religion. For at that day false hearts will be unmasked. Why did Paul walk with such integrity? 2 Thes. 2. 10 Te are witnesses and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblamably we behaved our selves felves among you. What was the cause of this? fure a Fear of the Judgment day approaching, 2 Cor. 5. 10. For we must all appear before the Judgment Seat of Christ. The word in the orinal is gavepw Shivas, we must be made manifest, our hearts must be laid open before Men and Angels. Such is the Witchcraft of Hypocrifie that it is hard in this life to know who is falfe, and who is fincere; but shortly there will be a full discovery. 'I'is good for Gods people fo to Fear Judgment, as it makes them strive against prevarication and Hypocrifie: for then the Hypocrite will be found out.

5. The Fear of God makes a man Fear Hell. Hell is called the place of *DescendaTorment, Luke 16. 28. Not only flagimus in intious Sinners, but such as Fear God fernum viought to Fear Hell, Luke 12. 4. I say ventes, ne unto you my friends, Fear him who hath mus mus ment power to cast into Hell*.

How far should Gods people Fear Quest.

Not so as to let go their Hope. A Answ. Mariner sears a Storm, but not so as to throw away his Anchor. Such as Fear God should Fear Hell four wayes.

1. They

ft

le

t ı.

ecket

neritum, as that which they have deferved. Their fins have merited Hell. Wo to the Holyest man alive if God should weigh him in the ballance of his Justice.

2. They who Fear God ought fo far to Fear Hell, as it is a means to make them shake off Spiritual sloth. This disease is apt to seize upon Gods own people: the Wise Virgins Slumbred, Mat. 25. 5. Now so far as the fear of Hell is an alarum or Watchbell to awaken the Godly out of security, and make them run faster to Heaven, so far it is a good and blessed Fear.

3. The Fear of Hell is so far Good in the Godly, as it makes them afraid of being in the number of those who shall go to Hell. There are certain Persons in danger of Hell. 1. Who have all their Heaven in this Life, Isa. 47. 8. Thou that art given to pleafure. Epicures swim in sensual delights; they had rather displease God than deny the slesh: these shall take up their quarters in Hell; Isa. 22. 12, 13. In that day did the Lord of Hosts call to weeping, and behold joy and Gladness, eating Flesh, and drinking Wine : surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till you dye, faith the Lord. That is, this Sin shall not be done away by any Sacrifice.

m

e-

II.

bd

of 6

0

e

2. They are in danger to be cast into Hell who live in the Sin of Adultery +; they who burn in lust shall + Prov. 22. burn in Hell: 2 Pet. 2. 9. The Lord knows how to referve the unjust to be punished; warisa si, but chiefly them that walk after the flesh, in the lust of uncleanness. See the corruption of mans nature! If God had made all common, he would have fought an enclosure; and now God hath made an enclosure; he endeavours to lay all common. Instead of drinking Water out of his own Ciftern, he loves stolen Waters *: * Prov. 9. The same Latine word prafepe signifies a Stable, and a Whore-house: both are for Beafts.

3. They are like to go to Hell, who by giving bad Example cause others + Magis into Sin. Bad example like the Plague tuentur is catching. Great men are Glaffes quid fecerit which the common people drefs them- quam quid felves by +. Such as give bad exam docuit, Plaple to, Aug.

ple have not only their own fins, but the fins of others to answer for: and that doubtless was the reason why Dives intreated Abraham that one might go from the Dead to Preach to his Brethren, Luk. 16. 27. Not that Dives had love to their Souls, but it was because while he was alive he had occasioned his Brethrens fins by his Wicked example, and he knew that their coming to Hell would encrease his Torment.

4. They are like to go to Hell who live and dye in the contempt of Gods Word. Ministers have preached till the bellows are burnt, their Vitals wasted, but men stop their Ears and har-* Durumest den their Hearts *, Zach. 7. 12. They make their Heart as an Adamant. Hardcedit taltui. + Ephel.4. 19.

quod non * Jer. 44. 16, 17.

ness of Heart lies in the insensibleness of the Conscience +, and the inflexibleness of the Will *. Obdurate Sinners shake out the Arrow of Conviction, Scorn Reproof. When the Prophet cried to the Altar of Stone it rent, 1 King. 13. 2. But Sinners Hearts rend not; these are like to have the Wrath of God flame about their Ears, Thef. 1. 8. The Lord Jefus shall be reveal-

th

av

ba

 $\boldsymbol{L}$

a

a

1 70

i

revealed from Heaven in flaming fire, taking Vengeance on them who obey not the Gospel.

5. They shall go to Hell, who fall away Finally, Mat. 13. 6. Because they had no root they withered. Flowers in a Waterpot will keep Green and fresh a while, but having no root wither. Demas and Julian made a fair show a while, but ended as the Silkworm, which after all her Curious Spinning, at last becomes a Common fly. Heb. 10. 26. If we sin wilfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more Sacrifice for sin. Thus we fee who are like to be thrown into Hell: Now it is good for the Godly so to Fear Hell, as to fear to be in the number of those who shall go to Hell.

4. The Fear of Hell is so far good in the Godly, as it is a Fear mixed with Rejoycing, Pfalm 2. 11. Rejoyce with trembling. A Believers Fear of Hell must be like the Fear of the two Maries going from the Sepulcher, Mat. 28.8. They departed from the Sepulcher with Fear and great Joy: Fear, because they had seen an Angel; and

but

nd hy

ght read

uſe

ed

X-

m-

or-ho

ds

ill

It-

rey d-ſs

i-

1-ie

it

S

e

Joy, because Christ was risen. So must the Godly look on Hell, with Fear and Joy; Fear, because of the Fire; Joy, because Christ hath freed them from it. A man that stands upon an high rock, Fears when he looks down into the Sea, yet Rejoyceth that he is not there strugling with the Waves: So a Child of God when he looks down into Hell by Contemplation may fear because of the dreadfulness of the Torment; yet this Fear should be mingled with Joy, to think he shall never come there. Jesus hath delivered him 4 1 Thes. from Wrath to come *.

6. The Fear of God will make a man Fear Heaven. You may fay, that is strange, rather Hope for Heaven; nay, a Regenerate person is to Fear Heaven lest he fall short of it. Hebr. 4. 1. Let us Fear lest a promise being left us of entring into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

'Tis a Metaphor taken from Racers, who Growing weary and lagging behind come short of the prize. Who had more hope of Heaven than St. Paul? yet he was not without his

Fears, 1 Cor. 9. 27. I keep under my Body * บระคุพหย์-

their

Body, lest when I have preached to others I my felf should be a Cast-away. And well may he who shall go to Heaven Fear least he miss of it, if you consider.

I It is Possible for many who make a Splendid Profession to lose Heaven. What think you of the Foolish Virgins? They are called Virgins because they were not tainted with any gross Sin; yet these Virgin-Professors were shut out, Mat. 25. 10. Balaam a Prophet, Judas an Apostle, both cashiered. We have seen some Ships have had glorious names given them, the Good-speed, the Hope, the Safe-guard, yet cast away at Sea.

2. It is possible to come near to Heaven, yet fall short of it, Mark 12.

34. Thou art not far from the Kingdom of God; yet he was not near enough. Men may countenance the Ministry of the Word, have their Affections moved at an Ordinance, and in outward show out-go the Children of God*; yet not having the Oyl of *Num. Sincerity in their Vessels, they may 23. 1,2. be frustrated of happiness: And how dismal is that, to lose God, to lose their Souls, to lose their Hopes! The Millions of Tears shed in Hell are not sufficient to bewail the loss of Heaven. Well may such as have Heaven in them Fear their coming short of it. Thus much for the Use of Trial.

Quest. How shall we arrive at this Blessed Fear?

Anfw.

1. Let us fet God ever in our eye, fludy his Immensity. He is not God Almighty, Gen. 17. 1. He gives laws to the Angels, binds the Consciences of men, cuts off the Spirit of Princes, Psalm 76. 12. The Thoughts of Gods incomprehensible Greatness would strike an Holy awe into our Hearts. Elijah wrap'd his face in a Mantle when Gods Glory passed by. The reason men Fear not God, is because they entertain slight thoughtest I was such an one as thy self.

2. Let us pray for this Fear of God, which is the Root of all Holiness, and the Mother of all Wisdom. Pfalm 86. 11. Unite my Heart to Fear thy Name; the Lord hath Promised to put his Fear in our Heart, Jer. 32. 40. Let us pray over this Promise:

while while fome pray for Riches, and others for Children, let us pray for an Heart to Fear God.

To conclude this, you who have this Fear planted in your Souls, bless God for it, Psalm 135. 20. Te that Fear the Lord bleff the Lord. God hath done more for you than if he had' made you Kings and Queens, and caufed you to ride upon the High places of the Earth. He hath enriched you with that Jewel which he bestows only upon the Elect.

O stand upon Mount Gerizim blesfing. The Fear of God is an Immortale Seed springing up into Glory, Psalm 22. 23. Te that fear the Lord praise him. Begin the Work of Heaven now, be Spiritual Quiristers: sound forth Holy Doxologies and Triumphs; fay as David, Plalm 71. 8. Let my Mouth be filled with thy Praise, and with thy Honour all the day. God hath but little praise in the world: Who should pay him this Quit-rent if not they that fear him?

> CHAP G

he

ot

a-

en

t.

d

Dott.

CHAP. V.

Shewing the first Character in special of the Godly, namely, Speaking of God.

2. Aving done with the Character of the Godly in General, I proceed next to their Special Characters. It They spake often one to Character. When the Wicked said, It is Vain to serve God, then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another. The meaning of this word, they spake often, is, they did discourse Religiously together, their Tongues were Divincly tuned by the Holy Ghost.

Christians when they meet together should use holy Conference. This is not only an advice, but a charge, Deu. 6. 6. These words shall be in thy Heart, and thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy House, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou lyest down, and when thou risest up. Indeed deed where there is Gratia infusa, it will be effusa; Grace changeth the Language, and makes it Spiritual. When the Holy Ghost came upon the Apostles, they spake with other Tongues, Act. 2.4. Grace makes Chriftians speak with Other Tongues. A good Christian hath not only the Law of God in his Heart, Pfalm 37. 31. but in his Tongue, vers. 30. The body is the Temple of God, I Cor. 6. 19. The Tongue is the Organ in this Temple, which founds in Holy difcourse, Prov. 10. 20. The tonque of the Just is as Choice Silver. He drops Silver fentences, enriching others with Knowledge, Mat. 12. 35. A Good man out of the Good treasure of his Heart bringeth forth good things. In his heart is a Treasure of Goodness, and this is not like a bag of Mony Sealed, but he brings fomething out of the Treasure within to the enriching of others. Grace is of the Nature of fire, which will not be pent up: like new Wine it will have Vent *. There is a principle *A& 4 within constrains to holy Conference, Job 32. 18. The Spirit within me con-Straineth me.

CHAP.

CHAP. VI.

Containing the Applicatory part.

1 Use.

It shews the Genius and temper of true Saints, they speak often one to another; their Lips drop as an Hony-comb. A man is known what country he belongs to by his Language. He who belongs to the Jerusalem above speaks the Language of Canaan; none of Gods children are dumb; their mouth is a well-spring of Wisdom, Prov. 18. 4.

2 Use. Reproof. Here I may draw up a bill of Indictment against five forts of Persons.

1. Such as are silent in matters of Religion. They would be counted Good, but he must have good eyes that can see it. I know not whether it be Ignorance or Bashfulness that makes good discourse waved. Many are so mute in Religion as if their Tongues did cleave to the roof of their Month: had they any love to God, or had they ever tasted how sweet the Lord is, their their mouth would talk of his Righteousness, Psalm 71. 24. Friends, what should we mind but Salvation? what are the things of this world? they are neither Entia*, nor Manentia*. Do *Pro.23.5 not we fee men heap up Riches, and †1Cor.7.3. on a fudden, death as Gods Serjeant Arrests them? What should we talk of but the things Pertaining to the Kingdom of God? Let this cause blushing among Christians, that their meetings are fo unprofitable, they leave God out of their discourse. Why is there no good conference? Have you fo much Knowledge that you need not have it encreased? Have you so much Faith that you need not have it Strengthened? Silence in Religion is a loud fin. We read of one who was possessed with a Dumb Devil, Mark 9. 12. How many are Spiratually possessed with a Dumb Devil!

It is a rebuke to such as when a Branch. they meet together, instead of speaking *Folis leof Heaven, they have idle frothy discis verba, course *. They do rare but no respense ovid. as Plutarch said of Alcibiades. Their Lips do not drop as an Honey-comb, but run as a Spout; their speaking is

G 3

Tuf

er

ne 0n-

e.

re.

ne

ir

V.

lt

t.

e

e

d

Just like a Childs scribling, Pfalm 12. 2. They speak Vanity every one with his Neighbour. If Christ should ask some as he did the two Disciples going to Emaus, Luk. 24. 17. What manner of Communications have you as you walk, they could not fay as they did, concerning Jesus of Nazareth; no, perhaps about Toyes, or new Fashions. If Idle words must be accounted for, Mat 12. 36. Lord, what an account will fome have to give!

It reproves the Avaritious Person, who instead of speaking of Heaven, talks of nothing but the World: the Farmer speaks of his Plough and Yoak of Oxen, the Tradesman of his Wares and Drugs; but not a word of God. John 3. 31. He that is of the Earth speaketh of the Earth. Many are like the Fish in the Gospel that had Money in it's Mouth, Mat. 12. 27. They talk only of Secular things, as if they Imagined to fetch happiness out of that Earth which God hath Curfed. Seneca being asked of what Countrey he was, answered he was κοσμοπελίτης» a Citizen of this World: we may know many to be Citizens of this World,

World, their speech bewrayeth them.— O curva in terras anima, et calestium inanes.

4. It reproves them who do indeed speak often to one another but in a bad fence. 1. They fpeak one to another in basty words. Their words should be like the Waters of Shiloah that go foftly, but too often they are fierce and Pungent.* Water when it is * Magnoque hot foon boils over; when the Heart ivarum flais heated with anger it foon boils over virgil. in furious speeches, Jam. 3. 6. Passion transports. Many curse in their an-The Tongue is made in the fathion of a Sword, and it cuts like a Sword: Angry words often prejudice him that utters them: Rehoboam with one churlish word lost ten tribes. A fiery Spirit is unfuitable to the Mafter we serve, the Prince of Peace; and to his Ambassage, the Gospel of Peace. Such whose tongues are set on fire, let them take heed they do not one day in Hell desire a drop of Water to Cool their Tongue.

2. They speak one to another in a bad sence who Murmure and complain one to another; they do not com-

G 4 plai

f

plain of their Sins, but their Wants. Murmuring proceeds from unbelief, Pfalm 106. 24. They believed not his word but murmured. When men distrust Gods Promises, they murmur at his Providences: this is a Sin God can hardly bear, Numb. 14. 27. How long shall I bear with this People that murmur against me? Is sales speeches were Venomous, and God punished them with Venomous Serpents, 1 Cor. 10. 10.

3. They speak one to another in a bad fence, who vent themselves in filthy fcurrilous Language. The Heart is a Veffel full of Wickedness, and the Tongue fets it a-broach. When the Face breaks out in Sores and Pimples, it flews the Blood is corrupt: when men break forth in unfavoury speeches it shews the Heart is Profane. 1 Cor. 15. 35. Evil communication corrupteth good manners. We read that the Lips of the Leper were to be covered, Levit. 13. 45. It were happy if we had fuch Magistrates as would by their Authority cover the unclean Lips of these Lepers.

4. They speak one to another in a bad sence, who instead of seasoning their

th

G

in Be

So

in 0

G

C

an fac

fp.

on

ev

pu

of

to

of

tic

th

fa

m

their words with Grace, mix them with Oaths. Swearers rend and tear Gods Name, and like mad Dogs fly in the face of Heaven, Jer. 23. 10. Because of swearing the Land mourns. Some think it the Grace of speech to interlard every fentence with Oath; as if they would go to Hell Genteelly. But faith one, it is my Custom to Swear. Is this an excuse or an aggravation of the fin? If a Malefactor should be arraigned for Robbery, and he should fay to the Judge spare me for it is my custom to rob on the High way, the Judge would fay, thou shalt the rather dye. For every Oath that a man Swears, God puts a drop of Wrath into his Vi-of fpeaking in an holy manner one to another, fpeak one of another; I. In censuring, fome make it a part of their Religion to Descant and Criticize upon others. They do not imitate their graces but reflect upon their failings. God grant professors may wast their hands of this. Were peoples hearts more humble, their Tongues would be more charitable. 'Tis the fign, of an Hypocrite to censure others and commend himself.

2. They speak one of another in flandering : Pfalm 50. 20. Thou fittest and flanderest thy own Mothers son. Slandering is when we fpeak to the prejudice of another, and speak that which is not true. Worth is blafted by flander. Holiness it felf is no shield from this fin. The Lambs Innocency will not preserve it from the Wolf. Job calls flandering the scourge of the Tongue, Job 5. 21. You may fmite a man and never touch him. A flanderer wounds anothers fame, and no Physitian can heal these wounds*. The Eve and the Name are two tenquam gla- der things. God takes it ill at our hands to calumniate others, especially to asperse those who help to keep up the credit of Religion. Num. 12. 8. Were not ye afraid to speak against my Servant Mofes? what my Servant, who hath wrought fo many Miracles, whom I have spoken with in the Mount Face to Face, were not ye afraid to speak against him? The Greek word flanderer signifies Devil +.

* Majora funt lingue Vulnera dii, Aug.

† r Tim. 3. 11.

is

is

ACI

H

he

m

hi

W

to

in

C

in

T

20

in

th aı

di

of

C

W

S

ir

P

b n, of and r in itteft Son. the that afted no nnothe urge may im. and ds*. tenour ally

up my vho

eles, the a-

eek his 15

is the Devils proper Sin, he is the accuser of the Brethren, Rev. 12. 10. He doth not commit Adultery, but he bears false Witness. The slanderer may be indicted for Clipping, he clips his Neighbours credit to make it weigh lighter. This our nature is prone to; but remember, it is as well a fin in Gods account, to break the Ninth Commandment, as the Eighth.

Put this Great duty in Practice, 3 V/e. imitate these Holy ones in the Text, tion.

They spake often one to another. Hierom thinks they did speak something in defence of the Providence of God, they vindicated God in his dealings, and exhorted one another not to be discouraged at the Virulent speeches of the Wicked, but still hold on a course of Piety. Thus (Christians) when you meet, give one anothers Souls a vifit, drop your Knowledge, impart your experiences each to other, Pfalm 66. 16. Sampson having found Hony did not only eat of it himself, but carried it to his Father and Mother, Judg. 14. 9. Have you Tasted the Hony of the word? let others have a Tast with you. He who hath bin in a Perfumers shop doth not only himfelf partake of those sweet smells, but fome of the perfume flicks to his cloaths, fo that those who come near him partake of those perfumes: so having our felves perceived the fweet Savour of Christs Oyntments, we should let others partake with us, and by our Heavenly discourse, disfuse the perfume of Religion to them, Col. 4.6. Let your words be seasoned with Salt: let Grace be the falt which feafons your Words and makes them Savoury. Christians should take all occasions, of Good discourse when they walk together, and fit at Table together. This makes their eating and drinking be to the Glory of God, 1 Cor. 10. 31. What makes it a Communion of Saints but Good conference?

But some may fay they are barren of matter, and know not what to fpeak of?

No, have you walked so often through the field of Scripture, yet gathered no ears of Corn? have not you matter enough in the Word to surnish you with discourse? Let me suggest a few things to you. When you meet meet speak one to another of the Promises. No Hony so sweet, as that which drops from a Promife. promises are the port of Faith, the fprings of joy, the aints Royal Charter. Are you Citizens of Heaven, and not speak of your Charter? Speak of the preciousness of Christ: he is Beauty and Love; he hath laid down his blood as the xites or price of your Redemption. Have you a friend that hath redeemed you, and never speak of him? Speak one to another of Sin, what a deadly evil it is, how it hath infected your Virgin-nature, and turned it into a leffer Hell. Speak of the Beauty of Holiness, which is the Souls Embroidery, filling it with fuch Oriental splendor as makes God and Angels fall in love with it. The Graces are (as Dama/cen faith) the Sacred Characters and Impressions of the Divine nature*. Speak one to another * 3 stag of your Souls: enquire whether they 20018 are in health. Speak about Death and ess-Eternity: can you belong to Heaven and not speak of your Country? Speak one to another of the Times, wherein God is the Greatest sufferer:

m-

out

hs,

im

ng

ur

let

ur

me

our

ce

ds

ns

if-

nd

eir

ry

es

od

en

to

en

a-

ou

r-

III et let your hearts bleed for his dishonours. Thus you fee here is matter enough for Holy conference.

Why then do you not set good discourse on Foot? I perswade my self one main reason of the decay of the Power of Godliness is want of Christian conference: people when they meet talk of Impertinencies, but God and Heaven are lest out of their discourse. That I may perswade you in your converses to put in a word about your Souls, let me offer these sew things to your consideration.

1. It was the practice of the Saints of old. Elijah, and Elisha went on talking good discourse till the Chariot of Heaven came to part them, 2 Kin. 2. 11. Davids Tongue was Tuned to the Language of Canaan, Pfalm 71. 24. My Tongue shall talk of thy Righteon neß. The Primitive Christians into whatever company they came, were speaking of a Glorious Kingdom they expected, infomuch that fome thought they were ambitious of worldly honour; which made Justin Martyr Apologize for them, that the Kingdom they looked for was not of this

UMI

W

H

Re

of

an

for Sc

 $E_i$

V

lo

an

to

ar

hi

lir

an

pr G

In

or

w

fo

World, but a Kingdom with Christ in Heaven. Jerom saith of some of the Roman Ladies, They did spend much of their time in communing together, and they would not let him alone, for asking him Questions about their Souls.

2. We are bid to Redeem the Time, Eph. 5. 16. The Poets painted time with Wings, because it flies so fast—Volat ambiguis mobilis alis hora—Time lost had need be redeemed; and is there any better way to redeem time, than to improve it in trading for Heaven, and speaking of God and our Souls?

3. Jesus Christ hath set us a Pattern: his words were persumed with Holiness, Luke 4. 22. All bare him witness, and Wondred at the Gracious words which proceeded out of his Mouth. Christ had Grace poured into his Lips, Psalm 45. 2. In all companies he set good discourse on foot. When he sate on Jacobs Well he salls into an Heavenly discourse with the Woman of Samaria about the Water of Life, John 4. 14. And so when Levi made him a Feast, Luke 5—He seasts him again with Heavenly discourse. And no sooner was

C-

lf

ie i-

et

id e.

ır

at

W

ts

k-

of

2.

0

4.

B.

t-

K-

ıt

0-

)-

n

is

was Christ risen from the Grave, but he was speaking of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, Acts 1.3. The more Spiritual we are in our speeches, the more we resemble Christ: should not the Members be like the Head? Christ will not be our Saviour, unless we make him our Pattern.

4. Good discourse would prevent finful discourse. Much sin passeth in ordinary talk, as Gravel and Mud pass along with the Water. How many are Guilty of Tongue-sins! Good discourse would prevent evil, as labour prevents idleness. By inuring our Tongues to the Heavenly Dialect, the Devil would not have so much Power over us.

*Verba funt speculum mentis. Bernard. 5. We may guess at mens Hearts by their common discourse. Words are the Looking-glass of the Mind*. As you may Judge of a Face by the glass whether it be fair or foul; So by the words we may Judge of the Heart. A lascivious Tongue shews a lustful heart, an earthly Tongue a covetous heart; a Gracious Tongue, a Gracious Heart. The Ephraimites were known by their Pronunciation, saying Sibboleth for

UMI

kr is a co of is

fo

ou mo

fuc the his but the ly cou and WI this

the ver had rab for Shiboleth, Judg. 12. 6. So by the manner of our speech we may be known who we belong to. The Tongue is the Index of the Heart. If you broach a Vessel that which is within will come out; by that which comes out of the Mouth, you may Guels what is within in the Heart, Luke 6 45. Out of the abundance of the Heart the mouth Speaketh.

eve,

per-

Cts

our

ift:

the

our,

ent

in

1ud

ow

boo

la-

our

the

Wirts

are

As

ass

by irt.

ful

ous

ous

wn

eth

for

6. Good discourse is beneficial, Job 6. 23. How forcible are rights words? A word fpoken in feafon may make fuch a powerful impression upon anothers Heart as may do him Good all his Life. One fingle coal is apt to dye, but many coals put together keep in the heat. Christians by their Heavenly talk do ava? warven, blow up one anothers Grace into a flame. Monica Austins Mother, hearing others difcourse of Heaven, was greatly affected and cryed out, What do I do here? Why is my Soul held any longer with this Earthon fetter of my Flesh? When the Daughters of Jerusalem had converfed a while with the Spoule, and had heard her describe Christs admirable beauty, their Affections began H to be enflamed, and they would feek * Acts and

Mon.

him with her, Cant. 6.1. Whither is thy beloved gone O thou fairest among women, that we may feek him with thee? A Christian by divine discourse may enlighten another when he is ignorant, warm him when he is Frozen, comfort him when he is fad, confirm him when he is wavering. Latimer was much strengthened by discourse with Mr Bilny in Prison, and hearing his confession of Faith *. A good life adorns Religion, a good Tongue Propagates it. When the Apostle would have us edifie one another, what better way could he prescribe than this, to have fuch Holy speeches proceed out of our Mouths as might Minister

7. We must be accountable to God for our speeches. Words are judged light, but theyweigh heavy in Gods Balance; by our words we shall be either saved or damned, Mat. 12. 37. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. If our words have been seasoned with Grace, then the acquitting sentence is like to go on our side.

Grace unto the hearers? Eph. 4. 29.

8. Good

ri

b

to

W

TII

an

cor

ne.

ne

ny

m

go

no

ou

ing

LLO

We

Orl

8. Good discourse is a Christians Honour. The Tongue is called our Glory, Pfalm 30. 12. Because it is the Instrument of Glorifying God. When our Tongues are out of tune in murmuring, then they are not our Glory; but when these Organs found in Holy discourse, then our Tongues are our Glory.

9. Good discourse will be a means to bring Christ into our company. While the two Disciples were conferring about the death and Sufferings of Christ, Jesus Christ himself came among them, Luke 24. 15. While they communed together, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. When bad discourse is set on Foot, Satan draws near, and makes one of the Company; but when Good discourse is promoted, Jesus Christ draws near.

Let all that hath bin faid excite good conference: certainly, there is no better way than this to encrease our Stock of Grace. Others by fpending Grow Poor; but the more we spend our felves in Holy discourse, the richer we Grow in Grace, as the Widows Orl by Pouring out encreased.

CHAF. H 2

eek

thy wo-ee ?

nay

int,

m-iim

was rith

his life

opa-

ave

tter

to

out

ister

God

lged

Gods

be

12. ufti-

con-

fea-

ting

bood

CHAP. VII.

Means conducing to Holy Conference.

F it be asked how may Good con-I ference be arrived at? 1. If you would be discursive in Religion, get your minds well furnished with knowledge. Hereby, you will have a Treafure to fetch from, Job 38. 18. I am (faith Elihu) full of matter. Some are backward to speak of Good for want of matter: the empty Vessel cannot run. If you would have your Tongues run fluently in Religion, they must be fed with a fpring of knowledge, Col. 3. 16. Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly. In one of the Miracles that Christ wrought, he first caused the Water-pots to be filled with Water, and then faith he, Draw out now, John 2. S. So we must first have our Heads filled with Knowledge, and then we shall be able to draw out to others in Good difcourfe.

2. If

de be pu as

be

C

fel

the

of nh tho

and

ren

my

Lip

Per

liev

vol

afh

Pla

Tel

alb.

infe

con

2. If you would discourse readily in the things of God, make Religion your delight. What men delight in, they will be speaking of: the fensualist speaks of his sports; the worldling of his rich purchase. Delight makes the Tongue as the Pen of a ready writer. The Spouse being delighted and inamoured with Christs beauty, could not conceal her self; she makes an elegant and Pathetical Oration in the commendation of Christ, Cant. 5. 10. My Beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

3. Pray that God will both Gift and Grace you for Christian conference, Pfalm 51. 15. Lord open thou my Lips. Satan hath lock'd up mens Lips, pray that God will open them. Perhaps you pray that you may Believe in Christ, but do you pray that you may Confess him, and not be assumed to speak of him before others? Pfalm 119. 46. I will speak of thy Testimonies before Kings, and not be assumed. To end this, let me briefly insert two Cautions.

1. Not but that it is lawful to a caution. confer of worldly Negotiations fome-times;

n-

ou

et

N-

aim

re nt

ot

les

ıst

ze,

ilt

1irft

th

out

rft

W-

to lif-

If

times; Traffick requires conference: But with this proviso, that we should shew more Delectation and Earnestness in speaking of Spiritual things, than Earthly; Remembring the Soul is far more Valuable than the World.

Second Caution. 2. When persons speak of Religion let it not be for any Sinister Unworthy end, not for Ostentation, but Ediscation; and then having your aim right, speak of the things of God with Life and Affection, that others may perceive you seel those Truths which you speak.

CHAP. VIII.

Shewing the Second Character in special of the Godly, namely, thinking of God.

2 Special Character. 2. He Second Character of the Godly in special is, they thought upon Gods name; these Saints when they were together did speak of God, when they were alone they did think of God;

(

is

T

al

ir

ir

God; That Thought upon his name.

What is meant by Gods name? Quest

1. By the Name of God is meant Anfir. his Effence; Gods Name is put for God himself.

2. By the Name of God is meant his Glorious Attributes, which are the feveral Letters of his Name.

3. By the Name of God is meant his Worship and Ordinances where his Name is called upon, Jer. 7. 12. Go ye unto my Place which was in Shiloh where I fet my Name at first: That is, where I first fet up my Publick worlhip.

ld

ess

an

ar

on

or-

di-

ht,

ife

er-

ou

eng

he-

ht

iey

ien

of

od;

Now this Name of God, the Saints in the Text did contemplate, they Thought upon his Name. Thoughts are the first-born of the Soul, the conceptions of the mind, the immediate Fruit and Issue of a rational being. Thoughts are the Images of things in the Fancy *. These devout Souls in * Cogitation the Text were chiefly busying their with image. Thoughts about God and Heaven.

It is the inseparable sign of a God. Dott. ly man to imploy his chief Thoughts about God, Prov. 12. 5. The Thoughts of the Righteous are Right. That is they are fet upon the Right Object. 'Tis natural to Think. Thoughts fly out of the Mind, as Sparks out of a Furnace. The Hebrew word for a Thought, fignifies the Boughs of a Tree*; Because Thoughts shoot out from our Minds, as branches do from a Tree. 'Tis I say natural to Think, but it is not natural to Think of God, this is proper to a Saint: his Thoughts are Sublime and Seraphical, they fly to Heaven. The Mind is a Mint-house where Thoughts are Minted. David minted Golden Cogitations, Pfalm 139. 18. I am still with thee. That is (as learned Ainsworth expounds it) by Divine Contemplation. Thoughts are Travellers in the Soul. Davids Thoughts kept Heaven-road, Pfalm 73. 23. I am continually with thee. As the Mariners needle turns to the Northpole: fo a Saints Thoughts are still pointing towards God.

H 4 they

סעיף *

Quest.

Whence is it that the Saints thoughts mount up to God?

Answ.

There will be this Thinking on God, 1. From those intrinsecal Persections which are in him. The loveliness of the Object attracts the thoughts: God

is .

is

bu

57 no

Po

Ple

5, tio

Lo

of

tho

hir

hir

fro Hc

thi the

on

me

up

mo rit

the

2. There will be thinking on God from the powerful Operations of the Holy Ghost. We cannot of our selves think a good thought, 2 Cor. 3. 5. but the Spirit elevates and fixeth the heart on God. Ezek. 3. 14. The Spirit listed me up. When you see the Iron move upward, there hath been some Loadstone drawing it: so when the thoughts move upwards towards God, the Spirit hath, as a divine Load-stone, drawn them.

CHAP.

ur ee.

is

re

to ile

lm

is :)

ds

m

2F

1-

ill

ts

d,
is
of

is.

CHAP. IX.

Containing a sharp Redargution.

I Use. Reproof. I Branch.

UT of the quiver of this Text I may draw feveral Arrows of Reproof. 1. It reproves fuch as do not think upon Gods Name. It is the quam recordatur, ita G non effet riana.

Brand-mark of a Reprobate, God is not *Di nun- in all his thoughts, Psalm 10. 4. * He endeavours to expunge and blot God se genit ac out of his mind: though he draws his Deus. Ma- Breath from God, yet he doth not think of him: his thoughts shoot into the Earth, Philip. 3. 19. Had not finners by their fall lost their Headpiece, they would reason thus with themselves: Sure God is best worth thinking on; is there any excellency in the World? then what is there in God that made it? He gives the Star its beauty, the Flower its fragrancy, Food its fuavity; and if there be fuch deli-* Quod effi- eiousness in the Creature, what is in cit Tale, id God? He must needs be better than est magis all *. O my Soul, shall I admire the Tale.

Drop

D of th

gi tal

Go

of

To

the

of

the

Lo

the

P

fho

no

no

ma

an cal

Xale

fee

th

29

the

G

Drop and not the Ocean? Shall I think of the Workmanship, and not of him that made it? This is the fruit of Original Sin, it hath warped the Soul, and taken it off from the right Object.

It reproves fuch as indeed think of 2 Branch! God, but they have not Right Thoughts of him. As the Lord faid to Eliphaz, Job 42. 7. Te have not spoken of me the thing that is right; so some think of God, but they do not think of him the thing that is right. I. They have Low unworthy Thoughts of God, they Fancy God to be like themselves, Pfalm 50. 21. Men think God is as fhort-fighted as they, and that he cannot fee them through the thick Canopy of the Clouds: but he that makes a Watch knows all the Wheeles and Pins in it, and the Spring which caufeth the Motion. God who is rapologialisms the inspector of the Heart, fees all the intrigues and Private Caballs in the Thoughts *. God knows *Job 42.2. the true Motion of a false Heart, Jer. Amos 4.13 29. 23. I know and am a witness, saith the Lord.

2. Men have Injurious Thoughts of God: 1. They deem his wayes unequal, ext

of

do

the

not

He

God

his

not

in-

not

ad-

rith

orth

v ini

God

its boo

eli-

in nan

the

rop

equal, Ezek. 18. 25. Is not my way equal? Some call Gods Providence to the Bar of Reason, and Judge his proceedings excentrick; but God laies Righteousness to the Plummet, Isa. 28.17. His wayes are secret, but alwayes just. God is most in his way, when we think he is out of his way.

2. They think his wayes are not Profitable, Mal. 3. 14. What profit is it that we have kept his ordinance? We cannot shew our earnings. These are not Right Thoughts of God. Men think him to be an hard Master: But God will be in no mans debt, he gives double pay, Mal. 1. 10. Neither do ye kindle a fire on my Altar for nought.

g Branch.

It reproves fuch as instead of thinking on God, their minds are wholly taken up with Vain Thoughts. Vain Thoughts are the froth of the Brain, Jer. 4. 14. How long shall Vain Thoughts lodge with thee? I deny not but Vain Thoughts may sometimes come into the best Hearts, but they have a care to turn them out before night, that they do not Lodge. This denominates a Wicked man, his Thoughts Dwell upon Vanity; and well may his Thoughts be faid.

fai

tu

ty,

T

ab

ftr

do

on 14

per

th

ill

ly

th

th

T

fu

th

to 777 fi

m

2

fe

faid to be Vain, because they do not turn to any profit, Jer. 16. 19. Vanity, and things wherein there is no Profit. They are Vain Thoughts which are about Foolish things, and run all into straw. They are Vain Thoughts which do not Better the Heart, nor will give one drop of Comfort at death, Pfalm 146. 4. In that very day his Thoughts perish. Vain Thoughts are Pernitious, they Fly-blow the Heart and leave an ill tincture behind.

4. It reproves fuch as have not on- 4 Branch ly Vain Thoughts, but Vile Thoughts. 1. Proud Thoughts, while they view themselves in the Glass of Self-love, they begin to take up Venerable Thoughts of themselves, and so Pride fumes up into their Head and makes them Giddy *.

2. Impure Thoughts. They think how to Gratifie their Lusts, they do medician make provision, or as the word fignifies, become Caterers for the Flesh, Rom. 13. 14.

Sin begins in the Thoughts; first men Devise sin, then Act it, Mica. 2. 2. For instance, would one have preferment: he bethinks himself by what Ladder

*Ads 5.35

way

to oro-

aies

17.

uft.

we

not

25

we

are ink

God

ves

, ye

ing

up

are

Tow

ee?

ay

rts,

em

10t

red

ni-

be

id,

Ladder he may climb to Honour. He will Cringe and comply, and lay aside Conscience, and this is the way to rife. Would a man Grow rich: he fets his Thoughts a work how to compass an estate, he will circumvent, and pull down his Soul to build up Would he wreak his Malice on another; he frames an Engine in his Thoughts to take away his Life: as Jezabel (that Painted Harlot) when she would ruine Naboth, prefently fains a Sham-Plot and Subtilly thinks of a way how to dispatch him, I King. 21. 9. Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the People, and fet two men Sons of Belial to Witness against him, saying, thou didst blaspheme God and the King, and carry him out and stone him. O the Mischief of Thoughts! A man may Deny God in his Thoughts, Pfalm 14. 1. The Fool hath faid in his Heart there is no God. He may commit Adultery in his Thoughts, Mat. 5. 28. Whofoever looks on a Woman to Lust after her hath committed Adultery with her in his Heart. A man may Murder another in his Thoughts, 1 Joh. 3. 15. Whofoever hateth his brother

IML

bre

CO

W

W

no

Th

be

it

Pr

nel

fan

Pil

ver

the

env

ver

nro

Ma

we

wa

Cai

he

the tho

fo

Go

brother is a murderer. O how much contemplative wickedness is in the World! Tremble at finful Thoughts. We startle at Gross sin, but we are not troubled fo much for finful Thoughts. Know, i. That fin may be committed in the Thoughts, though it never blossom into outward Act, Prov. 24. 9. The Thought of Foolighnels is lin. See this in two things.

1. Envy, the Jews envied Christ the fame of his Miracles, Mat. 27. 18. Pilat knew that for envy they had delivered him. Here was fin committed in the Thoughts: the Jews finned by envying Christ, though they had never Crucified him.

2. Discontent, Gen. 24. 5. Cain was wroth and his Countenance fell. He did Malign his Brother, and his thoughts were boiled up to Discontent. Here was fin committed in the thoughts. Cain finn'd by Discontent though he had never Murdered his Brother.

2. God will punish for finful tionis pathoughts. We fay Thoughts are free; nam in no-fo they are in mans Court *; but nemo luat, God will punish for Thoughts: it was is the Cifet- vilians Rule.

ur.

lay

vav

ch:

to ent,

up Maine

his

ot)

ore-

illy

im,

fet

and

ness

eme and

ts!

its,

his mlat.

to

ery

ay

its, his

her

fet upon Herods score, that he thought to have destroyed Christ under a pretence of worshipping sim, Mat. 2. 8.

Let us be humbled for the fins of our Thoughts, Prov. 30. 32. If thou hast thought evil, lay thy hand upon thy Mouth. That is, humble and abase thy self before the Lord. The best alive had need be humbled for their thoughts.

1. The Instability of their Thoughts. How do the Thoughts Dance up and down in Prayer: like Quick-silver they will not fix. 'Tis hard to tye two Good Thoughts together.

2. The Impiety of their Thoughts. In the faireft fruit may be a Worm, and in the best Heart evil Thoughts may arise. Did mens Hearts stand where their faces do, they would blush to look one upon another. Let us I say be deeply humbled for our Thoughts. Let us look up to Christ that he would stand between us and Gods Justice, and that he would intercede for us that the Thoughts of our Hearts may be forgiven us.

Exhortation. Let us think of Gods Name; let us thortation. lock up our felves with God every day;

UMI

da

an

on ha

TI

fet

Mo

me.

tui

OU

Th

a f rat.

hin

24.

our

are nati

Om Cris

and bool

F

Add

day; let our Thoughts get Wings. and with the Birds of Paradife fly towards Heaven. Christians, look on that day to be loft, wherein you have not converfed with God in your Thoughts; think of God in your Cic fet, in your Shop: Trade above the Moon. Isaas went out into the field to meditate, Gen. 24. 63. He did take a turn in Heaven by holy Ejaculations. Our Minds should be steeped in holy Thoughts. It is not enough to have a few Transient Thoughts of God by the By, but there must be an immoration or staying our Minds on God, till our Hearts are warmed in love to him, and we can fay as they, Luk. 24. 32. Did not our Hearts burn with-212 115 ?

But what should be the matter of Quest.

our holy Musings?

1. Think of Gods Immenfe Being. Anfw. Adore his illustrious Attributes, which are the Beams by which the Divine nature thines forth. Think of Gods Omnisciency: he makes a Curious and Critical descant upon all our Actions, and enters them down into his day; book. Think of Gods Holinefs, which ght

Tat.

of

hou

thy thy live

hts.

its.

and

ver

WO

hts.

m, hts

und

ufh

its.

he ods

ede

irts

us

Y :

is the most sparkling Jewel of his Crown, Exod. 15. 11. Think of Gods Mercy: this makes all his other Attributes fweet. Holiness without Mercy, and Justice without Mercy would be terrible. Think of Gods Veracity, Exod. 34. 6. Abundant in Truth; that is, God will be fo far from coming short of his word, that he doth more then he hath faid. He shoots beyond the Promife, never short of it.

2. Think of the Works of God, Pfalm 77. 12. I will meditate of all thy Works. Gods works are bound up in three great Volumes, Creation, Redemption, Providence: here is fweet matter for our Thoughts to expatiate upon.

CHAP. X.

Swasives and Incentives to Holy Thoughts.

ET me, to inforce the Exhortati- Gods on, propound fome Swafives and 15. A Inducements to be frequent in the Cabin Thoughts of God. 1. The end why the P God ty is Wh Imp fide our : lent Tho ry tl giver to G

Chri

venly

Minc

make

Holy whic fo th Relig

God

and f 3on G 100. and n

God hath given us this thinking faculty is, that we may think on his Name. When our Cogitations run out in Impertinencies (like water running befide the Mill) we should think with our felves thus: did God give us a Talent to misimploy? did he give us Thoughts that we should think of every thing but him? were these Arrows given us to shoot beside the Mark?

2. If we do not inure our felves to Good thoughts, we cannot be Good Christians. Thinking seriously on Heavenly things, makes them fray in our Mind, caufeth delight in them, and makes them Nutritive. Musing on Holy Objects is like concocting food, which turns it to Blood and Spirits: fo that without Holy Cogitation, no Religion. Can a man be Religious and scarce ever think of it?

3. We are deeply obliged to think on God. 1. God is our maker, Pfalm 100. 3. It is he that bath made us, and not we our felves. Our bodies are tati- Gods curious needle work, Pfalm 139. and 15. And as God hath wrought the the Cabinet, so he hath put a Jewel in it, why the Precious Soul. Hath God made us,

and

his

ods

ri-

cy,

be od.

iod

of he ro-

alm

rks.

rée

ion, for

Toly

God

and shall not we think of him? 2. God hath fweetned our Liveswith Various Mercies. The city of Syracufe in Sicity was fo curiously scituated, that the Sun was never out of fight: God hath fo placed us by his Providence, that the Sun-shine of Mercy is never out of fight. We are Bemiracled with Mercy; Mercy feeds us with the Finest of the irheat, the Bread of Life; Mercy guards us with a Guard of Angels; it makes the Rock pour forth Rivers of Oyl: and shall not the Stream lead us to the Fountain? shall not we think of the God of our Mercies? this were high Ingratitude.

4. To have frequent and Devout Thoughts of God witnesseth Sincerity. No truer Touchstone of Sanctity, than the Spirituality of the Thoughts: that a man is, that his Thoughts are, Prov. 23. 7. For as he thinketh in his Heart so is he. Thoughts are freer from Hypocrise than words: one may speak well for applause, or to stand right in the Opinion of others; but when we are alone and think of Gods Name, and admire his Excellencies, this shews the Heart to be Right. Thoughts are freers from

Rev may broo The Goo than ans, fror

que Hea ven dife yet good of whe

Cur thin high of t pani are tion thin

ever

from Hypocrifie than an Unblamable Life. A man may in his outward carriage be fair, yet have a Covetous, Revengeful mind. The Acts of Sin may be forborn, when the Heart fits brooding upon Sin; but to have the Thoughts Spiritualized and fer upon God, is a truer Symptom of fincerity, than a Life free from Vice. Christians, what do your Thoughts run upon? where do they make their most frequent Visits? can you fay, Lord, our Hearts are still Mounting up to Heaven, our Thoughts are lodg'd in Paradife; though we do not fee thy face, yet we think on thy Name? this is a good Evidence of Sincerity. We Judge of men by their Actions; God Judgeth. of them by their Thoughts.

5. Thinking much on God would Cure the Love of the World. Great things feem little to him that flands high. To fuch as fland upon the top of the Alps the great Cities of Campania feem little Villages: they who are Mounted High in the contemplation of Christ and Glory, how do the things of the World disappear, and even shrink into nothing! A Soul elevated

I 3

God

ous

Si-

hat

God

ice,

ver

rith

nest

rcy

els;

vers ead

ink

rere

out

ity.

han

hat

rov.

t fo

povell

the

are and

the

reert

rom

vated by faith above the Visible Orbs, hath the Moon under his feet. A true Saint intermedles with Secular Affairs more out of Necessity than Choice. St. Pauls Thoughts were fublime, he lived in the Altitudes, and how did he fcorn the World*! Gal. 6. 14. The . world * Que cità afpetta placent, infpe-Eta difplicent, Sc-

neca.

is crucified to me *. 6. Thinking on God would be expullive of Sin. Whence is Impiety but from Incogitancy? Did men Ruminate upon Gods Holiness and Justice, durst they fin at that rate as they do? That which check'd Joseph, was the Thoughts of a Sin-revenging God. When the delights of fin Tickle, let the Thoughts of God come into mens Minds, that .he is both the Spectatour and the Judge. and after the Golden Crowns and Womens Hair come the Lions Teeth, Rev. 9. 8. This would put them into a cold Sweat, and be as the Angels +Num.22. drawn Svord*, it would fcare them from fin. 31.

7. Thinking on God is an admirable means to encrease our love to God. As it was with Davids musing on Mortality, Pfam 39. 3. As I was Musing the fire burned; to it is with our Mufing fin

ing

in a

on W

Bu

gla

So

to

ou

er

he

of bu the

A

W

Ba

W

th

in

W

an

an

tra Fle

W

fing on the Deity: while we are thinkrbs, ing on God, our Hearts will kindle true in love to him. The Reason our Affefairs ctions are fo chill and cold in Religi-St. on is, because we do not warm them ved with the Thoughts of God. Hold a corn Burning-glass to the Sun, and the orld glass burns that which is near to it: So when our Thoughts are lifted up exto Christ the Sun of Righteousness, but our Affections are fet on fire. No foonnate er had the Spoule been thinking on lurst her Saviours Beauty, but she fell fick Chat of love, Cant. 5. 8. O ye Saints, do ghts but let your Cogitations dwell upon dethe Love of Christ, who did pass by ghts Angels and think of you; who was that wounded, that out of his wounds the udre. Balm of Gilead might come to heal you; Wowho leaped into the Sea of his Fa-Rev. thers wrath, to fave you from drown. o a ing: think of this unparallel'd love > and cause Tears of love to flow forth. 8. Thinking on God will by degrees transform us into his Image. As Jacobs Flock looking on the Rods that had White streaks conceived and brought forth > which fets the Angels a Wondring, and fee if it will not affect your Hearts 14 igels

hem

nira-

God.

Mor-

uling

Mu-

fing

the them, Gen. 30. 39. So by contemplating Gods Heliacis, we are in some measure changed into his likeness. 2 Cor. 3. 18. Beholding as in a Glass the Glor, of the Lord, we are changed into the same Image. The contemplative fight of God was transforming: they had some Print of Gods Holiness upon them; as Moses when he had been on the Mount with God, his face shined, Exod. 34. 35. What is Godliness but God-likeness? and who are so like him as they that think on his Name?

9. Thinking on God is sweet. it Ulhers in a fecret delight into the Soul Plata 104. 34. My meditation of him shall be sweet. He whose Head is got above the Clouds, his Thoughts are fled aloft, and he hath God in his eye, is full of divine Raptures, and cries out as Peter in the transfiguration, I ord, it is good to be here. Holy Thoughts are the Dove we fend out of the Ark of our Souls, and they bring an Olive branch of Peace. Some complain they have no Joy of their live; and truly no wonder, when they are fuch strangers to Heavenly Contemplation

Ind the of this Sou him che al. er i

Joy

the ten

VOI

fpe Por eith Oth at hat an fini the (tul oft Air

tur

templation. Would you have God give you Comfort, and never think of him? Indeed Israel had Manna drop'd into their Tents, and they never Thought of it; but God will not drop down this Manna of Heavenly Joy on that Soul which feldom or never thinks of him. Would you have your Spirits chearful? let your Thoughts be celeftial. The higher the Lark flies, the Sweeter it fings: The higher a Soul ascends in the Thoughts of God, the fweeter Joy it hath.

m-

me

ſs. the

the

ht

ad

on

en

niess

fo iis

it

ie

of

is ts in

d

i-

y

it

e

10. Thoughts of God will turn to the best account. Thoughts spent on the World are often in Vain. Some spend Thoughts about laying up a Portion for fuch a Child; and perhaps, either it dies, or lives to be a Cross. Others beat their Brains how to rife at Court; and when Royal Favour hath shined upon them, on a sudden an Eclipse falls out, and the Kings finile is turn'd into a frown; and then their Thoughts are frustrated-Et fiultus labor est ineptiarum- *. How * Martial. oft do men build Castles in the Air? But the Thoughts of God will turn to a good account, they Augment Sanctification, and bring Satisfaction, Pfalm 63. 5. My Soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, when I remember thee on my bed, and meditate on thee, &c. The Thoughts we have of God in the time of health, will be a Comfort to us in the time of sickness.

11. God thinks of us, and shall not we think of him? Pfalm 40. 17. The Lord thinketh upon me. God thinks on us every Morning, Lam. 3. 23. His Mercies are new every Morning. He gives · us Night-Mercies, he Rocks us every Night asleep, Pfalm 127. 2. So he giveth his beloved Sleep : and if we chance to wake he gives us Songs in the Night, Job 35: 10. If God be thinking of us Day and Night, shall not we think of his Name? How can we forget a freind who is ever mindful of us? Jer. 29. 11. I know the Thoughts that I think towards you (faith the Lord) Thoughts of Peace. Though God be out of our fight, we are not out of his Thoughts.

12. God will one Day reckon with us for our Thoughts. He will fay I gave you a Cogitative faculty, what have you

yo

al

Se

T

aı

V

ei

C

a

tl

b

fe

1

you done with it? If God asks a Covetous man, what have been your Sentiments? which way have your Thoughts run? he will Answer, to heap up Riches: if God asks Princes and Emperors, how have you employ'd your Thoughts? they will say, how by our Scepter to beat down the Power of Godliness. What a dreadful account will these Persons have to give at last! Not only mens Actions, but their Thoughts will accuse them, Rom. 2. 15.

13. Our Thoughts of God shall not be loft. God accepts of the Thought for the deed. David had a good Thought come into his Mind to build God an House, and God took it as kindly as if he had done it, 2 Chron. 6. 8. For asmuch as it was in thy Heart to build an house to my Name, thou didst well that it was in thy Heart. When Christians have Thoughts of promoting God's Glory, they would do fuch good Acts if it were in their Power, build Hospitals, distribute Justice, cut off offenders from the City of God, the Lord looks upon it as if they had done it : fo that our Thoughts of God are not loft.

itis-

l be ress,

and

lth,

ime

not

The

on His

ives

ery

he we

in

be nall

we

of

hts

rd)

out

his

ith

I

ve

ou

2 Branch.

Let us think of God in a Right manner. A Good Medicine may be spoiled in the making: so may a Good Duty be spoiled in the doing. Thoughts may be Good for the matter of them, yet may be Faulty in the manner. I shall shew you

- 1. How Thoughts of God may fail in the Manner.
- 2. The Right Manner of Thinking upon God.
- 1. How Thoughts of God may fail in the Manner. 1. A man may Think of God, yet not intend his glory. Jehn had good Thoughts came into his Mind, to destroy the Baal-worshippers, but his intent was to advance himfelf into the Throne. Bad aims Flyblow good Actions. 2. A man may have Good Thoughts but they are forced, --- Virtus nolentium nulla est-When one bleeds under Gods afflicting hand, he may Think of God, yet have no love to him, Pfalm 78. 34. When he slew them, then they remembred that God was their Rock, and the high God their Redeemer: nevertheless they did flatter

ter

The

fliE

of

Mo lafl

tho

ma

a i

Pr

of

Go

TI

thi

ne

T

Fo

ri

g

n

ter him with their Mouth. Thefe were good Thoughts, but it was to complement with God, and to get rid of the Affliction. 3. A man may have Thoughts of God out of design to stop the Mouth of Conscience. Conscience doth lash the profane Sinner; what art thou fo Wicked as never to Think of God, who indulgeth thee with fo many favours? Hereupon he may have a few good Thoughts; but they are irksome to him: this is not from a Principle of Conscience, but to quiet Conscience. 4. A man may think of God with Horrour: he thinks of Gods Soveraignty, and dreads the Thoughts of God. You fee one may think of God, yet these Thoughts may become finful.

2. I shall shew you the Right manner of Thinking upon God: 1. Our Thoughts of God must be Serious. Feathers swim on the top, but Gold sinks into the Water: Feathery Spirits have some floting Thoughts; but good Hearts sink deep in the Thoughts of a Deity. 2. Our Thoughts of God must be Spiritual. Take heed of framing any gross conceits of God in ght

Our

oil-

boo

hts

m,

fail

ng

in nk hu

nis

rs,

ny-

ly

re

g

n

18

d

8

I

our Minds, representing him by the similitude of the Creature, Deut. 4.15. Te. faw no Similitude. Conceive of God in Christ: we cannot see him any other way, as we cannot fee the Sun in the Circle but in the Beams, the God-head dwells in Christs Humane nature, Col. 2. 9. Think of God as a Spirit full of immense Glory, propitious to us through a Mediatour. 3. Our Thoughts of God must be Delightful. With what Delight doth a Child think of his Father! A gracious Soul counts them the Sweetest hours which are spent with God. 4. Our Thoughts of God must be Vertual and Efficacious, leaving our Hearts in a a better Tune: The Thoughts of Gods faithfulness must make us confide in him, the Thoughts of Gods Holiness must make us conform to him. This is the Right thinking on God when it is influential, it leaves us in a more Heavenly frame.

CHAP.

Th

ana

hav

In

firft

Vii

(em teft

fea

lon

for

Mo

bet

yo P/

the

CHAP. XI.

Helps to Holy Thoughts.

T shews us how to have our 3 Use. Thoughts frequently fixed upon God. 1. Begin the day with Holy Direction. Thoughts*, Pfalm 139. 17. When I* TlewTOV awake I am still with thee. God should mel Selwy have the first buddings of our Thoughts. Aristor. In the Law, the Lord would have the first fruits offered him: give God your Virgin-thoughts in the Morning—Quo semel est imbuta recens servabit odorem testa diù-what the Vessel is first feafoned with, it keeps the rellish a long time after. The Mind being feafoned with Good Thoughts in the Morning, will keep the Heart in a better Decorum all the day afrer.

2. If you would think of God take heed of hindrances. 1. Turn away your eyes from beholding Vanity, Pfal. 119. 37. Vain Objects Poylon the Imagination, lascivious Pictures, and wanton talk leave bad impressi-

aw in

er he ad ol.

us

its at

am

nt

ng he

ft

ts

nk-

it

ons upon the fancy. 2. Call off your Thoughts what you can from the world. If worldly Thoughts come Crowding into our Mind, good Thoughts will be loft in the Crowd.

3. Get a love to God and his wayes. One cannot but think of that which he loves, Jer. 2. 32. Can a Maid forget her Ornaments? when she hath not her Jewel on her Ear, she will have it in her Thoughts. A person deeply in love cannot keep his Thoughts off from the Object he loves. The reason we Think on God no more, is, because we love him no more. Let there be but one spark of love to God, it will fly Upward in Heavenly Ejaculations. By nature we have Quick-silver Hearts which cannot be made to fix on God, but by love.

4. If you would think often on God, get an interest in him, Pfalm 48. 14. This God is our God. We think most upon that which is our own. If a man ride by brave Houses and Gardens, he casts his Eye slightly upon them, and doth not much Mind them; but let him have an house of his own, and his Thoughts dwell in it. Why do men

a r and The me

She

Lor

fpea he c then but pref jav

men think no more of God, but because God and they are strangers. Let a mans interest in God be cleared, and he will not be able to keep his Thoughts off from God,

CHAP. XII.

Shewing the first Good Effect of the Saints Piety.

2. THE Good effects of the Saints Piety. 1. God Regarded it. The Lord hearkened and heard.

These blessed ones in the Text were speaking and thinking of God, and he did not turn away his Ear from them, as if he had not minded them; but he hearkened and heard; which expression denotes.

- 1. Diligence.
- 2. Delight.
- 1. It notes the diligent heed God gave to these Saints, He hearkened.

  K Here

our

the

ome

glits

his hat

hen

fon hts

eabe-

Let

iod,

Eja-

ck-

to od.

his

on

he

ind let

ind

do

idn.

meo ift.

Bern.

Here was attention of Ear, and intenfness of Mind. Hearkening is the Gesture of one that Listens to what another faith.

2. Gods hearkening shews the delight he took in the Holy Dialogues of these Saints: he was pleased with them, they were to him as fweet Melody.

DoEt. That God takes special Notice of of the Good which he fees in his People. The Children of God may perhaps think that God doth not regard them, Job 30. 20. I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me. The Church complains, God did sbut out her Prayer, Lam. 3. 8. But though God be fometimes Silent, he is not Deaf: he takes Notice of all the good Services of his People, the Lord hearkened and heard.

Quest. Whence is it God takes fuch Notice of his Peoples Services?

Anfw. I. Not from any Merit in them, but the Impulsive cause is his indonia or Free-grace. The best duties of the Righteous could not endure Gods bal-* Horreo quiequid de lance*, but God will display the Trophies of his Mercy. Free-grace accepts what Justice might condemn. 2. Gods taking Notice of the good

in

in his people, is through Christ, Eph.

1. 6. He hath made us accepted * in the Beloved. Or as Chrysostom renders * in the Beloved. Or as Chrysostom renders * in the Red glass every thing appears of a Red Colour: through Christs blood, both our Persons and Dutyes appear Ruddy and Beautiful in Gods Eyes.

3. God takes Notice of the Services of his People, because they flow from a Principle of Grace. God regards the Voice of Faith, Cant. 2. 14. 0 my Dove, let me hear thy Voice, for sweet is thy Voice. The Services of the Wicked are harsh and sowre, but the Godly give God the first ripe Cluster * Micah 7. Which grows from the sweet and 1. pleasant Root of Grace.

× 2

CHAP.

enf-

Ge-

hat

de-

sof

em,

of

-09

er-

rd

nd

ch

er,

e-

es

)-

C

CHAP. XIII.

Inferences drawn from the Propositi-

I Use. Inform. I Branch.

TF God hearkens and hears, hence I infer Gods Omnisciency. could, he being in Heaven, hear what the Saints speak and think, were he not Omniscient? Through the bright Mirror of his own essence he hath a ful Idea of all things. He knows the Intrigues of States, the Stratagems of his Enemies, Exod. 14. 24. Future Contingencies fall within his Cognizance *. Gods Knowledge is Primary: he is the Original, Pattern, and Prototype of all Knowledge. Gods Knowledge is Instantaneous. He knows all at once: Our Knowledge is Succesfive, we know one thing after another, and argue from the Effect to cause; but all things are in Gods view uno intuitu, in one intire prospect. Gods Knowledge is infallible and not Subject * τὰ μή συμβάντα περοξών. Chrys. Subject to mistake. Such is the Infinity of his Knowledge, that the Apositle cries out in Admiration & Bade, Othe depth of the Riches both of the Wisdom and Knowledge of God! Rom. 11. 33. The World is to God as a Bee-hive of Glass, where you see the working of the Bees, and the framing of their Combs. All things are unvail-ed to the Eye of Jehovah.

See Gods Goodness who often passeth 2 Branch, Numb. by the failings of his People*, and 23.21. takes Notice of the good in them, He hearkened and heard. I Pet. 3. 6. Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling himiLord. The Holy Ghost passeth by her unbelief and Laughing at the Promife, and took Notice of her reverence to her Husband, she called him Lord. Jam. 5. 11. Te have heard of the Patience of fob. We have heard of his Impatience, curfing his Birth-day: But the Lord doth not upbraid him with that, but observes the good that was in him; ye have heard of the Patience of Job. The Painter who drew Alexanders Picture, Drew him with his finger upon his Scar; fo God putsa finger of Mercy upon the Scars of his Children. He fees their Faith, K 3 and

e

e

٢, and Winks at their failing.

2 Branch

See Gods different carriage towards the Godly and the Wicked: If the Godly Think of his Name, he hearkens and hears; but if the Wicked meddle with Religious duties, he turns away his Ear, Gen. 4. 5. To Cain and his Offering God had no respect. Suppose a man had a Sweet breath, yet if he had the Plague, no body would come near him: So, though a finner may give God many a fweet elegant Expression in Prayer, yet having the Plague of the Heart, God will not receive any Offering from him. If God shut mens Prayers out of Heaven, it is a fad Prognostick that he will shut their Persons out of Heaven.

Branch.

See the Priviledge of the Godly: they have Gods Ear, the Lord heark-ened and heard, Pfalm 34. 15. His Ears are open to their cry: It would be counted a great happiness to have the Kings ear; but what is it to have Gods Ear! The Lord hearkened and heard. Believers have the Spirit of God breathing in them, and God cannot but hear the Voice of his own Spirit.

See

is

G

fe

to

W

dr

co

to do

his

his

be upo

100 till

me

in

See what an encouragement here 5 Branch is to be conversant in the duties of Gods Worship: he takes Notice of the fervices of his People; he hearkens to them as to fweet Musick. Who would not come with their humble addresses to God, when he is so pleased with them? Prov. 15.8. ..

Object 1. But my deferts are nothing?

God bestows not his Favours ac- Answ. cording to our defert, but according to his Promise.

But I have prayed a long time and Object 2. have no Answer.

God may hear Prayer when he Answ. doth not Answer. He may lend us his Ear, when he doth not shew us his Face. The Text faith, the Lord hearkened and heard. 'Tis not faid he gave an Answer, but he hearkened. It becomes fuitors to wait. Faith stays upon God, Patience stayes for God, Psal. 123. 2. As the Eyes of Servants look unto the hand of their Masters, so our Eyes wait upon the Lord our God, untill he have Mercy upon us.

See the difference between God and 6 Branch. men: God takes Notice of the .good in his people; the Wicked pass by the K 4

e

good in the Godly, and take Notice only of their failings. If they can fpy any indecency or blemish in them, they upbraid them with it; Like those children, 2 King 2. 23. who reproached Elisba for his Baldness, but took no Notice of the Prophets Miracles. Erasmus speaks of one, who observed all the same Verses in Homer, but passed over the good.

Branch.

From this, the Lord hearkened and heard, Behold the folly of Idolaters: they worship a God who can neither hearken nor hear. The Cretians Pi-Etured Jupiter without Ears. Idol-Gods have Ears, but hear not, Pfalm 115. 16. A life-less God is good enough for a life-less worship.

2 U/e. Exhorta-I Branch.

Let the People of God stand and Wonder. 1. At Gods Condescension, that he who is fo high in the praifes and acclamations of the Angels, should stoop so low, as to listen to the lifpings of his children. The Lord bearkened and heard: Alas, God hath no need of our Services; he is infinitely bleffed in reflecting upon the Splendour of his own infinite Being: we cannot adde the least Cubit to his Essential Glory, Job 35. 7. If thou be Rightewho

fuc

he

fel

Po

he

his

wi

teo ch hi

it,

for ye

a Ca

Co

bu

bi

fu

th

fe

W

in

al

S

Righteous what givest thou to him? or what receiveth he at thy hands? yet such is his sweet Condescention, that he doth as it were stoop below himself, and take Notice of his Peoples Poor Oblations.

2. Wonder at Gods Love, that he should regard those services of his People, which are fo mixed with Corruption, Ifa. 64.6. Our Righteousnesses are as filthy Rags*. The Eu- * Splendichariffical Sacrifice, which was the da peccata. highest, had some Leaven joined with it, Levit. 7. 13. Our best duties have fome Leaven of Imperfection in them; vet fuch is Gods love, that he hath a liking to them, and accepts them, Cant. S. I. I have eaten my, Hony-Comb with my Hony. Hony is fweet, but the Hony-comb is Viscous and bitter, and can hardly be eaten; yet fuch was Christs love to his Spouse, that he eat of her Hony-comb, her fervices mixed with Imperfection, and was pleafed to take delight in them. Oh the Love of God! that he should have respect to our offerings that are interlarded with fin. Our best duties are as fweet Wine coming out of a If Sowre Cask.

ice

(py

m, ofe

ned

ice

iks

fes

ınd

S:

ner

Pi-

ds

5. for

nd

n,

i-

ls,

to

rd

th

en-

c

is

be.

2 Branch. If God hearkens to us when we fpeak, let us hearken to him when he speaks. In the word preached God speaks to us. He is said now to speak to us from Heaven, Heb. 12. 25. That is, by the preaching of the word, as a King speaks by his Ambassadour. Doth God hearken to us, and shall not we hearken to him? Be not like the Deaf-adder which stoppeth her Ear. This the Lord complains of, Job 33. 14. God speaketh Once, yea Twice; yet man regardeth it not. If Gods word doth not prevail with us, our prayers will not prevail with him.

CHAP. XIV.

Shewing the second Good Effect of the Saints Piety,

2. THE Second Good effect of the Saints Piety, was, God recorded it. A Book of Remembrance was written before him: The word in the Origi-

Orig Sign nume going ing; God Holy Chil flip word was did : of th Wro bran ar 3 pa Not cord dow Men Thi as f but Sana day mei fpec

the

Me

Original for Book of Remembrance * 1751. Signifies a Book of Memorials or Monuments. The words immediately foregoing recite Gods hearkening and hearing; but lest any should say, though God doth at the present hear the Holy Speeches and Thoughts of his Children, yet may they not in time flip out of his Mind? therefore these words are added, a Book of Remembrance was written before him. The Lord did not only hear the Good speeches of the Saints, but Recorded them, and Wrote them down; a Book of Remem-This is spoken brance was written. ard commudes after the manner of men. Not that God hath any book of Records by him, he needs not write down any thing for the help of his Memory, he is not Subject to oblivion. Things done a thousand years ago are as fresh to him, as if they were done but Yesterday, Psalm 90. 4. A thou-Sand years in thy sight are but as Testerday when it is past. This book of Re- * Metaphomembrance therefore, is a borrowed ra a regions speech, taken from Kings, who have sumpea qui their Chronicles wherein they note habint an-Memorable things *. King Ahafuerus bus memo-had randa annotant.

Grotius.

we

hen

hed

שוסמ leb.

ing

by

en

en

ler

he

od

e-

th

rs

e

had his book of Records, wherein were written the worthy deeds of Mordecai, Esther 6. 1, 2. So God bears in Mind all the Good speeches and pious actions of his Children. Gods curious and Critical observation is a Book of Records, where nothing can be lost or torn out.

Dott.

God doth Eternally remember all the Good defigns, and Pious endeavours of his People, Heb. 6. 10. God is not unrighteous to forget your Work and labour of love, which you have shew-ed towards his Name. Eight things God writes down in his Book of Remembrance.

1. The Lord writes down the Names of his Saints, Philip. 4. 3. Whose Names are in the Book of Life. This Book hath no Errata's, Rev.

3. 5.

2. The Lord writes down the good speeches of his People. When Christians speak together of the Mysteries of Heaven ( which is like Mulick in confort) God is much taken with it: When their Tongues are going, Gods pen is going in Heaven. They that fear'd the Lord spake often one to another, and

and a ten.

Eart hath 56. tle, drop the and befic

God fhec 9. 2 writ wri mem

are

ers, head min ver

> his We Thto

> > fur

and a Book of Remembrance was written.

3. The Lord writes down the Tears of his People. Tears drop down to the Earth, but they reach Heaven *: God * Deorsum hath his Bottle and his Book, Plalm cadunt, for 56. 8. Put thou my Tears into thy bottle, are they not in thy Book? Tears drop from the Saints, as Water from the Roses: they are fragrant to God, and he puts them in his Bottle. And besides this, he hath his Book of Remembrance, where he fets them down; are they not in thy Book? Especially God writes down fuch Tears as are shed for the fins of the times, Ezek. 9. 2. One was clothed with linnen; with a writers Inkhorn by his side: this was to write down the Tears of the Mourners, and to fet a mark upon the foreheads of them that sighed for the Abominations done in the midst of the City. ver. 4.

4. God writes down the Thoughts of his People. We can write down mens Words, but we cannot write down their Thoughts. It would pose the Angels to write mens Thoughts: but be affured, never an Holy cogitation comes into vere

ecai,

1ind acti-

and

Re-

or

all

dea-

God

Tork

bew-

ngs

Re-

the ife.

ev.

ood

ri-

ries

in

it:

ods

r'd

er,

ind

into our Mind, but God writes it down. So in the Text, a Book of Remembrance was written for them that Thought upon his Name. Two things are filent, yet have a Voice, Tears *, *Pfal.6. 8. † Ifa. 66.

and Thoughts +.

5. God writes down the defires of his People, Psalm. 38 9. All my desire is before thee: That is, it is fet down in thy book. Defire is the Spiritual Appetite, or the Souls Anhelation and breathing after God, Pfalm 84. 2. In this Life we do rather desire God than enjoy him. Can we fay we take our Souls è Corporis Pharetra out of the quiver of our Bodies and shoot them into Heaven? do our Affections fally forth towards Christ? do we desire him fuperlatively and unceffantly? Every fuch desire is put down in Gods Register Book: all my desire is before thee.

6. The Lord writes down the prayers of his People, Jonah 2. 7. Prayer, though it be not Vocal, only Mental, is Recorded, 1 Sam. 1. 13. Hannah pake in her Heart. That prayer God did write down and Answer; God was better to her than her prayer;

0

P

b

27

W

P

te

m

di

aı

pr

hi

de

OI

aı

de

m

to li

15

h

th

fo

m

the prayed for a Son, and God. gave her a Prophet. When the heart is so full of grief, that it can only groan in Prayer; yet a Groan is sometimes the best part of a Prayer, and God writes it down, Pfalm 38. 9. Lord, my Groaning is not hid from thee. If we cannot speak with elegancy in Prayer, if it be only lisping and chattering, God puts it in his Book of Remembrance, Isa. 38. 14. Like a Crane, so did I chatter: yet that prayer was heard and registred, Ver. 5. I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy Tears.

7. God writes down the Alms of his People. Works of Mercy must be done out of Love to God: as Mary out of love brought her Ointments and sweet Spices and anointed Christs dead body: so out of pure love we must bring our Ointments of Charity to anoint the Saints, which are Christs living body, Such Alms are not lost * * * operable Heb. 13. 16. With such Sacrifices God mosparia is well pleased. And that we may see sed parture how well the Lord is pleased with unt. them, he hath a Book of Remembrance for them, he writes them down. Item, so much lent to the Lord, Acts 10. 4.

Corne-

Re-

that ings

s of

lesire

Own Ap-

and

. In

our

the hem

fally

efire

tly?

iods

fore

ray-

yer,

ntal.

mah

God

God er;

The

Cornelius, thine Alms are come up for a memorial before God.

8. God hath a Book of Remembrance for the Sufferings of his People. The Saints Purgatory is in this life. But there are two things may bear up their Spirits. 1. Every Groan of theirs goes to Gods Heart, Exod. 6. 7. I have heard the Groanings of the Children of Ifrael. In Musick when one ftring is touch'd, all the reft found: when the Saints are stricken Gods bowels found. 2. God hath a Book of Records to write down his Peoples injuries. The wicked make wounds in the backs of the Righteous, withen pour in Vinegar: writes down their Cruelty. I Sam. 15.2. I Remember what Amalek did to Ifrael. Amalek was Efaus Grandchild*. Abitter enemy of Ifrael. The Amalekites shewed their Spight to Israel two-waves. 1. They did lye in ambush; and as Ifrael passed by, fell upon their rear, and cut off the feeble in their army, 1 Sam. 15. 2.

2. They did openly give Battel to them, and would have hindred them from going into Canaan, Exod. 17. 8.

Now

Gen. 56.

kı

W

G

Pe

w

a l

the

Sei

of

con

bra

Pe

Now God took otice of Israels sufferings by Amalek. I Remember hat Amalek did to Israel, I have my Book of Remembrance, I write it down, Ver. 3. Go and smite Amalek.

CHAP. XV.

Several Corollaries flowing from the Proposition.

To shews us that it is not in Vain 1 Use. to serve God. The Wicked who Inform. know not God, think him an hardmaster, and say as they, Job 21. 15.
What prosit should we have if we pray to him? But the Text shews us that God records all the Services of his People, a Book of Remembrance was written before him. Gods writing in a Book is, 1. An honour to the Saints: the Romans wrote the names of their Senators in a Book, and in token of Honour they were called Patres conscript: so Gods Book of Remembrance shews his high esteem of his People and their services, he writes

L them

à

nonis

gs ry

gs ck

eft

en th

vn ed he r: ty.

lek

id-

he ael

h; eir

eir

to 8.

W

them down. 2. Gas writing in a Book denotes the special favour God bears to his People; he Registers them and their fervices with an intent to Crown them. Tamerlain wrote down all the Memorable deeds of his Soldiers, whom he afterwards preferred to places of dignity. Gods fervice is most eligible; let us make Josbua's Choice, Josh. 24. 15. As for me and my house, we will ferve the Lord. If we should defert Gods fervice, whither shall we go? when Christ asked his Disciples will ye also go away? faith Peter, Lord to whom (ball we go? John 6. 68. As if he had faid, if we leave thee, we do not know where to mend our felves. Let us adhere to God, he hath his Book of Memorials to record our Allegiance. We may be lofers for him, we shall not be losers by him.

2 Branch.

See from hence that as God doth Register the good works of his People, so he hath a Book of Remembrance to write down the fins of the wicked, Isa. 30. 8. Go, write it before them in a Table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come, for ever, that this is a Rebellious People, that

UMI

Co

ni

no

m

To Fu

the

do bei

lide

all

wa

boy

and

Go

Cam

han

the the

mrot

chan

Rev

and

Gion

allue

Indie

that will not hear the Law of the Lord. Mens fins are written in the book of Conscience, and the Book of Gods Omnisciency. They think because God doth not speak to them by his loud Judgements, therefore God doth not know their fins; but though God doth not speak, he writes, Jer. 17. 1. The fin of Judah is written with a Pen of Iron and the Point of a Diamond. God scores down every act of Oppression, Bribery, Uncleanness, Hos. 7. 2. They consider not in their Heart, that I remember all their wickedness. King Belshazzer was caroufing and drinking wine in bowls, and praising his Gods of Gold and Silver; but while he was sinning, God was writing, Dan. 5. 6. In the same hour came forth fingers of a mans hand, and wrote upon the Plaister of the Wall of the Kings Palace, and the King saw part of the hand that wrote: then the Kings countenance was changed. We read of Gods Book, Rev. 20. 12. The books were opened: and his Bag, Job 14. 17. My transgrefsion is sealed up in a bag. It seems to allude to Law-Courts where there are Indictments against such Malefactours feal-F 8.

a

m

to ol-

to

ft

ie,

le,

ve

es

rd

As

we

ur

for oth

eo-

nce ic-

ore hat

for

le, bas fealed up in a Bag, and are produced at the assizes. When God shall open his black book wherein mens Names are written, and his bag wherein their sins are written: then their Hearts will tremble, and their knees smite one against another. Every Lye a sinner tells, every Oath he Swears, every drunken bout, God writes it down in his book of Remembrance; and woe to him if the book be not crossed with the Blood of Christ.

3. See the Mercifulness of God to his Children, who blots their fins out of his book of Remembrance, and writes their good deeds in his book of Remembrance, Isa. 43. 25. I, even I amhe that blotteth out thy Transgressions: 'tis a Metaphor borrow'd from a Creditor, who takes his pen and blots out the debt owing him; so faith God, I will blot out thy Transgressions. Or as the Hebrew carries it, I am blotting them out*.

God in forgiving fin passeth an act of Oblivion, Jer. 31. 34. I will remember your sins no more. God will not upbraid his People with their former offences. We never read after Peter repented, that Christ upbraided him with his denial

LIMI

ni

Pe

bu

go

ful

let

our

an

hin

ma

his ful.

bra

tha

el.

of

is I

hol

ftra

dro

tim

ftor

we

nial of him. O the Heavenly indulgence and kindness of God to his People! he remembers every thing but their fins. He writes down their good Thoughts and speeches in a Merciful book of Remembrance; but their fins are as if they had never been, they are carried into the Land of Oblivion.

If God records our fervices, then 2 Use. let us record his Mercies, let us have Exhortatiour Book of Remembrance. A Christian should keep two books alwayes by him; one to write his fins in, that he may be humble; the other to write his Mercies in, that he may be thankful. David had his book of Remembrance, I Chron. 16. 4. He appointed certain of the Levites to record, and thank, and praise the Lord God of Israel. We should keep a Register-book of Gods Mercies, though I think it is hard to get a book big enough to hold them. At fuch a time we were in ftraits, and God supplied us; at such a time under fadness of Spirit, and God dropped in the Oyl of gladness, at such a time near death, and GodMiraculoufly restored us. If God be mindful of what we do for him, shall not we be mindful of what

ed

en

nes

ein

rts iite

ner

ery.

wn

voe

Ted

out

ites

em-

blothor

s his

im;

thy

rew

act

nem-

up-

r ofpent-

is denial

what he doth for us? Gods mercies, like Jewels, are too good to be loft: get a Book of Remembrance.

3 Use.

It is Comfort to the Godly. 1. In Comfort, case of friends forgetting them. Joseph did Pharaob's Butler a kindness, yet did not the chief Butler remember Joseph; but forgat him. Gen. 40. 23. 'Tis too usual to remember Injuries, and forget Friends; but God hath a Book of Remembrance, where he writes down all his old friends. Near Relations may fometimes be forgetful: the tender Mother may forget her infant, Ifa. 49. 15. Can a Woman forget her sucking child? yea she may, but I will not forget thee: a Mother may sooner be unnatural than God forgetful. Christ our High-priest hath the Names of the Saints written upon his Breast-plate, and all their good deeds written in his Book of Memorials. Let this be as Bezar stone to revive the Hearts of Gods people; though friends may blot you out of their Mind, yet God will not blot you out of his Book.

2. This is a consolation to the Godly, the Lord keeps a Book of Remembrance for this end, that he may at the

·f

the last day make a publick and folemn mention of all the good which his Saints have done. God will open his Book of Records, and fay as, Mat. 25. 35. I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat; thirsty, and ye gave me drink, &c. God will make known all the memorable and pious actions of his People before men and Angels: he will fay, here are they who have prayed, and wept for Sin; here are they who have been Advocates for my Truth; here are they who have laid to Heart my dishonours, and have mourned for what they could not re-These are my renowned ones, my Hephzibahs in whom my Soul delights. What a Glorious thing will this be, to have God divulge the Encomium of his Saints! when Alexander saw the Sepulcher of Achilles, he cryed out O happy Achilles who hadst Homer to fet forth thy praise! what an honour will it be to have the Names and worthy deeds of the Saints mentioned, and God himself to be the Herauld to proclaim their praises! *2Cor.4.5

L 4 CHAP.

ike

get

In

eph

did

h;

too

get

le-

wn

ay

10-

19.

ng

08-

n-

ist

of

e, iis

ar

ds

u

t

t

CHAP. XVI.

Shewing the Third Good Effect of the Saints Piety.

3. THE third Good effect of the Saints Piety, was, God rewarded it, verf. 17. And they shall be mine, faith the Lord of Hosts, in that day when I make up my Jewels. The reward is threefold. 1. Gods owning them; they shall be mine, faith the Lord of Hosts: where observe.

1. The Person speaking, the Lord of Hosts.

2. The Reward it felf, they shall be mine.

of Hosts. This is too great a word to be passed by in silence. God is often in Scripture stiled, Dominus exercituum, the Lord of Hosts, Psalm 46. 11. Isa. 1. 24. That is, he is the Supream General, and Commander of all Armies and forces, and gives Victory to whom he will.

Why

. ....

Ho

pro

def

Goo figl

taii

but

but

hast W

and

Po

Reg

Go

yet

Ag

paf

of "

ven

22.

Thi

Answ.

Why is this Name, The Lord of I Quest.

Hosts given to God?

Not that God needs any Hosts to Answer protect himself, or Suppress his enemies. Earthly Princes have Armies to defend their Persons from danger, but God needs none to help him: he can fight without an army. God puts strength into all Armies; other Captains may give their Soldiers Armour, but they cannot give them Strength: but God doth, Psalm 18. 39. Thou hast Girded me with strength unto battel. Why then is God said to have Hosts and Armies if he needs them not.

1. It is to fet forth his Soveraign Anfa. Power, and Grandure: all Armies and Regiments are under his command.

2. It is to shew us that though 2 Quest. God can effect all things by himself; yet in his Wisdom he oft useth the Agency of the Creature to bring to pass his will and purpose.

What are these Hosts or Armies 1. Quest.

of which God is the Soveraign Lord?

1. God hath an Army in Heaven, Angels and Arch-angels, 1 King 22. 19. I faw the Lord sitting on his Throne, and all the Host of Heaven stand-standing by him. By the Host of Heaven is meant the Angels; they being Spirits are a Puissant Army, Psalm 103. 20. Te Angels which excell in Strength. We read of one Angel who destroy'd in one Night an hundred fourscore and five thousand, 2 King 19. 35. If one Angel destroy'd such a vast Army, what can a Legion of Angels do? a Legion consisted of six thoufand fix hundred fixty fix, faith Hefychius: how many of these Legions go *Dan.7.10 to make up the Heavenly Hoft!*

2: The Stars are Gods Army, Deut. 4. 19. These were set in Battalia and fought against Gods enemies, Judg. 5. 20. The Stars in their courses fought against Sisera. That is, the Stars did charge like an Army, raising Storms and tempelts by their influences, and fo destroying the whole Army of Sisera. 2. God hath Armies upon earth.

- 1. Rational.
- 2. Irrational.

I. Rational, Hosts of men: are under Gods command and conduct.

d

al

ft

le

m

P

W

W

P

W

is ple

Da

as

So

Ep

Sp

con rai

ten

thi car

and

tio

duct, they stir not without his Warrant: the Lord hath the managing of all Martial affairs: not a stroke is struck, but God orders it: not a Bullet flies but God directs it.

2. Irrational, God can raise an Army of Flies, as he did against King Pharaoh, Exod. 8. 24. An Army of Worms, as he did against King Herod, Acts 12. 23. O what a Lord is here who hath fo many Hofts under his Pay and conduct!

Let us Dread this Lord of Hosts: 3 V/e. we fear men who are in Power, and on. is not that God to be adored and feared 1 Branch. who acts pro arbitrio. He doth what he pleaseth in the Armies of Heaven and earth, Dan. 9. 35. His Power is as large as his will, Job 23 13. What his Soul desireth, even that he doth. The Ephori had Power over the King of Sparta; the Tribunes over the Roman confuls; much more hath God a Soveraign Power over all. He poureth contempt upon Princes, Job 12. 21. He threw the Proud Angels to Hell. God can with a word unpin the Wheeles and break the Axle tree of the Creation. Gods Power is a Glorious Power,

Iea-

eing

alm

in

who dred

vaft

gels

ou-

lefy-

go

eut. and

udo.

ight

did

rms

and

of pon

eſe

on-

a,

er, Col. 1. 11. And herein it appears Glorious, it is never spent or wasted. Men while they exercise their strength, weaken it. But, the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is meary, Ifa. 40. 28. Though God spends his Arrows upon his enemies, Deut. 32. 23. yet not his Arenoth. O then tremble before this Lord of Mosts, Remember (O hardhearted finner!) how many wayes God can be revenged on thee. He can raise an Army of diseases against thee in thy body: he can fet the humours of the body one against another, he can make the heat dry up the Moisture, or the Moisture drown the heat; he can Arm every Creature against thee, the Dog, the Boar, the Elephant. He can Arm Conscience against thee, as he did against Spira making him a Terrour to himself: O dread this Lord of Hosts.

2 Branch.

If God be the Lord of Hosts, let us take heed of hardning our Hearts against God. It was the saying of Pompey that with one stamp of his Foot he could raise all Italy up in Arms *. God can with a word Plat.

raife

rai

Ea

aff

ed

Su

G

H

ag

th

L

th

er

0

0

1 raife all the Militia of Heaven and Earth against us: and shall we dare affront him? Job 9. 4. Who hath hardened himself against him, and prospered? Such as live in the open, breach of Gods Commandments harden their Hearts against God; they raise a War against Heaven, Job 15. 25. He strengtheneth himself against the Almighty*. † Indura-Like Warriors, who Muster up all the spentans the forces they can, to fight with their fe vincere, Antagonists: so the sinner harnesseth, Mercer. and strengthens himself against Jeho. vah, Ver. 26. He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick boffes of his bucklers. Bucklers anciently had one great boss in the middle with a sharp pike in it to wound the adverfary. The flagitious finner encounters the God of Heaven, and runs upon the thick boffes of his fury, which will wound mortally. The Wicked do as Caligula, who challenged Jupiter to a duel: but who ever hardened himself against God and prospered? will men go to measure Arms with God? Job 40. 9. Hast thou an Arm like God? God is Almighty, therefore can hurt his enemies; and he is invisible

rs

d.

h,

4-th

8.

on

ot

is

des

le ft

u-

r,

ne

ne

re

ne

i-

ft

7-

is cs

of

S

d concutiens

jubam, Ju-

ven.

visible, therefore they cannot hurt him. Who can fight with a Spirit? God will be too hard for his Enemies at the long run*, Pfalm 68. 21. God *Qualis per shall wound the head of his Enemies, fulvam mi- and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth juaci fronte on still in his trespasses. Julian hardened his Heart against God, but what got he at last? did he prosper? Being wounded in Battle he threw up his blood into the Air, and faid to Christ, Vicisti Galilae: U Galilean thou . hast overcome, I acknowledge thy Power whose Name and truth I have opposed. How eafily can God chaftise Rebels? Exod. 14. 24. In the morning-watch God looked to the host of the Egyptians through the Pillar of fire, and troubled their host. It needs cost God no more to destroy his Proudest adversaries, than a look, a cast of the Eye. 'Tis better to lye Prostrate at Gods feet, and meet him with tears in our Eyes, than

3 Branch.

Repentance.

If God be the Lord of Hosts, let us be so wife as to engage him on our fide, Pfalm 46 11. The Lord of Hosts Weapons in our hands: we overcome God, not by refiftance, but by

25 n

the

Lo

dif Th

top

the

tor

Car

the

an ha

ma

be

no

up

245 fid

lay

th th

Pa

(1

901 bei

or

bu B is with us. Great is the Priviledge to have the Lord of Hofts for us. 1. If the Lord of Hofts be on our fide, he can discover the subtil plots of Enemies. Thus he detected the Counsel of Achitophel, 2 Sam. 17. 16. And did not the Lord discover the Popish conspirators both in the Powder-Treason (that Catholick villary) and of late, when they would have subverted Religion and Laws, and like Italian Butchers have turned England into an Akeldama or Field of blood? If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, now may England fay, when men rose up against us, they had swallowed us up quick.

2. If the Lord of Hosts be on our side, he can bridle his Enemies, and lay such a restraint upon their Spirits, that they shall not do the mischies they intend, Gen. 31. 39. It is in the Power of my hand to do you hurt (said Laban to Jacob) but the God of your fathers spake unto me saying, take heed thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. Laban had power to do hurt, but no heart. When Balak called upon Balaam to curse Israel, God so dispirited

m.

od at

od

es,

th

not

ıg

t, est

(e

W

4.

ed be

It

o

n

rited Balaam that he could not discharge his thunderbolt, Num. 23. 8. How shall I curse whom God hath not cursed? He had a good mind to curse, but God held him back.

3. If the Lord of Hosts be for us, he can help us, though means fail, and things seem to be given for lost. When Gideons Army was small, and rendred despicable, then God Crowned them with Victory, Judg. 7. 2, 22. When the Arm of Flesh shrinks, now is a time for the Arm of Omnipotency to be put forth, Deut. 32. 36. The Lord shall repent himself for his Servants when he sees their Power is gone, and there is none shut up or left. The less of man is seen, the more of God.

4. If the Lord be on our fide he can fave us in that very way in which we think he will deftroy us. Would not any have thought the Whales belly should have been Jonahs Grave? but God made the fish a ship, in which he failed fafe to shore. Paul got to Land by the breaking of the ship, Acts, 28. 44. God can make the adverse Party do his Work; he can cause the Eg

cai

flice Exther Chargor

Per the dov did the 6 fide

the feth and tain ove ble dife of do cause divisions among the Enemies, and turn their own Weapons against themselves*, Isa. 19. 2. I will set the *2Chron. 20. 23. Egyptians against the Egyptians.

Judg. 7.

5. If the Lord of Hosts be on our 22. fide, he can make the Churches affliction a means of her Augmentation, Exod. 1. 12. The more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied. The Church of God is like that Plant Gregory Nazianzen speaks of, which lives by dying, and grows by cutting *. + sarafai

Perfecution propagates the Church: (1) 7 1/4/1 the scattering of the Apostles up and quilate down, was like scattering of feed, it did tend much to the spreading of the Gospel, Acts 8. 1. 4.

6. If the Lord of Hofts be on our fide, he can alter the fcene and turn the ballance of affairs when he pleafeth, Dan. 1. 21. He changeth times and feafons. God can remove Mountains which lye in the way, or leap over them. His Power is uncontrollable: he can bring Harmony out of discord. He who brought Isaac out of a dead Womb, and the Messiah out of a Virgins Womb, what cannot he do? The Lord of Hofts can in an in-M fant

dif-

8.

not rfe,

us,

ail,

oft.

ind

vn-

ks,

m-

32. for wer

eft.

of

he

ich

uld

el-

ve?

ich

to ip,

ad-

an

uſe

ftant alter the face of things. There are no Impossibles with God: if means fail he can Create. 'Tis therefore high prudence to get this Lord of Hosts on our side. Rom. 8. 31. If God be for us, who can be against us? And if we would engage God to be on our side,

1. Let us be earnest fuitors to him, exercise Eyes of Faith, and Knees of prayer. Jer. 14. 9. And in prayer let us use Joshua's argument, Josh. 7. 9. What wilt thou do unto thy great name? Lord, if the cause of Religion lose ground, how will thy name suffer! Popish Enemies never prevail, but

2. Let us put away iniquity out of they Blaspheme.

our Tabernacles, Job 11. 14. Sin is not worth keeping: who would keep a Plague-sore? Let us discard and ab*Jer.7.3. jure our fins*; And then the Lord of Hosts will be on our side, and as a Pledge of his savourable presence, he will entail the Gospel, that Crowning blessing, upon us and our posterity. So much for the Person speaking; the Lord of Hosts.

CHAP.

Th

2.

fence Cove Cove

be i whe ente ham bein best

God the proc with Cove

a bet

CHAP. XVII.

The first Part of the Saints reward, Gods owning them.

2. I Come now to the reward it felf, the first part whereof is Gods owning them, they shall be mine.

Expositors here vary: I take the sence of it to be, they shall be mine in Covenant, Ezek. 16. 8. I entred into Covenant with thee, and thou becamest mine*. This is no small savour to *161.43.1. be in Covenant with God: therefore when God told Abraham that he would enter into Covenant with him, Abraham sell on his sace; Gen. 17. 2. as being amazed that the great God should bestow such a signal savour upon him. God never entred into Covenant with the Angels when they fell, but he proclaims himself God in Covenant with Believers, they shall be mine. This Covenant enriched with Free-grace, is a better Covenant than that which was

M 2 made

ans igh

be d if

our

im,

let 9.

ne?

lofe

er!

but

of

is eep

ab-

ord

as

he

ing

ity.

the

P

made with Adam in Innocency. For

r. The least failing would have made the first Covenant null and void: but many failings do not invalidate the Covenant of Grace. I grant the least sin makes a trespass upon the Covenant; but doth not rescind it. Every failing in the Conjugal Relation breaks not the Marriage bond.

2. The first Covenant being violated, allowed the sinner no remedy; all doors of hope were shut: but the new Covenant allows of a Remedy: it provides a surety, Heb. 12. 24. Jesus the Mediator of the new Covenant.

1 Use.

See the amazing goodness of God to his People, to enter into Covenant with them, and say, Te are mine, 2 Sam. 23. 5. He hath made with me an Everlasting Covenant, ordered in all things and sure. The first Covenant stood upon the ticklish Foundation of Works. Adam had no sooner a stock of Original Righteousness to Trade with, but he broke: but this Covenant of Grace is confirmed with Gods Decree, and rests upon two mighty Pillars, the Oath of God, and the Blood of God. That ye may see how great

a

th

ou

ar

fa ha

nı

m

re

K

th

fh

no

m

W

is

th

go

th

G

a priviledge this is to be owned by the Lord federally, that he should be our God, and we his people, confider.

ade

na-Co-

fin

nt;

ing

not

ola-

dy;

the

: it efus

God

ant

ine,

e an

all

nant

n of

tock

rade

ove-

Gods

ghty Blood

reat

1. If we are in Covenant with God and he faith to us Te are mine, then all that is in God is ours. A person falling to decay marrying to a King, hath an interest in all the Crown-revenues: God having entred into a near Relation with us, and faying ye are mine, we have a share in his Rich revenues. The Lord faith to every Believer as the King of Ifrael faid to the King of Syria, I Kin. 20. 4. I am thine and all that I have: My Wisdom shall be thine to teach thee, my Holiness shall be thine to Sanctifie thee, my Mercy shall be thine to fave thee. What richer dowry than Deity? God is a whole Ocean of bleffedness. If there is enough in him to fill the Angels, then fure he hath enough to fill us.

2. If God faith to us ye are mine, then he will have a tender care of us. I Pet. 5. 7. He careth for you *. * Reselt God to shew his tender anxiousness to-na timoris wards Israel, bare them as upon Eagles amor. wings, wings, Exod. 19. 4. The Eagle carries her young ones upon her wing to defend them; the Arrow must first shoot through the Old Eagle, before it can touch her Young ones. A Mothers care is feen in leading the Child that it may not fall: fuch is Gods care. Hof. 11. 3. I taught Ephraim to go, leading them by their Arms. We may argue a minori ad majus, if God take care of the meanest Insects and Animals that creep upon the earth, much more will he take care of his Covenant-Saints. He is still consulting and projecting for their good; if they wander out of the way, he guides them; if they stumble, he holds them by the hand; if they fall, he raiseth them; if they be dull, he quickens them by his Spirit; if they be froward, he draws them with cords of Love; if they be fad, he · Comforts them with his promifes.

M 3

3. If God faith to us, ye are mine, then he will intirely love us, Jer. 31.3. I have loved thee with an Everlasting love. The Lord may give a man riches and not love him: his prosperity may be as Israels Quails sawced with Gods wrath. Num.

11. 32.

are

one

lov

Pe

Sp

the

the

Be

ly,

he

3.

no

fie

ply

gr

the 25 ter

th

TI

ha

th

ar

0

are mine, he cannot but love; every one loves his own. If God hath any love better than other, his Covenant-People shall have it; he will distil the Spirits of his love for them, he loves them as he loves Christ, John 17. 24.

4. If God faith to us ye are mine, then he will not fuffer us to want. Believers are not only of Gods family, but of Christs body; and will the head let the body starve? Pfalm 37. 3. Verily thou (balt be fed. God hath not promised dainties; he will not fatisfie his Peoples lufts, but he will fupply their wants; if the Bill of Fare grows low, what they lack in chear, they shall have in bleffing, Exod. 23. 25. He will blefs thy bread and thy water. God will rather work a miracle, than any of his Children shall famish. The Raven that is fo unnatural she will hardly feed her young, yet did turn Caterer and brought food to the Prophet Elijah.

5. If God faith to us, ye are mine, then we have great immunites: 1. We are freed from the revenging wrath of God. We are not free from Gods M 4

rries

de-

100t

can ners

t it

Tof.

ling

gue

are

hat

will

its.

ing

out

ley

id;

ney

pi-

em

ıd,

nine,

ie.

ot

els

n.

2.

anger as a Father, but as a Judge. God will not pour his vindictive Justice upon us. Christ hath drunk the Red wine of Gods wrath upon the Cross, that Believers may not tast a drop of it.

2. We are freed from the Predominancy of fin, Rom. 6. 14. Sin Shall not bave dominion, or as the word is & xuetevores, it shall not Lord it over you. Though Believers are not freed from the In-being of fin, nor from the Combate with it, yet they are freed from its Imperious command. As it is faid of those beafts in Daniel, they had their Dominion taken away, yet their Lives were prolonged for a season, Dan. 7. 12. So fin Lives in the Regenerate, but its Dominion is taken away. And to be thus freed from the jurisdictive power and tyranny of fin is no fmall bleffing. A Wicked man is at the command of fin, as the Aile is at the command of the driver: the curse of Cham is upon him, Gen. 9. 25. A Servant of Servants (ball he be. He is a flave to his Lufts, and a flave to Satan. O what a priviledge is it to have ones neck out of the Devils Yoak!

3. We

on

fci

H

ar

he

it

M ar

ha

fo

ha

G

ar

ni

hi

o

n

3. We are freed from the accusations of Conscience. The worm of Conscience is part of the Torment of Hell*. But God being our God we † Tandem are freed from the Clamors of this flagitia in hellish Fury: Conscience sprinkled with Vertuntur, Christs blood speaks Peace; a good Tacitus. Conscience like the Bee gives Hony; it is like the Golden pot which had Manna in it, 2 Cor. 1. 12.

6. If God faith to us ye are mine, we shall be his for ever, Pfalm 48. 14. This God is our God for ever and ever. You cannot fay you have health and you shall have it for ever, you have a Child and you shall have it for ever; but if God be your God, you shall have him for ever. The Covenant of Grace is Sacrum diploma, a Royal Charter, and this is the Happiness of it, it is eternized f. The interest between God and + Justificahis people shall never be broken off; tionunquam refeinditur. How falle therefore is the Opinion of falling from Grace! Shall any that God makes his own by Federal union, Fall finally? Indeed if Salvation hath no better Pillar to rest upon than mans will (as the Arminians hold) no wonder if there be falling away;

od

ice

ed

ls,

t.

ni-

not xu-

ou.

m

m-

m iid

ad

eir

an.

te,

to ve

all

n-

he

of

A

a

to

to ils

7e

but a Christians stability in Grace, is built upon a surer basis, namely, Gods inviolable Covenant, Isa. 55.3.* Once in Christ and ever in Christ. A Star may sooner fall out of its orb than a true Believer be pluck'd away from God *.

† Aliud est recedere, aliud excidere a gratia, Aug.

7. If God faith to us ye are mine, he will take us up to himself at death. Death breaks the union between the Body and the Soul, but perfects the union between God and the Soul. This is the Emphasis of Heavens Glory, to be with God. What is the Joy of the bleffed, but to have a clear transparent fight of God, and to be in the fweet and foft embraces of his love for ever? This hath made the Saints defire death, as the Bride the wedding day, Phil. 1. 23. Lead me, Lord, to that glory (faid an Holy man) a glimple whereof I have feen as in a glass darkly.

2 Use.

Let this be a Confolatory to the Saints; there is a Covenant-union between God and them, God is theirs and they are his, they shall be mine faith the Lord. Here is a standing cordial for the Godly, God looks upon them as having a propriety in them, 21

0

n

fo

h

F

ir

fo

11

v

fe

they shall be mine. This is Comfort 1. In respect of Satans acculations: he accuseth the Saints first to God. then to themselves; but if God faith ye are mine, this answers all Satans Bills of Indictment. Christ will shew the debt-book croffed in his blood. It was a faying of Bucer, I am Christs, and the Devil hath nothing to do with me.

2. It is Comfort in respect of. Poverty? Believers are match'd into the Crown of Heaven, and all that is in God is theirs. The Philosopher comforted himself with this, that though he had no Musick or Vine-trees, yet he had the houshold Gods with him*: *'Ersaz's So though we have not the Vine or one. Fig-tree, yet if God be ours and we are his, this Creates joy in the most indigent condition.

And that which may raise the comfort of the godly higher, and cause a jubilation of Spirit is, that shortly God will own his people before all the world, and fay, thefe are mine. At preient the elect are not known, 1 John 3. 2. It doth not yet appear what we shall be. The Saints are like Kings in difguife;

but

is

ods

ice

tar ue

ne,

at

en

efs

ul.

lo-

oy

ear

be

his

nts ng

to

a

a

he

e-

irs

ne

r-

n

n, ey

Anfw.

but how will their hearts leap for joy, when God shall pronounce that word, these are mine; These the lot of Freegrace is fallen upon, these shall lye for ever in the Bosom of my love.

To all who are yet strangers to God: Labour to get into Covenant with him that he may say, ye are mine. Why doth God woo and beseech you by his Ambassadours, if he were not willing to be in Covenant?

Quest. What shall a poor forlorn Creature do, to get into Covenant with God?

1. If you would be in Covenant with God, break off the Covenant with fin, 1 Sam. 7.3. What King will be in league with him that holds correspondence with his Enemy?

2. Labour for Faith; 1. Faith in the Mercy of God, Jer. 3. 12. I am merciful, faith the Lord, and will not keep anger for ever. As the Sea covers great Rocks as well as little Sands; fo Gods Mercy covers great fins: Manasseh a bloody sinner was held forth as a pattern of Mercy. Some of the Jews who had an hand in Crucifying of Christ, yet their sins were forgiven.

2. Faith in the merit of Christ.

t

Christs blood is not only suria but iraquès:
not only a Sacrifice to appease God, but a Propitiation to ingratiate us in-† 1 John to Gods favour, and make him look 2. 2. upon us with a smiling aspect.

CHAP. XVIII.

The Second part of the Saints Reward, Gods Honouring them.

2. THE Second part of the Saints reward is Gods Honouring them, in that day when I make up my fewels: Here are three Propositions;

 That God hath a great honour for his People.

2. That Gods People are his Jewels.

3. That there is a day when God will make up his Jewels.

1st. That God hath a great honour for his People. He speaks of them here with Honour, in that day when I make

y,

rd,

for im hy his

ing

ure

ant

ant vill

or-

. in am keep eat

ods

b a oat-

vho

ift.

ifts

np my Jewels, Isai. 43. 4. Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable: Honour attends Holiness. That the Lord doth highly honour the fearers of him, is evident by four demonstrations.

1. In that he prefers them before others. He chooseth them, and passeth by the rest, Mal. 1. 2. Was not Jacob Esaus brother? (saith the Lord,) yet I hated Esan and loved Jacob.

2. In that God gives them frequent Visits. Tis counted an Honour for a Subject to have his Prince Visit him.

I John 3. 3. Our recovera or Communion is with the Father and his Son Jesus. The Rabbins say, Moses had an Hundred and sifty conferences with God, and died with a Kiss from Gods mouth. What greater Honour for a Person, than to have God keep him Company? Exod. 33. 11.

3. In that God makes them Rich heirs; Rom. 8. 17. Gryndmeorduos, joynt heirs with Christ. For a man to adopt another and make him heir to his estate, is no small honour done to him. The Youngest Believer is an heir, yea, and an Heir of the Crown, 1 Pet.

in

A

R

be

Se

H

Sp

wh

th

To.

th

Joi

let

25 ex

in ric

at

in

Te

br

at

th

i Pet. 5. 4. This Crown he hath in promisso, in the Promise, Rev. 2. 10. And in primities, in the first-fruits, Rom. 8. 23.

4. In that God sends his Angels to be their Servitors. Such as are Gods Servants have Angels to be theirs: Heb. 1. 14. Are they not all ministring Spirits sent forth to Minister for them who shall be heirs of Salvation?

Who would not be fearers of God? 1 Use. this makes God have an honourable efteem of them; all men (saith Chry-sostome) are ambitious of Honour * *The state the true Honour comes from God, Ensaire hausen of John 5. 44.

If God doth fo Honour his People, <sup>2</sup> Use. let them Honour him; Mal. 1.6. Where is my Honour? let the Saints be God-exalters, let them lift up his Name in the World, and make his praise glorious, Psalm 66. 2. But I only glance at this.

2ly. That Gods People are his Jewels, in that day when I make up my Jewels. Jewels are precious things; the Hebrew word for Jewels atreasure. A treasure is made up of costly things: Gold and Pearl, and Rubies: such

04 èn

ſs.

he

e_

re

y

45

ed

nt

1.

n

5.

1-

١,

1, fuch a precious Treasure are the Saints to God.

Quest. In what sence are the Godly Jew-

Answ.

1. They are Jewels for their sparkling quality †. Their Holiness shines and † Splendo- sparkles in Gods eyes, Cant. 4. 9.
Thou hast ravished my Heart with one of thine eyes, that is, one of thy Graces.

2. The Godly are Jewels for their transact. Scarcity †. Pearls are not common; fo the Godly are scarce and Rare: there are but few of these to be found: there are many false Professors (as there are Bastard Diamonds) but sew Israelites indeed; Mat. 20. 16. Few are Chosen. Among the Millions in Rome, there were but sew Senators: among the swarms of People in the World, but sew Believers.

3. The Godly are Jewels for their Price*. Queen Cleopatra had two Jewels that contained half the price of a Kingdom. Thus the Saints are Jewels for their Value: God esteems them at an high rate, he parted with his best Jewel for them; Christs precious blood was shed to ransom these Jewels.

4. The * Pretio.

I

th

or

Sa

by

ar

in

is,

a (

fig

Th

As

Ho

bec

fple

nur

are fear

tatio

wit

raife

preci

Beli

4. The Saints are Jewels, for their adorning quality f. Jewels adorn them + orna that wear them: the Saints are mento. Jewels that adorn the World. Their Piety mixed with Prudence honours the Gospel. Hypocrites Eclipse Religion and make it evilly spoken of: the Saints as Jewels render it illustrious by their Sanctity.

1. See the worth of the Godly, they 1 Use. are Jewels; they are a Royal diddem Inform. in the hand of God, Isa. 62. 3. That is, they are eminent above others, as a Crown hung with Jewels is an enfign of the highest state and Honour. The Saints are Gods Glory, Isa. 46. 13.

As if Gods Glory did lye in them.

2. See then that which may bring 2 Branch. Holiness into repute, and make us become Proselytes to it. It casts a splendour upon us, and makes God number us among his Jewels. Some are loath to embrace Godliness for fear it will be a stain to their Reputation, and bring them out of savour with great men: you see how it doth raise a persons renown, it makes him precious in Gods sight, he is a Jewel. Believers in regard of their mystical

d

æ

y

ir

as

w

re

e, ir

N-

2 els .

at

ft

bc

he

union with Christ, have a preciousness above the Angels: the Angels are Morning Stars, Job 38. 7. Believers are clothed with the Sun of Righteouf-ness, Rev. 12. 1.

a Branch.

See the different Opinion that God hath of the Godly and the Wicked: the one he efteems precious, the other vile, Nahum I. 14. I will make thy Grave, for thou art Vile: this is spoken of King Senacherib: though he was by Birth Noble, yet he was by fin Vile. The Hebrew word for Vile*, fignifies, of base esteem. Though the Wicked arc high in dignity and worldly grandure, yet God flights them. A dunghil may be higher than other ground, but it fends forth noisom Vapours: Psalm 14. 3. They are altogether become filthy. In the Original it is, they are become flinking *. The Wicked are compared to Dogs and Swine, 2 Pet. 2. 22. to drofs, Ezek. 22. 19. Drofs is the filth * Scoria eft of the Mettal *. Sinners are compar'd m tilli Sor- to Chaff, Pfal. 1. 4. When a Wicked des. man dies, there is only a little Chaff blown away. A finner is the most contemptible thing in nature; there is no worth in him while he lives,

and

an

fin

A

ha

ha

int

fille

Gh

fet

the

the

bea

for

are

the

Pfa

brea

he

Sain

Pov

it ly

girt

was

the

of I

Sain

leffer

3 and no loss of him when he dies. A finner is worse than a Toad or Serpent; A Toad hath nothing but what God hath put into it, but a Wicked man hath that which the Devil hath put into him: Act 5. 3. Why hath Satan filled thy Heart to lye to the Holy-

Ghoft?

ouf-

gels

ers

ouf-

God

ed:

her

thy ken

by lle.

fies,

arc

ure,

nay it

alm

thy.

ome

red

to ar'd

ked

haff

nost

iere

ves.

and

See what an high estimate we should 4 Branch. fet upon the Godly, they are Jewels, they are the Glory of the Creation: they are compared to Stars for their beauty, Rev. 1. 20. to Spice Trees for their perfume, Cant. 4. 14. They are the Chariots and Horsmen of Israel, 2 King 2. they are the excellent of the Earth, Pfalm 16. 3. The Lord would foon break up house in the World, burthat he hath some Jewels in it. Prize the Saints though they are humbled with Poverty: we esteem of a Pearl though it lye in the dust: John Baptist was girt with a Leathern Girdle; yet he was a Jewel, Mat. 11. 9. He was the Morning Star, to usher in the Sun of Righteoulnels into the World. The Saints are precious, for they are Gods lesser Heaven, Ila. 57. 15.

9. See the Saints Safety: they are 5 Branch. Gods N 2

Gods Jewels, and he will have a care to preserve them. A man is careful that he doth not lose his Jewels. God often gives his people a temporal Salvation: if a ftorm comes he knows how to hide his Jewels. He hid an hundred Prophets in a Cave, 1 Kin. 18. 4. The Angel is commanded before he poured his Vial of curses on the earth, to feal the Saints of God on their fore-heads, Rev. 7. 3. Which was signum salutare a mark of safety: however God will look to the Spiritual safety of his Jewels, Joh. 17. 12. Not one of them is lost.

6 Branch.

If the Saints are Gods Jewels, then how incensed and enraged will God be against those who shall abuse these Jewels? Theodosius counted them Traitors who abused his Statue: what will become of them who persecute Gods Saints, and tread upon his Jewels? It goes near to God to see his Jewels sprinkled with blood: what is done to them the Lord takes it as done to himself, Act. 9. 4. Why persecutest thou me? When the foot was trod on, the head cryed out. The Saints are Gods Royal *162.623 diadem*. Will a King endure to have

his

al

 $H_{\epsilon}$

W

We

the 18

Pe

all

ora

tor

13 wh

tha

flel

upo

(ur

To

M

Go

of

els

tra

lov

be

W

his Robes spit upon, or his Crown-royal thrown in the dust? Pfalm 105. 14. He reproved Kings for their Sakes. What Monuments of Gods Vengeance were Nero, Dioclesian, Gardner, and the rest of that perfecuting tribe? Luke 18. 7. Shall not God avenge his own elect? I tell you he will avenge them speedily. Perfecutors stand in the place where all Gods Arrows fly, Pfalm 7. 13. He ordaineth his Arrows against the Persecutors. That is a killing Scripture, Zach. 13. 12. And this Shall be the Plaque wherewith God will smite all the People, that have fought against Jerusalem, their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall con-Sume away in their holes, and their Tongues shall consume away in their Mouth.

Here is Comfort to the people of 2 Use. God, in case of the Worlds disesteem Consolation of them, yet God values them as Jewels; and his Judgment is according to truth, Rom. 2. 2. The Wicked have low Thoughts of the Righteous, they beat down the price of these Jewels what they can, they think them the

13

re-

are

eful

rels.

poral

ows

an

Kin.

be-

on d on

was low-

itual

Not

then

God

these

Trai-

will

Gods s? It

ewels

ne to u me?

head

Royal

have

his refuse and scurfe, they disdain them, load them with flanders and Invectives: the Prophet Elijah was looked upon by King Ahab as the Troubler of Ifrael, I Kin. 18. 17. And Luther was called a Trumpet of Rebellion; St. Paul was Judged a Pestilent fellow, Acts 24. 5. The Wicked think of all things in the World the Saints may be best spared: I Cor. 4. 13. We are made is mei-Inua as the filth and off-scowring of all things: but this is Vinum in pectore, a great confolation to Believers, that as low effeem as the reprobate world hath of them, yet God hath high * Peculium Thoughts of them, he numbers them * Research among his Jewels*. They are com-Com, lap. pared for their preciousness to Gold and Silver, Rev. 1. 20. They are the Coyn and Medals that bear Gods own Image. They are Princes in all Lands. Pfalm 45. 16. Christ engraves their Names on his breaft, as the Names of the twelve Tribes were fet with

Precious Stones in Gold upon Aarons

Breast-plate. God will give whole Kingdoms to ransome his jewells, Isa. 43. 3.

The wicked think the Godly are not worthy to live in the world, Acts 22. 21.

21 W

He

els

the

Go

as

Ho

as W

0

Im

a fo

age Pa

ing

tha

W

Ce

pro the

wi

Lu

VOI

ran

21. and God thinks the World is not worthy of them, Heb. 11. 38. Hence it is God takes away his Jewels fo fast, and placeth them among the Cherubims.

To the People of God. Are you 3 Ufe. Gods Jewels? then I befeech you shine on. . as Jewels: walk aneigos accurately, and i Branch. Holily, Phil. 2. 15. Among whom ye (hine as lights in the World. Such as are Gods Jewels should let the World fee they have worth in them. O Christians, let your Lives be an Imitation of the Life of Christ. Such a Jewel was 'Mr. Bradford, Martyr, fo humble and Innocent in his carriage, that at his death, many of the. Papists could not refrain from Weeping. Are you Gods Jewels? do nothing that may Eclipse or Sully your lustre. When Profesfors are Proud, Envious, Cenforious, when they break their promifes, or Cheat their Creditors, these do not look like Saints: What will others fay? These are the Devils Lumber, not Gods Jewels. O I befeech you who profels to be of an higher rank than others, Honour that Wor-N 4 shy em,

ves:

pon

rael.

cal-

Acts

ngs

best

e de

Fall

ore.

hat

orld

igh

iem

om-

rold

the

wn

nds,

neir

nes

rith

rons

ng-

. 3.

not

22.

21

thy name by which you are called; shine as earthly Angels, I Pet. 2. 9. But ye are a Royal Priesthood, a peculiar People that ye should shew forth the Praises of him who hath called you. Alexander would have the Grecians known not only by their Garments, but their Vertues. Gods people should be known by the fparkling of their Graces: shall . there be no difference in behaviour between the Wicked and the Godly? between a clod of Earth and a Diamond? let it appear that you are Candidates for Heaven: you who are Gods People, the Lord expects some Singular thing from you, Mat. 5. 47. He looks that you should bring more Glory to him, and by your exemplary Piety make Profelytes to Religion.

2 Branch.

It exhorts the Godly to thankfulness. God hath taken you out of the rubbish of mankind, and made you Jewels, Psalm 13. 7. He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, that he may set him with Princes: let me allude, God hath raised you out of the dust of a natural Estate, and ennobled you, that he may set you with Angels those Princes above. O admire God, set the Crown fr

W

of

W

with u

t١

m

Crown of your praises upon the head of Free-grace. A Gratulatory thankful frame of Heart is pleasing to God: if Repentance be the Joy, Praise is the Musick of Heaven. Bless God who hath wrought such a change in you, and of lumps of Earth and sin hath made you Jewels.

The Third Proposition is, That there Thirdly is a time shortly coming when Gcd will make up his Jewels; in that day when I make up my Jewels: Here are two Questions.

ne

-09

les

der

ot

er-

vn

ur

y ?

ia-

ire

ne

7.

re

ry

ſs.

b-

N-

be

im

th

a-

he

nhe

'n

all .

1. What is meant by Gods making up his Jewels?

2. What is that day when God will make up his Jewels?

1. What is meant by Gods making up his Jewels? There is a difference between these two, Gods making of Jewels, and his making up of Jewels. Gods making of Jewels, is, when he works Grace, but what is Gods making up of Jewels?

Gods making up his Jewels im- Answ.

plyes two things.

r. Gods

1. Gods gathering his Saints together.

2. Gods perfecting his Saints.

1. Gods making up his Jewels implies his gathering his Saints together. The Godly in this life are like scattered Pearls, they lye distant one from another, and are dispersed into several Regions: but there is a day coming, when God will gather all his Saints together, as one puts all his Pearls together on a string. There must be such an aggregation or gathering together Gods scattered Saints, n. From the near Relation they have to all the Persons in the Trinity: 1. To God the Faterh; he hath chosen these Jewels and set them apart for himself, Psalm 4. 3. and will he lose any of his Elect? 2. They are related to Christ; he hath bought these Jewels with his blood, and will he lose his purchase? 3. They are related to the Holy Ghost; he hath sanctissed them. When they were a lump of sin, he made them Jewels; and when he hath bestowed cost on them, will he lose his cost? will he not firing these Pearls, and put them in his celestial Cabinet?

2. There must be a gathering together Gods scattered Saints, from the Prayer of Christ. It was Christs prayer to his Father, that he would make up his Jewels; that he would gather together his Pearls, that they might be with him in Heaven, John 17. 24. That they may be with me where I am. Christ thinks long, till all the Elect Jewels lye together in his bosom. He thinks not himself compleat, till all his Saints be with him.

Here is a Soveraign Comfort to Use. the People of God in two cases.

> 1. In case of Scattering. 2. In case of Dividing.

1. In case of Scattering. Gods people are scattered up and down in the World: and, which is worst, these Jewels lye among rubbish, they dwell among the Wicked, Pfalm 120. 5. Wo is me that I dwell in the Tents of Kedar. Kedar was Ishmaels Son. Woe is me (faith David) that I live with an Isbmael-brood. The Wicked are shill molest-

n-

er.

ıt-

m

al

g, its

0-ch

er

ey

11h

rt

ne re

ıt

11

h

a

molefting the Righteous: Gods Jewels lye scattered among the unclean; but here is the Comfort, that shortly God will gather his People from among the Wicked, he will make up his Jewels, and all the Pearls and precious stones shall be by themselves in Bliss.

2. It is Comfort in case of Dividing. Gods People here are divided; their love is so little it may almost lye upon a knives point: they oft look strange one upon another: these divisions are unseemly, and are flaws in Gods Diamonds. Discords among Christians, brings a reproach upon Religion, advanceth Satans Kingdom, hinders the growth of Grace. Divisions are fatal, and do presage Gods Judgments coming upon us.

Impius hac tam culta novalia miles habebit Barbarus, has segetes? Enquò discordia cives Perduxit miseros.——

But this is Comfort, God will shortly make up his Jewels: he will so gather his Saints together, that he will will unite them together, they shall be sunstander, all of one Heart, Act 2. 46. What an happy time will it be when the Saints shall be as so many Pearls upon one string, and shall accord together in a blessed Unity!

2. Gods making up his Jewels implies his perfecting his Saints. Then a thing is faid to be made up when it is perfected; you make up a Garment when you perfect it; you make up a Watch, when you put all the Wheels and Pins in perfect order: fo Gods making up his Jewels fignifies his perfecting them. The Godly in this Life are imperfect, they cast but a faint lustre of Holiness, they receive but the first-fruits of the Spirit, Rom. 8. 23. that is, a small measure of Grace: the first-fruits under the Law were but an handful to the whole Vintage. This may humble us to consider if we are Jewels, yet imperfect: our knowledge is checker'd with Ignorance, I Cor. 13. 5. Our love to God is feeble. Behold here Clouds in the Dian mond. This may take down our Topfail of Pride, to consider how incompleat we are: but when God shall make

y

p

es

ī.

a

re

a-ď-

ne

ıl,

1-

es

t-

le

11

Anfw.

make up his Jewels, and perfect his Saints, it will be a glorious time, and this brings me to the fecond Question.

2 Queft. What is that day when God will make up his Jewels?

1. God makes up his Jewels at the day of Death, then he makes the Saints Graces perfect.

2. He makes up His Jewels at the day of the Refurrection, then he makes the Saints Bodyes perfect.

1. God makes up His Jewels at the day of death, then he makes the Saints Graces perfect. Hence it is the Saints departed are called the Spirits of just men made perfect, Heb. 12. 23. Sin doth mix and incorporate with a Christian, he cannot write a Copy of Holiness without blotting. Grace, though it doth abate, yet not abolish Corruption: but at Death God makes up His Jewels; he perfects the Graces of his People. Will not that be a bleffed Time, never to have a Vain thought more? never to be within the fight of a temptation or the fear of a Relapse? This me thinks may make death defirable to the Godly; then the Lord will make

as W

G

fl

of

el

fh

th

th

be

TI

er

In

of fh:

of

1 for

po

be Gr up his Jewels, he will compleat the Graces of his Children; they shall be as holy as they desire to be, and as God would have them to be. How will Gods Diamonds sparkle when they shall be without slawes? In that day of death when God makes up His Jewels, the Saints

- 1. Light will be clear,
- 2. Love will be perfect.

1. Their Light will be clear. They shall be so divinely irradiated, that they shall know the τὰ βάθη, the deep things of God. They shall in this sence be ως άγγροω, as the Angels, Mat. 22. 30. Their Intellectuals shall be raised higher, and made more capacious than in Innocency. Through the Chrystal Glass of Christs Humane Nature the Saints shall have Glorious transparent sights of God: they shall know as they are known, I Cor. 13. 12. A riddle too mysterious for us Mortals, if not for Angels to expound.

2. In that day the Saints Love will be perfect: Love is the Queen of the Graces, it out-lives all the other Graces.

d

i-

11 ie

S

e

S

e

S

S

5

In this life our love to God is lukewarm, and fometimes Frozen; a Believer weeps that he can love God no more: but at the day of death when God makes up his Jewels, then the Saints love shall be Seraphical: the spark of Love shall be blown up into into a pure flame: the Saints shall love God secundum actum (as the Schoolmen speak ) as much as they are able: they shall love him superlatively, and indeficiently, they shall be made up of love. O bleffed day of death! when God shall make up his Jewels, the Saints Graces shall shine forth in their Meridian Splendour.

2. God makes up his Jewels at the day of the Resurrection, then he makes the Saints bodyes perfect: these like fparkling Diamonds shall shine in Glory. At the Refurrection God is faid to change the bodies of the Saints, Phil. 3. 21. How will he change them? not that they shall be other bodies than they were before: the substance of their bodies shall not be changed, but the qualities: as wooll when it is died into a Purple colour, is not altered in the fubstance, but quality,

and

ai

in u

at

fe

Be

te

ble

bu

ne

be

Ph

ma

par

be

the

hav

ftor

an

fuc

hav

els

and is made more illustrious; so God in making up his Jewels will cause a greater resplendency in the Saints bodies than before. When God makes up the Jewels of the Saints Bodies at the Resurrection, they shall be perfect four wayes.

1. In Amability or sweetness of Beauty. Here the Bodies of the Righteous are oft desormed; Leah hath her blear Eyes, and Barzillai his lameness; but at the Resurrection the bodies of the Saints shall be of unspotted sairness: and no wonder, for they shall be made like Christs Glorious body, Phil. 3. 21.

2. When God at the Refurrection makes up the Jewels of the Saints bodies, they shall have Perfection of parts. Their bodies in this World may be maimed and disinembred; but in the day of the Resurrection they shall have all the parts of their bodies restored, Acts 3. 21. Such as have lost an Eye, shall have their Eye again; such as want a Leg or an Arm, shall have their Arm again.

3. When God makes up the Jewels of the Saints bodies at the Refurection,

e

of

S

e

e

) /

0

1.

es

1,

rection, they shall be Velocious and quick in their Motion. Here the Bodies of the Saints move heavily: but then they shall be sprightly, and move fwiftly from one place to another. Here the body is a Weight; in Heaven it shall be a Wing.

4. When God makes up the Jewels of the Saints bodies, they shall be Immortal: the Body once Glorified shall never be Subject to death, I Cor. 15. 53. This corruptible shall put on Incorruption. Heaven is an healthful Climate, no Passing-Bell goes there: this mortal shall put on Immortality.

Let us labour to be in the number of Gods Jewels, that when the Lord shall make up his Jewels, he may perfect our Souls and Bodies in Glory.

Quest.

Anfw.

How shall we know that we are in the number of Gods Jewels?

Have we inherent Holiness? I Cor. 6. 11. But re are washed, but ye are Sanctified. We are not Jewels by Creation, but Regeneration. If Holine's sparkle in us, it's a fign we are Jewels; and then when God comes to make up his Jewels, he will put Glory upon our Souls and Bodies for ever.

CHAP.

T

own

WO

less Spar

as a

fam

to I

to 1

him

Two

Fath

us o

we a

creat

G

CHAP. XIX.

The Third part of the Saints Reward, Gods sparing them.

I will spare them as a man spareth his own Son that serveth him. The Hebrew word to spare* signifies to use Clemen-* ton cy: In this Phrase is a Meiosis, there is less said and more intended; I will spare them, that is, I will deal with them as a Father doth with his Son: the same tenderness that a Father shews to his Child, the same will I shew to them that Fear me.

God will deal with them that Fear him, as a Father doth with his Son. Two things are in this Proposition.

1. That God is a Father. He is a Father, 1. By Creation, he hath given us our Being, Mal. 2. 10. Have not we all one Father? hath not one God createdus?

O 2 2. God

d

n

e

re d

r.

ul

:

.

r

d

r-

re

7.

re

a-

r-

nd

IP.

n

P.

2. God is a Father by Election; he hath culled out a certain number to be his Children, Eph. 1. 4.

3. God is a Father by special Grace, he stamps his impress of Holiness upon men, Col. 3. 10. All Gods Children resemble him, though some are more like him than others.

2. That God will deal with them that Fear him, as a Father doth with his Son: 1. God will accept them as a Father doth his Son. If the Child doth but lisp and can hardly speak plain, the Father takes all well: so God as a Father will accept of what his Children do in sincerity: Ezek. 20. 40. There will I require your Offerings, I will accept you with your sweet Savour.

2. Such as Fear God, he will be full of Bowels to them as a Father is to his Son. There are in God

1. Bowels of Compassion.

2. Bowels of Complacency.

1. Bowels of Compassion. A Father Compassionates his Child. Sozomen makes mention of a Father who offered

M

m

CC

of

G lea

no

 $E_{j}$ on It

th

ed to be put to death for his two Sons, who were fentenced to dye: God hath foundings of Bowels, Isa. 63. 15. The Compassions of Parents are Steel and Marble compared with Gods: Luke 1. 78. Through the tender Mercy of our God: in the Greek it is gradyzya eress, the Bowels of Mercy: these Bowels make God sympathize with his Children in Misery: he is touched in their wounds, Pfal. 103. 13. As a Father pitieth his Children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

2. In God are Bowels of Complacency. How dearly did Jacob love Benjamin; his life was bound up in him, Gen. 44. 30. All the Affections of Parents come from God: they are but a drop of his Ocean, a spark of his flame; Gods love is a love that passeth Knowledge, Ephes. 3. 19. The Saints cannot Love their own Souls so intirely as God loves them. In particular,

1. God loves the persons of his Children: they are the Apple of his Eye, Zach. 2. 8. He engraves them upon the Palms of his hands, Isa. 49. 16. It alludes to them who carry about them graven on the Stone of their

O 3 Ring

3 0

e,

pen

re

m ith

as ild

ak

fo

hat

20.

ngs,

Sa-

be

s to ther

omen

offer-

ed

Ring the Picture of fome dear Friend whom they intirely affect.

2. God loves the places his Children were born in the better for their fakes: Pfal. 87. 2. God loves the Gates of Sion: ver. 5. This and that man was born in her; (i. e.) This and that Believer. God loves the very ground his Children go upon. Why was Judaa (the Ancient feat of Ifrael) called a deli htfome Land? Mal. 5. 12. Not fo much delightful for the fruit growing in it, as for the Saints living in it.

3. God so loves his Children that he chargeth the great ones of the World upon pain of death not to hurt them: their persons are sacred, Pfalm 105.

14. He reproved Kings for their sakes, saying, Touch not mine anointed. By anointed, are meant such as have the anointing of the Spirit, I John 2. 20.

4. God delights in his Childrens company, he loves to fee their faces, Cant. 2. 24. Let me fee thy Countenance. If but two or three of Gods Children meet and pray together, God will be fure to make one of the company; Mat. 18. 20. There am I in the midst of them.

5. God

I

tl F

fe

5. God so loves his Children, that his Eye is never off them; Pfalm 33. 18. The Eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him. But is this such a priviledge, to have Gods Eye upon his Children? Gods Eye is upon the Wicked too. Answ. It is one kind of Eye that the Judge casts upon the Malesactor, and another that the Prince casts upon his Favourite. Gods Eye upon the Wicked is Endown Jumpa, an Eye of Revenge; but his Eye upon his Children is an Eye of Benediction.

6. God sets a continual guard about his Children, to preferve them from danger. He hides them in his Pavilien, P (alm 27. 5. He covers them with the Golden Feathers of his Protection, Psalm 91. 4. God preserved Athanasius strangely, he put it into his Mind to depart out of the House he was in, the night before the Enemies came to fearch for him. No Prince goes fo well guarded as Gods Child, for he hath a guard of Angels about him. The Angels are a numerous guard, 2 Kin. 6. 17. The Mountain was full of Horses and Chariots of fire: those Horses and Chariots of fire were the Angels of 0 4 God,

nd

en

s:

of

as

at

nd

as

1)

2.

ng.

ne

ld

1:

5.

3,

t-

t-

ns

s,

€.

en

1/2

d

God, gathered together in the manner of an huge hoft to defend the Prophet Elisha.

7. God puts his Children in rich apparel: Psalm 45. 13. Her cloathing is of wrought Gold. Jacob loved his Son Joseph, and gave him a finer Coat to wear than the rest of his brethren, Gen. 37. 3. He made him a Coat of divers Colours. God loves his Children and gives them a finer Coat, more curiously Woven, a Coat of divers Colours: it is partly made of Christs Righteoufness, and partly made of in-

* Rev. 19. herent Holinels *.

8. Such is Gods love, that he thinks nothing too Good for his Children, he enricheth them with the upper and nether Springs; he gives them the Kidneys of the Wheat, and Hony out of the Rock; he makes them a feast of fat things, Isa. 25. 6. He gives them the body and blood of his Son, and delights to fee his Children spreading themselves as Olive plants round about his Table *.

* Pfalm 123. 3.

3. Such as are Fearers of God, he will receive their Petitions from them as a Father doth from his Son; they may

a I may come boldly to the throne of Grace, Heb. 4. 16. If they come for pardon of fin, strength against Temptation, God will not deny them. Three things may cause boldness in prayer; the Saints have a Father to pray to, and the Spirit to help them to pray, and Jesus Christ as their Advocate to present their Prayers.

4. Such as are Fearers of God, God will bestow an Inheritance upon them, as a Father doth upon his Son: this Inheritance is no less than a Kingdom, Luke 12. 32. In it are Gates of Pearl, Rivers of Pleasure: and which is to be noted as a difference between Gods setling an Inheritance on his Children, and a Fathers setling an Inheritance: a Son cannot enjoy the Inheritance till his Father be dead; but every adopted child of God may at once enjoy both the Inheritance and the Father, because God is both Father and Inheritance *.

* Gen. 15.

5. Such as are Fearers of God, God will pass by many infirmities. That is meant by this expression in the Text, I will spare them as a man spareth his own Son. What a wonder is this, that God did not spare the Angels! 2 Pet.

n

t

n

e rs

ts

1-

S

1,

d ie

ıt

st

es

1,

1-

d

C

n

v y 2. 4. Nay, he did not spare his natural Son, Rom. 8. 32. Yet he will spare his Adopted Sons: I will spare them, I will not use extremity as I might, but pass by many aberrations.

Cantion.

Not that the Sins of Gods Children are hid from him; but fuch is his paternal Clemency, that he is pleafed to bear with many frailties in his Chil-He spareth them as a Father Spareth his Son. How often do Gods people grieve his Spirit by the neglect of their Spiritual Watch, the loss of their first-love; but God spares them! Israel provoked God with their murmurings, but he used Fatherly Indulgence towards them, Pfalm 78. 38. But he being full of Compassion, forgave their Iniquity, yea many a time turned he his anger away from them*.

* Neh. 9. I Use. Inform.

From this word, I will spare them as a man spares his Son, take Notice, Branch. that the best need sparing, Pfalm 130. 3. If thou, Lord, Shouldst mark Iniquities, Lord, who shall stand? The Papists speak of Merits, but how can we merit when our best services are so defe-Clive that we need sparing? how can these two stand together, our meriting and

fe

h

and God's sparing? what will become of us without sparing Mercy? we had need pray as Nehemiah, cap. 13. 22. Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and spare me according to the greatness of thy Mercy. Let us fly to this Asylum, Lord spare us as a Father spares his Son.

See Gods different dealing with 2 Branch. the Godly and the Wicked; the Lord will not spare the Wicked, Jer. 13. 14. I will not Pity, nor Spare, nor have Mercy, but destroy them. 'Tis fad, when the Prisoner begs of the Judge to spare him, but the Judge will shew him no favour. Gods cup of wrath is unmixed, Rev. 14. 10. Yet it is faid to be mixed, Pfal. 78. 5. Gods cup of wrath he gives the Wicked is mixed with all forts of Plagues, but it is a Cup unmixed, without the least drop of Mercy in it. God for a while Reprieves men, but forbearance is no forgiveness. Though God spare his Children, yet obdurate sinners shall feel the weight of his wrath.

If the Lord spares his people as a 3 Branch Father doth his Son, then they should ferve him as a Son doth his Father: ferve him willingly, 1 Chron. 28. 9. Know thou

ill

n,

t,

n

1-

0 1-

er ls

£

of

r-1-3.

e

n

).

k

t thou the God of thy Fathers, and serve him with a willing mind. God doth not * Virtus no- love to be put to strain *. Theretentium nul- fore Cains Sacrifice was rejected, bela eft. cause he brought it grudgingly, and against his Mind: it was rather the paying of a tax than a free-will Offering. That is the best obedience which is voluntary, as that is the best Hony which drops from the Comb. God fometimes accepts of willingness + 1King 8. without the Work +, but never of the work without willingness. 18.

2. Serve God Univerfally. True obedience is Uniform, it observes one * Quiequid command as well as another *, it fets proper De- upon duties difficult and dangerous. As umfit, equa- the Needle points that way which the Loadstone draws: so a Gracious Heart inclines to those things which the word fuggests; Luke 1. 6. 'Tis the note of an Hypocrite to be partial in Obedience; some sin he will indulge*, fome duty he will dispense with, his Obedience is lame on one foot.

* 2 King 5. 18.

liter fit.

3. Serve God Swiftly: Beware of a dull temper of Soul; the loveliness of Obedience is in the liveliness: we read

of

of two Women, Zach. 5. 9. The Wind was in their Wings: Wings are Swift, but Wind in the Wings denotes great Swiftness; such Swiftness should be in our Obedience to God: If God spares us as a Father doth his Son, we should ferve him as a Son doth his Father.

If God Spares us as a Father doth 2 Use. his Son, let us imitate God. 'Tis na-Exhoratitural for Children to imitate their Parents; look what the Father doth, the Child is apt to learn the fame. Let us imitate God in this one thing, as God spares us, and passeth by many failures, fo let us be sparing in our Censures of others; let us look upon the Weaknesses and Indiscretions of our Brethren with a more tender compassionate eye. Indeed, in case of Scandal, here we ought not to bear with others, but sharply reprove them: But if through Inadvertency or Passion they commit Indecencies, let us Pity and Pray for them: How much doth God bear with in us! He Spares us, and shall not we be Sparing to others? perhaps they may be wronged, and false things may be laid to their Charge. Athanasius was falsely Accused by the Arrians

d

r.

11

e

S

Arrians of Adultery, Basil of Herelie. 'Tis usual for the World to misrepresent the People of God; therefore let us be sparing in our Censures: God spares us, and shall not we be sparing towards others?

3 Use.

Here is Comfort to the Children of God in case of Failings: The Lord will not be severe to mark what they have done amis, but will Spare them: He passeth by many Instrmities, Zeph. 3. 17. He will rest in his Love; in the Original it is, He will be silent in his Love*. As if the Prophet had said, Though the Church had her Failings, yet Gods Love was such, that it would not suffer him to mention them: He will be silent in his Love. God winks at many overfights, Ezek. 20. 17. Mine eye Spared them from destroying them. I speak not of presumptuous sins, but Failings, as vain Thoughts, deadness in Duty, suddain Surprizals by Temptation: these being mourned for, God for Christs sake will Spare us as a Fa* Singular ther doth his Son *.

יחריש*

40 iciat 22- This is one of the richest Comforts assisting pater in silio, in the Book of God: Who is he that extrudet de lives and sins not? how defective are dono, Calv.

W

OU

W

fh

is

ar

th

20

I

for

W

th

he

Sp

we in our best Duties! how sull are our Lives either of Blanks or Blots! Were it not for Sparing Mercy, we should all goe to Hell; but this Text is a standing Cordial; if our Hearts are sincere, God will Spare us as a Father doth his Son: Hosea 11.9. I will not execute the sierceness of mine Anger. I know not a greater Rock of Support for a fainting Christian than this; God will abate of the Severity of the Law; though we come short in our Duty, he will not fail of his Mercy, but will Spare us as a Father Spareth his Son.

CHAP.

CHAP. XX.

Containing the Epiphonema, or shutting up of the Chapter.

MAL. III. 18.

Then shall ye return, and discern between the Righteous and the Wicked, between him that Serveth God, and him that Serveth him not.

The Ere follows the close of the Chapter, which I shall little more than Paraphrase upon. These words are spoken to the wicked, as Piscator, Calvin, Grotius, and other learned Expositors affert: for though the Godly shall at last discern what a difference God makes between them and the Wicked, how Indulgent he is to the one, and how Severe to the other; yet this Text is chiesly spoken to the Wicked, vers. 14. Te have said it is vain to Serve God; and vers. 15. Now we call the Proud happy,

d.

th

n

tl

as

R

th

Ti

th

T

happy, yea they that work Wickedness are set up: Well saith God, though now ye call the Proud happy and the Godly indiscreet, yet when I have made up my Jewels, then you Wicked ones shall see clearly what a Difference I make between the Righteous, and the Wicked, between him that Serveth God and him that Serveth lim not.

Then, when it is too late, when the day of Grace is past, and the Drawbridge of Mercy is pulled up, then shall ye discern a difference between the Holy and the Prophane.

The Wicked at present have their i Doct: Eyes shut, Dent. 29. 4. The Lord hath not given you an Heart to perceive, and Eyes to fee, and Ears to hear unto this day. Natural men have the Sword upon their right Eye, Zach. 11. 17. They fee no difference between the Pious and the Impious, they fee not but it fares as well with the Wicked as Righteous; nay, it feems to fare better, the wicked flourish, Pfalm 73. 12. These are the ungodly who prosper in the World, they increase in riches; whereas they that Pray and Fast, are Oppressed. The Wicked bless themselves, and think they

n

D-

n,

rs

ıt

W

W

is 4.

ıd

7,

they are now in a better condition than the Righteous; the matter is not to be wondred at, for the God of this World hath blinded the minds of Sinners, 2 Cor. 4. 4. But at last their eyes shall be opened: and that brings me to the fecond;

That there is a time shortly com-2 Doll. ing, when Impious flagitious Sinners shall see a sensible difference between the Godly and the Wicked. Vertetur alea, the Tables will then be turned: Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked.

When is the time when the Eyes of Quest. Sinners shall be opened, and they shall fee a difference between the Righteous and the Wicked?

There are two times when Sinners Anfw. shall see a manifest difference between the Righteous and the Wicked.

> 1. At the day of Judgment. 2. At the hour of Separation.

* Videbitis 1. At the day of Juagment; That an die judicii quantum will be a day of Discrimination *. Things diveria fit fors pile will then appear in their proper coimpii. Gro- lours; the difference will-easily be seen bebe

G

pr pa the be ke gat

hea Tel WI Wi up

rati

the Bine Nov a Ve

teou fhall King Fiery that verb. Ears one of th

UMI

between good and bad; the one being Absolved, the other Condemned.

2. At the hour of Separation; When God shall Eternally Separate the Reprobate from the Elect, as a Fan fe. parateth the Chaff from the Wheat, then shall there be a visible discerning between the Righteous and the Wicked, Mat. 25. 32. Before him shall be gathered all Nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a Shepheard divideth the Sheep from the Goats. Jelus Christ will take his Saints up with him into Glory, and will cast the Wicked down to Hell: He will make up the Godly as fewels, and make up the Wicked in Bundles, Mat. 13. 30. Bind them in Bundles and burn them * . * Inois Now Sinners shall be convinced with exarienter a Vengeance, that the State of the Righ- tur. Auflin. teous and Wicked is different: They shall fee the Righteous advanced to a Kingdom, and themselves cast into a Fiery Prison.. O the dreadfulness of that place of Torment! — Et vox et verba deficiunt -- Could men lay their Ears to the Infernal Lake, and but for one hour hear the Groans and Shrieks of the Damned, they would tell us P 2 that

n

r :

of 11

ers

n

at 0-

en

e-

* Spe! aa nefarij intrant, argetonte natant.

that they now fee what before they would not believe, the infinite difference between the Righteous and the Wicked*. In Hell is Torment upon Torment, Blackness of darkness, Jude 13. Bonds and Chains, 2 Pet. 2. 4. These denti Phle- Chains are Gods Decree ordaining, and his Power binding men under Wrath; and that which doth accent and put a Sting into the Torments of the wicked is that they shall be always Scorching in the Torrid Zone of Gods Wrath, Revel: 14. 11. The Smoak of their Torment ascendeth up for ever and ever. Christ faid of his Suffering on the Cross, It is finished; But Sinners shall never fay of their Sufferings in Hell, they are finished: no, imagine so many thousand Years the Damned have lain in Hell as there are drops in the Sea, Eternity is yet to begin.

1 Use.

This may inform all wicked men, that thow Blind soever they are now, yet ) at last the Vail shall be taken from their Eyes: They now count themselves the only happy men, and look upon the People of God with Derifion, they load them with Inve-Etives, and Curfe them with their Ex-commu-

communications: Well, the time is not far off, when the Wicked shall clearly discern who belong to Christ, and who belong to the Devil; as Moses said to Korah and his Company, Numb. 16. 5. To morrow the Lord will shew who are his: So at the day of Judgment the Lord will shew who are his, and who are not; nay, sooner than so; at the day of Death the Wicked shall guess how it is like to be with them to Eternity.

O that the Eyes of Sinners may be fpeedily opened, that they may in time fee the difference of things, the Beauty that is in Holiness, and the Prodigy of madness that is in Sin.

Confolation to the Righteous. Though at prefent they are flighted, and have the Odium of the World cast upon them, yet shortly God will make a Visible difference between them and the Wicked; as it was with Pharaohs two Officers, the Butler and the Baker; at first there seemed to be no difference between them, but within a while there was a difference made; the chief Butler was advanced to Honour, but the chief Baker was Executed, 2. Use.

ey fe-

the

noc

13.

efe

and

th;

put

vic-

rch-

ath,

Tor-

ver.

the hall

Hell,

any lain

Sea,

nen,

low,

aken

count

and with

Inve-

r Ex-

nmu-

Gen. 40. 21. So though now Gods People are low and despised, and the Wicked Insult over them, yet when the Critical day comes, there shall be a final Separation made between the Righteous and the Wicked: the one shall be Dignified, the other Damned, Mat. 25. 46.

Be encouraged therefore, O ye Saints' of God, to perfift in a course of Holiness; though now ye seem to be lowermost, yet in the Resurrection ye shall be uppermost, Pfalm 49. 14. The Righteous shall have Dominion over them in the Morning; They shall have Dominion over the Wicked in the Morning of the Resurrection. They shall then Laugh the Wicked to Scorn, Psalm 52.6. Then shall the difference be seen between the Righteous and the Wicked, between him that Served God and him that Served him not.

CHAP.

no th D

Sin

CHAP. XXI.

Shewing Gods Gracious dealing with His People.

OR

A Consolatory in Affliction.

PSALM CXIX. 65.

Thou hast dealt well with thy Servant, O Lord.

He Psalms are the Marrow of the B.ble, they are both for Delight and Use; like rich Cordials which do not only gratifie the Palate, but strengthen the Spirits. This Psalm is full of Divine and Spiritual matter: it was Composed, if not Sung by the Sweet Singer of Israel: The Words fall into two Parts.

P 4

1. Gods

Quest.

Anfw.

Object.

1. Gods Kindness to David, He dealt well with him.

2. David's grateful acknowledgment of this Favour, Thou hast dealt well with thy Servant O Lord.

From Gods Kindness to David, obferve

Post. That God dealeth well with his People, Gen. 33. 12. The Lord hath dealt graciously with me. Gods People often walk unanswerable to his Love: but though they deal ill with God, God deals well with them.

Gods dealing well with his People ariseth from the Intrinsecal goodness of his Nature; God is love, I John 4.16. From this flow all Acts of Royal Bounty.

Wherein doth Gods dealing well with his People appear?

In enriching them with variety of Mercies; his Footsteps drop Fatness, Psalm 65. 11. He Feeds, Adopts, Crowns them; and is not this dealing well with them?

But how doth God deal well with the Saints, when he laies his hand so heavy upon them in Affliction? His pen is full of Gall, and he writes bitter

. 9

UMI

ter

G

it

m

th

tĥ

to

fo

it

G

h

de

C

P

01

I

h

t

ter things against them, Pfalm 73. 14. I am chastened every morning: how doth God deal well with his People, when it fares ill with them?

It must be held as an undoubted Answ. maxim, that when the Lord severely chastizeth the Saints, he deals well with them: but we are ready to Question this Truth, and say as the Virgin Mary to the Angel, how can this be; therefore I shall demonstrate it, that when it goes ill with the Righteous, yet God deals well with them.

1. When the Lord afflicts the Saints yet he deals well with them, because he is their God. David was in the deep of Sorrow, Pfal 130. 1. Yet he could say, the Lord was his Portion, Pfalm 16. 5. God is an exceeding great reward, Gen. 15. 1. He is a whole Paradise of delight—Bonum in quo omnia bona—He who hath God for his God, all his Estate lies in Jewels. If then God passeth over himself to his People by a Deed of gist to be their God, here is enough to countervail all their troubles: what can God give more than himself?

2. When it goes ill with the Godly,

t

n

25 ò

עשית

vet God deals well with them, because while he is inflicting evil upon them, he is doing them good. That which the Text renders, thou hast dealt well with thy Servant, in the Hebrew it is, thou hast done good to thy Servant *: Psalm 129. 71. It is good for me that I have been afflicted: David doth not fav, it is Good for me that . I have been in prosperity, but that I have been afflicted. God doth his People good by Affliction Two wayes;

+ Vexatio dat intellectum.

1. The Godly grow wifer t. Affliction is schola lucis; it discovers that pride, earthliness, unmortified passion which they could not have believed was in their Hearts, Job 36. 8. If they be held in cords of Affliction, then he sbews them their Transgression. Affliction cures the Eye-fight.

* isti-Jus ales-Thir Aqu-TRUVEL. Chrysoft.

2. Affliction promotes Holiness *: The more the Diamond is cut, the more it sparkles, Heb. 12. 10. That we may be partakers of his Holiness. When profperity makes Grace ruft, God scowres us with Affliction. The Godly are beholding to their Sufferings: God by the wholesome discipline of the Cross makes them more humble, more conformed

to

to

of

ers

is fu

th

W

lea

10

Suf

are W

is

Lo

he

the

the

har

Car

Yo

Th

the

wl

are

abo

of Affliction bring on the spring Flowers of Grace: now if God while he is chastising is doing us good, then fure he deals well with us.

3. When God puts his Children to the School of the Cross, yet he deals well with them, because he doth not leave them without a Promile, 1 Cor. 10. 13. God is faithful who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able. God knows our frame, that we are imbecil and weak; our flesh is not as brafs, Job 6 12. And the Lord will not try us above our strength, he will not lay a Giants burden upon a Childs back. God will not stretch the strings of his Viol too hard, lest they break: if God strike with one hand, he will support with the other, Cant. 8. 3. Either he will make our Yoak Lighter, or our Faith stronger. This Promise is Hony at the end of the Rod.

4. God deals well with his People when he afflicts, because Afflictions are Preventive. 1. They prevent sin, 2 Cor. 12. 7. Lest I should be exalted above measure, there was given me a Thorn

use

m, ich

vell

is,

*:

bat

ot

ve

ve

ole

Af-

at

on

ed

en

li-

.

re

ıy

)_

e

d

Thorn in the Flesh. Prosperity like Opium is ready to make men fall asleep in Sin, God-awakens them by the Voice of the Rod, and so prevents a Spiritual Lethargy.

2. They prevent Hell, I Cor. 11.32. We are chastened of the Lord that we should not be condemned with the World. Doth not a Judge deal well with a Prisoner, when he laies some light penalty on him and saves his Life? Is it not goodness in God, when he laies upon us light Affliction, and saves us from Wrath to come? 2 Cor. 4. 17. What is a drop of Sorrow the Godly tast of, to that bottomless Sea of Wrath the Wicked must drink?

5. When God corrects he deals well with his People, because all he doth is in Love*. Afflictions are (as Gregory Nazianzen saith) sharp Arrows, but they are shot from the hand of a loving Father. As Gods not afflicting the Wicked is in anger: Gods hand is Heaviest when it is lightest, Hosea 4. 14. I will not punish your daughters when they commit Whoredom: A Father gives over correcting a Child whom he intends to disinherit: so Gods * iv iezii seezii, Chrysoft.

chafti-

n

chaffizing the Godly is in Love, Rev. 3. 19. As many as I Love I rebuke; when God hath the Look of an Enemy, he hath the Heart of a Father. As when Abraham lift up his hand to Sacrifice Isaac, he loved him; so when God Sacrificeth the Comforts of his Children, he loves them. Was not God severe against Christ: yet it was proclaimed by a Voice from Heaven, This is my beloved Son, Mat. 3. 17. Well then, if God only send love-to-kens to us, he deals well with us.

6. God deals well with his People when he afflicts them, because he moderates his stroke, Jer. 30. 11. I will* Jer. 46. correct thee in Measure. 1. God doth 28. not smite his Children so much as he might, Psal. 78. 38. He did not stir up all his Wrath: God doth not make the Cup so bitter as he could. He useth Lenitives rather than Corressives: he layes a lighter burden on, he might lay on an heavier. Doth God take away a Child? he might take away his Spirit; Doth he chastize the Body? he might torment the Conscience.

2. God doth not correct his Children

i-

p

ne

a

2.

ve

d.

ht

Is

ne

es

7. ly

of ell

th

e-

s,

of

ds

ft,

ur

n :

ld

ds

i

dren so much as they have deserved, Ezra 9. 13. Thou hast punished us tess than our Iniquities deserve. Doth God make us drink in a Cup of Wormwood? we have deserved to drink in a Cup of Wrath: doth God cut us short? we have deserved he should cut us off, Ezek. 47. 3. The Waters were to the Ankles. Do the Waters of Affliction come up to our Ankles? we have deserved to be drowned in these Waters.

7. When God afflicts his Children, he deals well with them, because he keeps them from Sinning in Affliction, John 17. 15. I pray that thou keep them from the evil.

1. The Godly are kept from impatience. When the Wicked are under Gods black Rod, they either fain: or fret, Rev. 16. 9. Men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God: but the Godly are silent under the Rod, Levit. 10. 3. And Arron held his Peace: 'twas a sore Tryal, both his Sons were consumed with fire, but Arron held his Peace. Gods People open their Ear to hear the Voice of the Rod, but shut their Mouth fay

M

di

ou

lef

the

the

the

ed

wi

Pe

ce

his

fin

no

oh

th

A

bu

dr

C

the

for un

Lo

m poj

Mouth, they have not one word to fay against God.

d d

n

S

z. The Godly dare not use any indirect means to extricate themselves out of Trouble. Wicked men, like Malefactors, care not how they get loofe, they will fin themselves out of straits: the People of God had rather lye in the Furnace to have their drofs purged, than come out too foon: they will not purchase the liberty of their Persons by infnaring their Consciences. Doth not God deal well with his Children in keeping them from finning in Affliction? Affliction cannot do that mischief as sin .doth: the one is like a rent in the Garment, the other is like a rent in the Flesh. Affliction may deprive us of our Estates, but Sin deprives us of our God.

8. God deals well with his Children in Affliction, because though he Correct them, he doth not forsake them. Indeed Sion said, the Lord hath forsaken me, Isa. 49. 14; But that was under a Temptation, Lam. 3. 31. The Lord will not cast off for Ever. God may alter his Providence, not his purpose: he may change his dispensation, not his disposition, Hos. 11. 8. How shall I give thee up O Ephraim? It alludes to a Father who is about to difinherit his Son, but when he is going to fet his hand to the deed, his bowels begin to Work; I am his Father, and though he be a Rebellious Son, yet he is a Son: how shall I difinherit him? Such are the Workings of Gods bowels to his Children; though he may give them a fevere rebuke, vet he will not cut off the entail of Mercy.

9. God deals well with his Children in Affliction, because though their condition be fad, yet it is not so bad as others: the Lord puts a difference between the Chastifements of the Godly, and the Punishments of the Wicked: the Godly man hath Pain in his fickness, but the Wicked man hath Wrath in his fickness, Ecclef. 5. 17. The Lord shoots a fingle Arrow at the Godly, but a whole shower of Arrows at the Wicked: he punisheth them in their Body, Estate, Conscience. A good man hath God to Pity him in his Sorrows, Ifa. 63. 9. But the Wicked have God to laugh at them 111

ir

in

th

ke

top

wi

aw

bel

ftri

her

bel

ana

hat

VOU

one

mo

Rela

fwe

you

kind

mon

ful

was in their Miseries, Prov. 1. 26. The Godly have Christ to pray for them, in their Afflictions; but the Impenitent when in Torment, are thut out of Christs prayer, Joh. 17. 9. I pray not for the World. Gods People are apt to fay, Never did any fuffer as they: yes, it is worse with the Wicked; their Sins and Sufferings meet together.

מוכ

al-

to

is

is

a-

us I

gs gh ce, of

en

n-

as

ed-

C-

in

th

7.

at

of

h

e.

n

ne

m

n

10. God in Affliction deals well with his Children, because if he take away one Comfort, he leaves more behind. God threatned Jerusalem to ftrip her of all her Jewels and leave her bare, Ezek. 16. 39. But you who belong to God, may Sing of Mercy and Judgment, Pfal. 101. 1. If God hath fleeced your Estate, he hath raised you up Friends: If he hath taken away one of your. Jewels, he hath left you more: if he hath pluck'd one dear Relation from you, he hath left other fweet Clusters behind, and can double your Comfort in them: is not all this kindness? But this is our Sin, we grieve more for one Loss, than we are thankful for an Hundred Mercies. Jacob was more troubled for the loss of Joseph Q

Joseph, than he was Comforted with the Lives of all his other Children,

Gen. 37. 35.

well with his People, because he takes away nothing from them but he gives them that which is better. What dammage can it be to a man to lose his Farthings, and have Gold given him? If God take away Health, he gives Holines: If he take away a Child, he gives a Christ; is not this better? God takes away a Flower and gives a Jewel.

12. When God Afflicts his Children he deals well with them, because he affords them his Divine presence, Pfalm 91. 15. I will be with him in trouble. God never Promifed us a Charter of Exemption from trouble, but he hath Promifed to be with us in trouble. Better be in a Prison and have Gods presence, than on a Throne and want Gods prefence gives courage, Act. 23. 11. When Polycarp was near the Theatre and going to Suffer, a Voice came from Heaven, Be of good chear O Polycarp. Was not Christ with the Three Children? did not he go with them

n

I

0 f

0

in 6%

10

them into the fire? Dan. 3. 25. I fee four men in the fire, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God. He who is the Second Person in the Trinity, made the Fourth Person in the Furnace.

13. God in Afflicting deals well with his Children, because he gives them that which makes amends for their Afflictions; he drops in the Oyl of Gladness; he makes them gather Grapes of Thorns: John 16. 22. Your Sorrow shall be turned into Joy. We fee a Godly mans Sufferings, but we know not what Joy he feels: as we hear the roaring of the Sea, but we fee not the Gold at the bottom. Philip Lanterave of Heffe faid, that in his trouble he felt the divine Confolations of the Martyrs: Here was Hony out of the Lion. The Saints have been fometimes fo fweetly enlarged, that they had rather endure their Afflictions than want their Comforts, 2 Cor. 1. 5. As the Sufferings of Christ abound in us: so our Consolation also aboundeth by Christ*. Saint Paul had his Pri- * Martyr fon-Songs, Act. 16 25. This Bird of is extens Paradise could sing in Winter. God Fertul.

2 - turns

th

n, als

he

he

er.

an old

h, ay

ot

W-

en

he lm

le.

of

th

le.

ods

int

let.

the ice

ear

the ith

em

turns the Waters of Marah into Wine; He keeps his Cordials for fainting. When the Saints taste most of the Wrath of Men, they shall feel most of the Love of God: thus the Lord candies his Wormwood with Sugar.

14. When God Corrects his Children he deals well with them, because these Paroxysms or hot trials do not last long .- Post nubila Phabus-I Kin. 11. 39. I will Afflict the Seed of David, but not for ever: God will love for ever, but not afflict for ever; he will ere long give his people a Writ of ease. A Sinners best, and a Saints worst are but short; Affliction is called a Cup, Ezek. 23. 32. The Wicked drink a Sea of Wrath; the Godly sip only of the Cup of Affliction, and God will shortly say, Transeat Calix, Let this Cup pass away from them, Isa. 35. 10. Forrow and fighing (ball fly away. As Affliction hath a Sting to torment, fo it hath a Wing to fly.

15. When God puts his Children to the School of the Cross, he deals well with them, because these Afflictions are Manuductions to lead them to Heaven. Per crucem at calum. 2 Cor.

4. 17.

10

ir

tl

fl

ra

Is

w fl:O

ly

B

to

be Je

is

C

WO

th

4. 17. Our light Affliction worketh for us a far more exceeding and Eternal weight of Glory. Upon the dark Colour of Affliction God layes the Golden Colour of Glory. O thou weeping Saint, what a bleifed change shalt thou shortly have! Thou shalt change thy Pilgrimage for Paradife: Thou shalt have thy wish. Are riches desirable? thou shalt have Gates of Pearl: Is Honour defireable? thou shalt have white Robes: Is Pleasure desireable? thou shalt enter into the Joy of thy Lord. O think what it will be to be fweetly immersed in the River of Life, and Bathe in the Hony-streams of Gods Love for ever: think what the Beatifical Vision will be: what it will be to wear a Garland made of the Flowers of Paradife: think what it will be to have the Soul thicker fet with Jewels of Glory, than the Firmament is bespangled with Stars: O what a Compensation will this be for all a Christians Tryals! A fight of this blis will make him forget his Sufferings. One Sun-beam of Glory will dry up the Water of his Tears.

If God dealswell with us when he chafti-

Use.

he

of n-

1-ſe

ot

11

chastiseth us, then it becomes us to Cherish good Thoughts of God. We are apt in Adversity to think hardly of God; this ariseth from Pride. Such commonly as are of high Spirits are of high Passions; they think themselves better than others, and that they have deserved better at Gods hands, and now Pride vents it felf in murmuring. O let us take heed of having hard Thoughts of God. The Patient hath no cause to think ill of the Physician when he prescribes him a bitter Potion, seeing it is in order to a Cure. Gods afflictive Providences are the strokes of a Father, not the Wounds of an Enemy. God smites that he may save. Out of the bitterest Drug God distils his Glory, and our Happiness.

Let us Think well of God; nay, in all adverse Providences let us learn to bless God, I Thes. 5. 18. 20 mirn, In every thing give thanks: if in every thing, then, in Affliction; And good reason, because God deals well with us. Job blessed God in Affliction, cap.

1. 21. The smiting of Jobs Body was like the striking upon a musical Instrument, he sounded forth Thankful-

ness

nefs. A gracious Soul should bless God that he will take so much Notice of him as to Visit him with the Rod*; and *Job7* is so kind as rather to Afflict him than lose him. This shews an high degree of Grace, not only to Justifie God in Affliction, but Magnifie him. Believers are Gods Temples, and where should his Praises be sounded forth but in his Temples?

FINIS.

e

e

V

t see go for it is n o n y d

5-1-